

OXO IN CUBES

EVERY mother should remember these two points about OXO Cubes.
 An OXO Cube, in a glass of hot milk, increases the food value of milk enormously—and greatly assists digestion.
 An OXO Cube, spread on bread and butter, increases the food value of bread and butter enormously.
 OXO Cubes are foods in themselves, and add to the value of other foods by helping digestion.

LESSON VI NOVEMBER 5.
 ESTHER PLEADING FOR HER PEOPLE.

Esther 4: 10-5: 3.

GOLDEN TEXT

"The Lord preserveth all them that love him."—Ps. 145: 20.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS

By Rev. D. W. Snider.

An intensely interesting history and a most dramatic page of literature is brought to the attention of the student through this lesson. Xerxes' invasion of Greece with the largest army the world has ever seen; the folly and fame of the passage of the Hellespont; the Spartan heroism of Leonidas and his 300 men at the pass of Thermopylae; the naval conflict at Salamis, where the thousand ships of Persia were defeated; the ignominious flight of Xerxes and his return to Persia to riot in the luxury and tyrannic abandon of a despot—such are some of the chapter pages of the story.

The king referred to is said to be the one with whom the beautiful Queen Esther had to do. Without knowledge of the fact that she was a Jewess she had been admitted and welcomed at the court as a favorite consort of the king. The Book of Esther is prized by the Jews as containing the record of a most evident display of the Providence of God in the preservation of their race. The beauty of Esther gave her a place at the court, and her piety, patriotism and power of intrigue made her a deliverer. What was accomplished is celebrated in the joyous feast called "Purim."

But, passing from a consideration of character-study under ancient or oriental conditions, the lesson is suggestive of worthy applications under modern and occidental needs. Despotism is not dead. Tyrannies exist. Worthy causes are in bondage. Jealous, self-seeking Hamans are still to be reckoned with. Fair Esthers are far-seeing Mordecais have still their part to play. Hatach, the messenger, can find service today.

God works His wonders, for the greater part, at all events, through natural agencies. The wrath of man is made his servant. If that is the case, it will not be hard to discover how religious preference, pious devotion, race loyalty, national patriotism may be the instruments of issues and results which are revolutionary and age long.

Patriotism is something more, and distinctly something other than flag-waving. It will run the desperate chance and "play the game" to a finish in behalf of that for which its blood makes appeal. The thing is to pray for the clean blood of patriotism. That would root out quickly the drink depotism, the Dreadnought of tyranny, the "white slavery," et al.
 Every noble soul believes, and every one ought to believe, that his place in the affairs of the world is special and unique. He often beats against the bars of disappointment, but into the forever his soul will go marching on as one created for a destiny all its own.

The wisdom of securing physical and mental fitness for any task revealed itself in Esther. Fasts are not follies if they clear the brain and fire the heart and consecrate the will.
 The greatest possible personal cost is a trifle where the purchase is racial or national or when the triumph is a triumph of the faith.
 Whenever a noble purpose is formed a high resolve is taken a seal is placed upon the character which makes it immortal.

The greatest obstacles to progress often give way before the touch of courage which makes its simplest show. The golden sceptre is held out when it takes its stand.
