long lasting

DELICIOUS flavors—freshen the mouth and sweeten the breath.

The very act of chewing relieves nervousness and calms and soothes the over-wrought.

Long lasting pleasure—long lasting benefit.

A great deal of benefit for 5c.

ISLANDER ILL.—Miss Mary McQuarrie, of Lynn, Mass., and formerly of Milo, P. E. I. has been seriously ill in the Essex County Sanitarium at Middleton, Mass., for the past four weeks, but is now progressing toward recovery, and it is hoped will soon be convalescent.

FAMILY REUNION.—Mr. Frank Cook, of Belle River, has returned home from a three weeks visit to his brother, Alfred Cooke and family, at Medford, Mass. While there they were joined in the visit by their brother, Charles for several days. The three brothers, now well advanced in years, had not met for a considerable time past, and a most enjoyable reunion of themselves and members of their families resident in Greater Boston took place.

CADET INSTRUCTORS' COURSE—A course to qualify school teachers of Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island as instructors of cadet corps is being planned for the early summer. Starting Monday, 29th June. it will be conducted for two weeks terminating on Saturday 11th July. For the past two years this course has been held during the late summer at Aldershot camp in the Annapolis Valley, but this year is to be transferred to historic McNab Island in Halifax Harbor. The course includes instruction on drill, miniature range shooting, physical training, as employed in the schools of the two provinces, and organized games and sports.

W. M. S. TRINITY UNITED CHURCH.—Sixty members and six visitors were present at the monthly meeting, held on the 6th inst. After the opening exercises, conducted by the president, Mrs. W. A. Thomson, a very inspiring paper on "A Visit to The Holy Land", by the late Rev. Wm. Gunn, was read by Mrs. Andrew MacNair. Miss Ruth Sinclair delighted the audience with a nature story "The Caterpillar." A duet by Mrs. Roy Kendall and Mrs. W. G. Spencer was greatly appreciated. Two watch-tower heralds gave interesting items from Africa and the Home Field, in which it was mentioned that 19 new missionaries are needed for the home work. Mrs. W. E. Burke, Temperance Secretary, carried out a fine temperance programme, in which Mrs. Bustain, Mrs. A. C. Sinclair, Mrs. C. N. Brown and many others took part. The president told of the W. C. T. U. World's Convention, to be held in the Royal York Hotel, Toronto, June 4th-10th. Meeting closed with the Doxology and Benediction by Mrs. W. H. Spencer.
