In conversation with the St. John Telegraph, Attorney-General Pugsley said he had recently been waited upon by Harry Wood, son of the deceased, by a former wife. He requested that a searching investigation be held and the attorney-general, as stated, has granted the request.

The Guardian had a pleasant call yesterday from Joseph F. Bittinger, editor of the Old Colony Memorial of Plymouth, Mass. Mr. Bittinger is a friend and former fellow townsman of Rev. J. L. Miner of this City. Plymouth, situated 35 miles southeast of Boston, is the oldest New England town. Here in December 1620 came the Pilgrim Fathers, whose luck it was to land, upon almost the only rock amidst the Plymouth fads, on a dreary winter day when "the sea around was black with storms and white the shores with snow." Mr. Bittinger came in by steamer Olivette yesterday morning and returned by the same steamer in the afternoon.

The "Sunshine" Furnace is entirely Canadian—is not a duplicate of any United States heater. Designed specially to meet the varied conditions of our climate, and to burn all kinds of fuel successfully—wood can be used in fall and spring, and coal in severe weather. Has a self-acting gas damper—no need to open your doors, etc., to emit gas odors after lighting fire, as with common furnaces. The "Sunshine" has more good features than any other furnace, and no other good furnace is so cheap. Sold by all enterprising dealers. Write for booklet.
