MARRIED IN NEEDHAM, MASS.—Many old friends in Summerside will be interested to hear of the marriage of Miss Helen Estelle VanDerstine, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip VanDerstine of Summerside, to Mr. Franklin Edridge, which took place on October 27th at Needham, Mass., in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends of the bride and groom. Miss VanDerstine was a popular member of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia here for some time before she left to make her home in the United States. Her many Summerside friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Edridge all happiness and prosperity in the future.—S

FIRST PRIZE FOR ALL CANADA.—The brief announcement has been made in the press to the effect that the prize winners at the Dominion Exhibition of Handicrafts held under the auspices of the Canadian Handicrafts at the Art Gallery at Montreal and which closed on Saturday last, included the following winners from P. E. Island: Hooked Rugs, Mrs. Ina Perry and Mrs. F. W. Palmer. It is now learned that Mrs. Perry, who resides at St. Nicholas, has won the great distinction of receiving the first prize at the Exhibition for the whole of Canada. Her prize winning hooked rug was of a conventional design, very faultlessly executed. The winner of the second prize is Mrs. Fred W. Palmer of Summerside, whose rug was a very faithful replica of the map of Prince Edward Island, in colors. Other Island ladies obtaining honorable mention were Miss Lizzie Woodside and Mrs. James A. Campbell.—S

WEDDING BELL.—On Wednesday evening, October 24th, at the farm residence of Carnet V. Profit, Spring Valley was the scene of a very pretty autumn wedding when his eldest daughter, Hazel Myra became the bride of George Wesley McCoubrey son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. McCoubrey of Cavendish. Rev. S. B. Profit, O'Leary, a cousin of the bride was the officiating clergyman. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of ivory satin charmeuse with veil of tulle and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair fern. Her cousin Miss Miriam Profit, Kensington sweetly rendered the wedding march while the contracting parties entered the drawing room and stood under an arch of evergreens. After the ceremony about fifty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding supper. Previous to her marriage the bride was showered by her friends where she was the recipient of many valuable and useful gifts. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful platinum pendant. The bride and groom will reside in Cavendish where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Zaster & Sons, New Whitshire, who exhibited eleven pure bred Jersey Cattle, and won 5 firsts, 3 seconds, 2 thirds, and 3 fourths. They showed in four of the five group classes and won three of them, being second in the other. This is a first class record and is a credit to the Province.

WINSOR PASTOR ACCEPTS STOCK IN RACE TRACK.—WINDSOR, Nov. 8.—Rev. C. D. Farquharson, pastor of Westminster United Church here, announced his intention from the pulpit, yesterday, of accepting the bequest of one share of Kenilworth race track stock left by Charles Millar, Toronto lawyer, to border cities ministers and turning the stock over to the stewards of the church.

The stock is not to be sold, he said, but the dividends are to be used for the church. He said he could not shift responsibility by selling the stock, which is worth around $200. If the stewards of the church refuse to accept it, he said he will give the share on similar terms to the Goodfellows' Charitable organization or to the Salvation Army. Mr. Farquharson then proceeded with a bitter attack on all forms of gambling including real estate and stock market speculations.

MEISAAC-CURLEY.—St. Bonaventure's Church, Tracadie, was the scene of a very pleasant and interesting event on Tuesday morning, Sept. 25th when Miss Anna McIsaac of Tracadie Cross, and Mr. Urban Curley of Fort Augustus were united in marriage by Rev. J. B. MacIntyre, pastor of Tracadie parish, the double ring service being used. The bride who was one of our most successful school teachers looked winsome gowned in navy georgette with hat to match and wearing a satin finished broadcloth coat with fur trimming. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Mary Curley sister of the groom who also wore navy with hat to match and carried a beautiful bouquet. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Joseph McIsaac brother of the bride. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the bride's home, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served to Rev. J. B. MacIntyre, and also the immediate friends of the bride and groom. After a few hours pleasantly spent with vocal and instrumental music the newly wedded motored to Charlottetown and dined at the Queen Hotel. In the afternoon they drove to Borden returning in the evening to their future home in Fort Augustus where a grand reception was tendered them assembled to celebrate the happy event, and a most enjoyable evening were costly and numerous testifying to the popularity of the young couple. The Guardian joins in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Curley "bon voyage" through life.
