CHRISTMAS GREETINGS.—At this festive season of the year unions and re-unions are sure to take place and Waternere had the honor of being the place where four hearts were so closely united in the ties of wedlock that henceforth they shall beat as two. In the afternoon Mr. William A. Younker, Winsloe Road was united to Miss Lizzie Belle, daughter of Mr. Kenneth Matheson of Oyster Bed Bridge and on their return Mrs. Matheson had a supper prepared in her usual dainty style, to which about thirty invited guests did ample justice to the different courses as they were presented. A pleasing feature of the marriage and reception was the presence of the bride's brother, Angus, who arrived the day before from Central Butte, Sask., after an absence of about nine years. As the above bridal party was leaving for home Mr. John N. MacPhee, Dunedin and Miss Edna May MacNeill, daughter of the late Charles MacNeill of St. Catharines appeared on the scene anxious to be made one in the holy bonds of matrimony. The parson offered no objections and in a short time another Christmas union had taken place. The scriptural injunction was duly performed in each case: "Greet ye one another with a holy kiss," and followed by the very best wishes of a large circle of friends, among whom the Guardian may be counted and for a Happy New Year.

SCHOOL CONCERT.—A very enjoyable school concert was held in the Graham's Road Hall on Saturday evening Dec. 22nd. Every number on the quite lengthy program reflected great credit both on the talent of the Graham Road school and the principal, Miss Brown, with the many willing workers who did their share in making the entertainment the success it was. Every performer was a pupil of the school and it can be safely said that Graham's Road school possesses rare talent, especially in music. The youngest and smallest soloist was Miss Hilda Murray, who delighted the audience with her singing, having to respond to a most hearty encore. The exceedingly clever acting in the duet (Reuben and Rachel) by Marion Murray and John McGregor was the subject of much comment in the audience. Indeed the whole program was so good that space will not permit the comment that each number deserves. Permit the writer to make one more reference—namely the Ducky song by eight boys that brought such a round of applause from the delighted audience. Mr. Thomas Wigmore, acted as chairman in his usual happy manner. Mrs. Garnet Campbell and Misses Irene Murray and Mary McGregor were the accompanists of the evening. The neat sum of $32.00 was realized which goes to form the nucleus of a school library. The following is the program: Opening chorals "Xmas Welcome." Opening speech—Robina Whitehead. Dialogue—The Backwoods School (seven boys). Recitation—Jean Glover. Solo—Marguerite Campbell. Military drill song—six girls and six boys. Dialogue—Marion Beatrice, Evelyn, Bertha Brown. Duet—(St. Nick) Beulah and Atta Campbell. Recitation—Fred Wigmore. Solo—Hilda Murray. Dialogue—The competing Railroads (4 boys). Star drill and song—Ten girls. Recitation—Atta Campbell. Duet (Reuben and Rachel)—Marion and John McGregor. Dialogue (A most obliging little sister) George McLeod. Recitation—James Williams. Ducky song—Eight boys. Epilogue—Jean Glover and Sterling Williams. Chorus—Merry Xmas. Dialogue—Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus. Unload tree, sale of candy. God Save the King.

SAFE ARRIVAL.—Colnael Davison and Mr. L. E. Prowse, who were sent over to England by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in connection with the soldier's vote have arrived safe. Mr. Prowse is returning officer and Mr. Davison clerk.

CHRISTMAS CHEER.—The children and parents of the Abney Sunday School met at the home of Mr. Edgar Giddings on Monday evening and enjoyed themselves very much. A programme consisting of songs, recitations and a short address by Rev. E. S. Weeks, was put through first. Then Santa Claus appeared on the scene and stripped a well-laden tree to the supreme delight of the little folks. This done a luncheon was served and in due time all returned to their homes feeling it was really worth while to have such gatherings in the interests of the Sunday School.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late James D. Lawson took place yesterday morning from his residence School Street, by sleigh to Covehead Cemetery, where his body was laid to rest. Quite a number assembled to pay their last tribute of respect. Services were held at the house by Rev. J.D. McKenzie, pastor of Zion Church, of which congregation the deceased was a prominent member and a teacher in the Sabbath School. Mr. McKenzie spoke in the highest terms of the late Mr. Lawson, his Christian character, and his worthy example.

SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The semi-annual examination of Newton Cross school, took place on the afternoon of December 20th, and was attended by quite a number of the rate-payers and trustees. The schoolroom was nicely decorated with spruce intertwined with the red, white and blue, and presented a very pleasing appearance. The pupils were examined in the various subjects by their teacher Miss Coyle, assisted by Miss Cavanagh, teacher at Orwell Cove, and Mr. Charles McKenna, and answered the questions promptly and accurately. After the examination, the following program was well carried out by the pupils: Mr. McDonald of the Anherst Piano Co., acting as chairman. Opening chorus "Canada," school. Recitation—Lizzie Naddy; recitation—Joseph McKenna, recitation—Katherine Peckingham, recitation—Phalen McKenna, recitation—William McKenna, recitation—George McPherson, recitation—Anna McPherson. Solo and chorus "My Island Home." Robert Peckingham, George McPherson, Willie McKenna, George Gill, Harry Peckingham. Recitation—Lizzie Gill, recitation—Bernard Morrissey, recitation—William Dunn, recitation—George Gill. Dialogue—Robert Peckingham, Richard Gill, Katherine Peckingham and Anna Morrissey. Recitation—John Gill, recitation—Joseph Dunn, recitation—George McKenna, recitation—Susanna Gill. Chorus "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall"—school. Recitation—Harry Peckingham, James Gill, and Joseph Morrissey. "God Save the King." Remarks were made by Messrs. McDonald, James McKenna and Charles McKenna, all of whom expressed themselves as well pleased with the progress made by the pupils. Following is the standing of the month of December, Grade VII, 1 Lizzie Naddy and Joseph McKenna, (equal) Grade VI, 1 Phalen McKenna, 2 William McKenna, 3 Richard Gill and Lizzie Gill, (equal), 4 George McPherson, 5 Robert Peckingham, Grade V, 1 Joseph Dunn, 2 Bernard Morrissey, 3 Harry Peckingham, 4 Willie Dunn. Grade IV, Francis McKenna and Anna Morrissey, (equal) 2 Phalen McKenna, 3 Joseph Morrissey, 4 Lizzie Gill. Grade III, 1 Joseph Morrissey, 2 Fred Peckingham, 3 James Gill, 4 George Peckingham. Perfect attendance, William McKenna, Katherine Peckingham, George Peckingham, Joseph McKenna, Lizzie Gill and Richard Gill.

The Old Year The New Year

Nineteen Hundred and Seventeen Nineteen Hundred and Eighteen

During the past twelve months we endeavored to provide the people with Modern Drugstore service, such service embodies a great many things. It requires an ample stock including everything new for which there is any demand. It requires care in buying so that everything supplied to customers is of the quality it should be. It requires care in the handling, and compounding of medicines. It also requires constant effort to save customers, whenever possible, something on the cost of their drugs, and other drug-store goods.

We have tried to please our customers and to prompt their interests, and it is very gratifying to find that such efforts have brought adequate response. "Ring Out the Old" "Ring In the New"

JOHNSON & JOHNSON The Quality Drugstore, Cor. Kent & Prince Sts.

The methods which we employed during the past year will be continued in Nineteen hundred and eighteen. We have been favored with a constantly increasing business, and shall endeavor to hold and further enlarge this business by making it worth while for careful drug buyers to trade with us. We shall keep pace with every advance in the science of pharmacy, shall handle the best goods only, and endeavor by every means in our power to promote the welfare of our customers. Our Prescription Department will receive the same professional attention that it has always had.
