THE entertainment given by the pupils of Anglo Rustico School District on Saturday evening, Dec. 23rd, in their schoolhouse at Commercial Cross was attended with marked success. A large number of the ratepayers of the district as well as people from other districts were present. The programme was a very interesting one and was carried out in a manner which reflects much credit on the pupils and their able and painstaking teacher Mr. R. Stevenson. The musical part especially was a rare treat for the audience. The schoolhouse was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After the execution of the programme a few complimentary remarks were made by several of the members present, after which the entertainment closed with singing the National Anthem.

QUITE a destructive wave has struck the dogs of Georgetown, over a dozen having gone to a premature grave from poison. The complaint of the surplus of dogs will no longer be heard. It is regrettable, however, that the just and unjust alike have fallen and many of the citizens of Georgetown feel indignant that valuable animals should be lost in such a manner.

CANOE COVE.—Another year is near its close and a united effort is made by our people to welcome in the new one in a good old Highland style. In this respect our community is specially loyal to Auld Scotia. Robbie Burns being made the justifier when too much "spirits ferment" figures in the celebration.—Mr. Finlay MacRae is visiting friends in Orwell and other eastern sections.—Mr. George McPhee, one of our talented young school teachers has returned home from Long Creek, where he has spent the most of the summer in the employ of Mr. J. C. McKenzie.—Miss Florrie Annie Campbell has also returned from Charlottetown, where she has spent some time with her friends.—Mr. Roderick McRae is about to erect additional buildings to his present ones.—Our esteemed friend Mr. Roderick McKenzie, is now conducting a night school in DeSable. Mr. William Kishrens, who, with his family, left us some time ago, informs us of the sale in the near future of his farm at Canoe Cove. He and his family now reside in Charlottetown, and we deeply regret that the sale of their former residence, means that they will return no more to our community. They leave us with the name of being good, and sociable neighbors, kind to all and the truest of friends.
