IN MEMORIAM

MRS. FRANK WILLOUGHBY

In the Realm of "Many Mansions"
God has given a beautiful place,
To a brave young, saintly mother,
And the rapturous vision, "Face to Face."

On July 15th, there passed away at the City Hospital, Mrs. Frank Willoughby, nee Gladys O'Brien, in her 32nd year, after an illness extending over six years.

During this time Mrs. Willoughby underwent four major operations, and endured intense suffering, such as few are ever called upon to suffer. With a brave smile and magnificent courage she accepted it all, co-operating completely with the splendid medical skill and devoted care lavished upon her by her family and hospital staff. Her will to conquer pain, to recover at least sufficient health to live for her family, her dear husband, and four lovely little children, was so great it seemed as though that noble spirit must conquer even death itself. It was a great grief, therefore, to many when it was learned that death had won over this valiant little mother, in the early hours of that Sunday morning.

But so beautiful a life knows no ending; its memory enriches all who know or hear of it; with fine courage and brave cheerfulness, inspired by true love and great fidelity to its loved ones. In this fond affection, Gladys Willoughby still embraces her darling little ones, Hudson, 11 years, Brian 9½, Carole 6½, and little Frankie, aged 5½; her husband, Mr. Frank Willoughby, Leading Wireless Operator R.C.N.R.V., at present stationed at Halifax; her beloved parents, Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien; her sisters, Dorothy, Mrs. Gus McDonald; Kitty, Mrs. Frank Gallant; Lois, of Sterns Ltd. office staff, and Richard, all of this city.

An unusually large congregation at St. Dunstan's Basilica Tuesday morning, July 17th; the numerous mass cards, spiritual bouquets and lovely floral tributes, eloquently bespoke the high esteem in which dear Mrs. Willoughby was held, and the sincere sympathy of the community, in the great sorrow of the bereaved family. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Dougan; Reverend Father White presided at the graveside. The pall bearers were: Dr. J. E. Corrigan, Sterns Webster, Richard Hennessey, George Michael, Bob Dalziel, and Fred Smith.

In Memoriam

MELVIN JAY

The death occurred in the P. E. Island Hospital June 14th, 1945, of Melvin Jay, York, P. E. I., following a relapse of diphtheria. There are left to mourn, his sorrowing widow (nee Hilda Birt of Fanning Brook) and a daughter Viola, in the employ of the firm of S. A. MacDonald's, Charlottetown, and the following brothers and sisters: L. E. Jay, Mt. Stewart; Crawford, Charlottetown; Frederick, Pisquid West; Alfred, East Royalty; Renie, Fanning Brook; and Ruth (Mrs. Ernest Rodgerson) Fanning Brook; Margaret Jane, widow of the late Robert MacKay, West St. Peters; Florrie (Mrs. Wallace Woolridge), Peakes Road, and Amy, (Mrs. Ward B. Jay), Fanning Brook.

He was the son of the late Geo E. and Mrs. Jay and was born at Fanning Brook Dec. 17th, 1898. For quite a number of years he was caretaker of the Railway Station at York, and did quite a business shipping produce and selling fertilizer to the farmers who spoke in the highest terms of his honesty and being ever ready to oblige in any way he could. He was a great lover of racing horses and took a keen interest in that line of sport which made many friends.

The funeral took place June 16 from St. John's United Church, Mt. Stewart, and in the absence of the pastor was kindly conducted at the church and grave by the Rev. G. Carlyle Webster of Zion Church, Charlottetown, who spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing relatives.

The choir under the direction of Mrs. Harvey Douglass sang "The Sands of Time Are Sinking," "We'll Never Say Goodbye in Heaven," and "Abide With Me."

The pall bearers were his five brothers and a nephew, Mr. Earl Jay.

The very large procession wended its way to the People's cemetery, Mt. Stewart, where all that was mortal of one we loved was tenderly laid to rest.

The floral tributes which were many and beautiful were as follows:

Pillow—Wife and daughter.

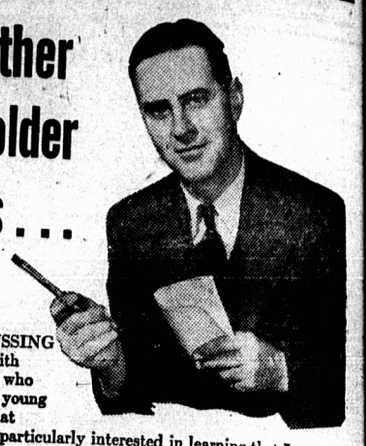
Card of Thanks

Mrs. Melvin Jay and daughter Viola, of York, take this opportunity to thank their many kind friends for floral tributes, letters of sympathy and all acts of kindness during their loved one's illness and death; also to Doctor and nurses and the many thoughtful acts of the management of the MacLean Funeral Home, and all others who helped them to bear their sorrow.

Another Policyholder Reports . . .



"WHEN DISCUSSING life insurance with two of my friends who are fathers of young children, I found that they were particularly interested in learning that I own a policy in The Mutual Life of Canada called 'FAMILY INCOME,' which will provide an income of $100 a month for my wife at my death. This income will continue until I would have been 65 had I lived, and then, she will receive $10,000.

"OF COURSE, I have made sure, through another policy in The Mutual Life, that she will also have a certain amount in cash with which to pay bills and to provide a reserve fund for emergencies.

"I DISCOVERED during our conversation that these fathers were not aware that it was possible to obtain a policy with the benefits provided by the Family Income contract, and both of them have now interviewed my Mutual Life representative, whom I recommended to them, and discovered how the policy will fit into their insurance programs."

Have a Mutual Life representative explain the special features of this Company . . . and let him arrange a Family Income policy for you, or whatever policy may be suitable for your particular circumstances.
