PREFERRED SUICIDE TO ATTEMPT TO SLAY KING

ROME, December 22.—The Giornal d'Italia publishes a sensational story to the effect that a young anarchist, Henry Dal Ferro of San Giovanni in Persiceto near Bologna who was designated by lot to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel attempted to commit suicide rather than carry out his mission. Ferro, says the paper, is now in a hospital in a serious condition.

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

CHARLOTTETOWN.—There will be Christmas services in St. James' Presbyterian Church, Charlottetown, tomorrow morning at eleven.

SPLENDID DISPLAY.—The splendid line of chocolates displayed by The MacKinnon Drug Co. has won the admiration of their customers and many sales are being made. Yesterday the firm received Ganong's chocolates and they are now on sale at popular prices.

JUST A REMINDER.—To-night is the last chance to buy a remembrance for that friend. The MacKinnon Drug store is the place to get a handsome package of chocolates. Every package is fresh, clean and new. The prices range from 35c. to $3.00.

XMAS SHOPPING.—To-night will be the last chance to do Xmas shopping. There is no gift so appreciated by ladies as a box of good chocolates. They are the strong feature of The MacKinnon Drug Store and have what they consider the best display ever shown by them. The prices are right, too.

INCIDENT RECALLED.—John White of Charlottetown informs The Guardian that he distinctly remembers, as a boy, the incident recalled by C. C. Gardner in a recent letter published in this paper. The man, "Rustico," Cameron, was at the time employed with Mr. White's father, a ship builder of St. John, N. B., and wishing to come to his home in Prince Edward Island and finding that the boats had left him made a lone journey on foot after walking from St. John to Cape Tormentine.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER.—The Week of Prayer will be observed in Charlottetown this New Year, Jan. 6 to 11. On Monday night Jan. 6 there will be two services and the subject of the meetings will be Thanksgiving and Humiliation. Rev. T. Marshall will speak at St. James Church and Rev. G. C. Taylor at Central Christian Church. On Tuesday evening the meeting will be in the First Methodist Church and the subject will be Is This The Decisive Hour in Missions? Rev. T. W. Murphy will be the speaker. On Wednesday there will be meetings in St. Paul's School Room and at Grace Methodist Church. Rev. J. Heaney will speak at St. Paul's and Rev. D. McLean at Grace Church. The subject will be Nations and Rulers. On Thursday the service will be in Zion Church in the interests of the British and Foreign Bible Society. Rev. Z. L. Fash will give the address. On Friday evening there will be services in the Baptist and People's Churches. The subject will be The Home and Religion. Rev. T. F. Fullerton will speak at the Baptist church and Rev. J. F. Floyd at the People's Church. The services will begin each night at seven thirty o'clock. The addresses will be ten minutes long and there will be much prayer in accord with the purpose of the Week of Prayer the world over.

Smokers Goods.—We have an excellent assortment of cased pipes, tobacco pouches, clear and cigarette holders and case smoking sets, ash trays, tobacco jars, pocket lighters, cigars of all kinds in Xmas packages (10's and 25's) and everything a smoker could wish for.—All of the above articles were specially selected for the Christmas trade and make acceptable gifts. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside. 12-13Mtf.

THIS ISSUE.—The Guardian always has something of interest in every column, and today's issue of fourteen pages is no exception to the rule, page eleven containing some of the latest local news.

OFFICE HOURS.—The Guardian News and Business Departments will close today at 6.30 and the News will re-open, tomorrow at 6.30 p. m. and the Business at 8 a. m. the following morning.

SKATING SEASON.—Every day has been waiting for the skating season to open and will have their wish gratified under the best of conditions on Xmas day. Rink opens with band in the afternoon from 3 to 5 and in the evening from 8 to 10 as usual.

AGRICULTURAL SECTION.—In this issue The Guardian opens an agricultural section which it is hoped will prove of general interest and particularly to farmers. This section will in future be a feature of the Saturday morning and Friday evening editions.

MATINEE XMAS.—There will be a matinee Christmas Day at the People's Theatre. The doors will open at 3.30 and the performance starts at 4 p.m. The program includes the Musical Millers, pictures and a bag of candy for the little ones.

WILL PROBATED.—The will of the late R. M. Johnson, Charlottetown, dated March 21, 1911, was given for probate Dec. 20, 1912. According to the inventory, the estate is valued at about $60,000. To the P. E. Island hospital he bequeathed $1,000 direct, to his wife he leaves all his household effects and the interest of his money, which is in trust for the P. E. Island hospital and which is to be used to build a wing to said hospital at the death of his wife, to his daughter, Eleanor Gertrude, he gives $3,000 in cash and $2,000 at the death of his widow.

LIFE IMPRISONMENT.

BRANTFORD, Ont., Dec. 23.—The death sentence of Arthur A. Ellis for killing his brother-in-law has been commuted to life imprisonment.

SHOOTING ACCIDENT AT MIDDLETON

MIDDLETON, Dec. 21.—A serious shooting accident occurred this afternoon at Nictaux Falls. Two boys, Everett Whitman, son of Herbert Whitman, and Willie Crawford, each aged about fourteen years, went out shooting. As they were climbing a hill Crawford stumbled discharging his rifle a thirty-two caliber piece. The Whitman lad who was in advance received the bullet in his back. As soon as possible help was secured. The boy was carried to a neighboring house. Dr. F. S. Messenger, who was summoned, failed to find the bullet which he fears has entered the boy's bowels. If this should prove correct the chances of recovery are poor.

CHICAGO BOASTS OF GENEROUS SANTA CLAUS

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 21.—Showers of gold and loads of turkeys were distributed by a generous Santa Claus throughout Chicago's business district to-day. It is estimated that at least $2,000,000 was distributed as bonuses among the employees of industries, banks and big stores, with the probability that the total will be raised to $3,000,000 by the addition of gifts deferred until Christmas Day or the end of the year. The biggest givers were the large factories and mercantile establishments that have adopted the profit-sharing plan. Practically all of the banks and brokerage houses presented their employees with gold pieces, from $5 to $20, in most cases according to rank and length of service.

We Wish All Our Customers --the Entire Public-- A Right Merry Xmas "Last Minute" Gifts For a 'last minute' gift suggestion there is nothing better than house slippers, neat, warm, comfortable and natty looking house slippers that will give you the acme of comfort while you are indoors.
