THE interprovincial conference to consider the proposal to establish a school of agriculture, horticulture and technology met in the Provincial Building, Halifax yesterday morning. The Prince Edward Island delegates are Premier Farquharson, Attorney General McKinnon and Superintendent of Education McLeod. The Halifax Chronicle contains photos of Superintendent McLeod and Premier Farquharson. A Chronicle reporter who called upon Dr. Inch at the Halifax Hotel Thursday evening had an interesting interview. Dr. Inch said the chief object of the conference was to decide whether the establishment of such a school for the three provinces was practicable. He was not yet quite prepared to say whether he considered it so or not, but he thought that by united effort it might be possible to establish and support one equal to any in the United States. But he would await developments at the conference.

ATTORNEY General D. A. McKinnon, of P. E. Island, is at the Halifax Hotel, Halifax.

D. J. McLeod, superintendent of education, P. E. Island, is at the Halifax Hotel, Halifax.

Admiral Dewey's return is also more than doubtful. Mr. Denby and Professor Worcester will remain on the commission after it completes the report upon which it is now engaged, and will return to Manila to aid in the establishment of civil government.

It is a pretty well understood thing that the Wanderers, of Halifax, will be here this season to try their strength against some of the senior hockey teams. They were to have been up last year, but for some reason or other the arrangements fell through, the principal cause being an inability to secure the proper dates. It has now been decided that they will extend their trip so as to pay a visit to New York, where they have been invited to play by the Yale Hockey team.—Montreal Star.

MRS. S. N. EARLE'S matinee in the Opera House yesterday afternoon was a success in every part. About two hundred ladies and gentlemen attended. Nine numbers made up the first part. The dancing by Miss Gillis and Master Arthur Warburton was excellent. The instrumental selection by the Misses Murphy were not only a musical novelty but a rare treat. The accompaniments exquisitely played by Miss May Carroll. The vocal selections were all beautifully rendered by the Misses Earle and Mr. C. Earle. The Musical Sketch delighted the audience. The performers are to be congratulated.

NEW HAVEN NOTES.—Our school has had a very successful year under the present staff of teachers as was shown at the examination, the parents having gathered there in a goodly number which shows the high esteem in which the teacher, Mr. George McMillan, is held by both parent and pupil. At the close of the examination the hearts of the young were made glad with the good things distributed by Santa Claus.—We welcome again in our midst Mr. A. Darrach after a very successful summer in Uncle Sam's domain.—It is really too bad the inconvenience that some of our most law-abiding people are put to by some of the drunks. Mr. George Brown, returning from town lately was very roughly handled and having his wagon almost torn to pieces. He is on the offender's track. We hope to hear of the offender being brought to justice.—Mr. Rod. McKinnon, butcher, of Milton, purchased some very fine stock on the Colville Road lately.—Mr. Ham.
