Annual Meeting Woman's Auxiliary St. Paul's Church

On Thursday afternoon, Dec. 10th, the annual meeting of St. Paul's Parish Hall, with Miss H. D. McCollum, the President, in the chair. Following the devotional exercises, roll call and reading of minutes and reports of the different departments were presented by the various officers. These were enthusiastically received by the large number present. Mrs. J. H. Pierce, the Recording Secretary, reported that sixteen meetings had been held during the year with an average attendance of twenty one members. Instead of the usual spring closing supper a very enjoyable picnic was held at Mrs. W. E. Bentley's summer cottage at Keppoch last June. Two interesting papers on the study book "Japan" were given at monthly meetings by Mrs. A. McEwen and Mrs. Pierce. During the year the W. A. met with a great loss in the passing of two old and valued members, Mrs. D. Davies and Mrs. R. N. Cox. Mrs. Bearlsto, the corresponding Secretary, in her usual cheery manner, spoke of the year's correspondence and of the satisfactory amount collected for the Cent-a-Week Fund, which is devoted to the education of Missionary children. Mrs. A. B. Warburton, the Thank offering Secretary, was pleased to report an increase over last year's contributions. This fund has been designated for a training of Missionaries for several years, having succeeded Mr. Hensley Pension Fund. Mrs. A. Nelson, "Living Message" Secretary reported a goodly number of subscribers to that excellent Missionary Magazine, and spoke of the pleasant visits made in its monthly distribution. Mrs. J. A. Bentley, Prayer-Partner Secretary, gave a brief sketch of Miss DeBlais' work at her Mission School in Kangra, India. Mrs. C. Charles Fremont of Quebec, Col. H. S. Murray of Chatham, N. B., besides seven Island directors the president, Hon. G. Shelton Sharp presided.

A cast that is a veritable parade of exceptionally talented players added to one of the best stories of the year, makes "Left Over Ladies" now on the bill at the Capitol theatre an entertainment picture that ranks with the outstanding screen efforts of the times.

Claudia Dell heads the roster of players with Marjorie Rambeau in a character role running her a close second for screen honors. Walter Byron and Alan Mowbray have the chief masculine roles, but Roscoe Karns dominates every scene in which he appears.

Add Rita LaRoy and Dorothy Reiter to the feminine contingent, with Franklin Farnum, Selmer Jackson and Bert Roach to the list and you can see where every role is covered by an able and talented player.

"Left Over Ladies" is a story inspired by an article by Ursula Parrott and as such retains a distinct Ursula Parrott flavor. It treats of the new freedom of women and shows that "freedom" isn't exactly an unmitigated blessing. In all, "Left Over Ladies" is an exceptional picture and one that should not be missed.

BUSY HELPING POOR—An odd method of contributing to charity has been chosen by the Maritime Provinces Club of Montreal in connection with an informal club dance to be held on the evening of December 18 in Victoria Hall. Members are invited each to bring a pound of some larder item, such as butter, sugar, cocoa, et cetera. The foodstuffs thus collected will be rushed to local welfare agencies for distribution to former "Maritimers" who may be in need here. The affair has been styled a "pound party." A variety of functions, including dances, smokers, bridge parties and the annual St. Lawrence River excursion late next spring, were on the program of the Club's activities for 1931. Two of the most important are the annual banquet to be held in January and the annual ball to be held in February.

FAVORABLE INJURY—Mr. Clayton Green, son of Mr. George Green of Bedouque, met with a painful accident on Saturday. The young man was moving a fox pen on a sleigh to another part of the farm, and having hitched up the horse went back to the barn for the reins. While he was attempting to adjust them to the bridle the horse started and the fox pen toppled over knocking Mr. Green down. The bones in his wrist were crushed from the weight of the pen. He was taken to the Prince Edward County Hospital, where his injuries were attended to. He was able to return to his home on Monday afternoon. S.
