 Yearning for voices that for ever
 Yearning for voices that for ever
 have flown;
 Though fortune and friendship may have both freely bleas'd
 The human heart yearneth and knoweth no rest.

Yearning for something which at hath not—
 A soaring ambition, a happier lot—
 Longing and sighing ever in vain, Hoping for something it cannot attain.

Yearning for pleasure, fleeting and fair;
 For enrapturing scenes, and for sympathy true;
 For music adroit with love's word-

 And soul-lifting rapture that to it belongs.

Yearning for knowledge, for wisdom
 and light;
 To do what is good in the great
 Cause of Right;
 For mercy and grace, and for errors
 forgiven,
 O, unattained soul but longing for Heaven!

PETITWANA SPECIALISTS.—Members of Nos. 3 and 4, Battalion, who are taking up gunnery and range-taking for Petawawa, will meet tonight at the drill hall at 7 o'clock. A large attendance is requested as the time is very limited to get this work through. Sergt. Instructor Cox, of Quebec, will instruct.

AT THE MILITIA CAMP

Fine weather, warm and clear, is favoring the annual camp of the P. I. Militia infantry and cavalry regiments and ambulance corps, and consequently permitting the training syllabus to be carried out as planned. Also it has made for the good of the health of the camp which at present is unusually satisfactory. With the exception of a few minor accidents, perhaps the most serious of which was that sustained by young Pte. Bruce Carruthers, one of the officers' batmen, necessitating treatment at hospital, the canvas colonies at Kensington and Brighton are getting along with their duties without any serious drawbacks from a health standpoint.

MUSIC STORES CLOSE.—Miller Bros. and A. E. Toombs' music stores will be closed each Monday afternoon at one o'clock during July and August.

IN PORT.—Yesterday morning the tug boats Linger and Helma, bound from St. John to Montreal, with two steel screws in tow put into this port. They sailed again in the afternoon, leaving one of the screws here.

CROSSED IN MOTOR BOAT.—Messrs. John Fringle, J. B. Corbin, Stanley McEneaney and Dell Sullivan, Pictou, have arrived home safely after an adventurous trip to Charlottetown by motor boat.

BISHOP RETURNS.—His Lordship Bishop Morrison, formerly of Charlottetown, arrived home from Europe on Tuesday, at noon. He is in excellent health, and had a pleasant trip abroad.

RESERVE Wednesday 8th.—St. James Sunday School picnic at Westville. This will be one of the season's most enjoyable outings. Visitors' table and refreshment booth provided.

THE ST. JAMES Sunday School Picnic will be held on Wednesday, 8th, at Westville. The Str. Harland will leave at 9.50 a. m. and 3 p. m. for the grounds. A visitors' table will be provided, also a refreshment booth.

BAND CONCERT.—There was a very large concourse of persons at the Ordnance Depot, Brighton, yesterday afternoon, to listen to the concert given in the lines of the Eighty-Second Infantry Regiment, camped there, by the Regimental Band, which, recently reconstituted, has been performing very effectively and efficiently. With Prof. P. T. Watkins, last able musician, wielding the baton, the Band rendered an excellent programme of sacred music which was much enjoyed by the appreciative audience.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—Gipsy Simon Smith is visiting relatives in Toronto this week. Mrs. Smith has just discovered that her cousin, a well-known contractor and real estate man of Toronto, went down on the Empress of Ireland. Mr. Smith's youngest brother, late of the 17th Lancers, has purchased a farm near Moncton, and intends to live the peaceful farmer's life, and wield the axe instead of the lance. The evangelist's brother had a close call during the Boer War, when his horse, shot dead, fell, pinning him to the ground.

P. E. ISLAND PRIEST CELEBRATES MASS

Last Sunday, June 28th, was one of rejoicing for the parishioners of Rollo Bay in having the pleasure of assisting at the first High Mass offered up by the Rev. Alphonsus Daigle, recently ordained to the priesthood. The Rev. Father Daigle, son of Simon and Mary Jane Daigle, was born in this parish, received his early education here, later entered St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown, where he was qualified for a teacher. He taught several years in the public schools in this vicinity and everywhere he won the esteem and respect of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

ENJOYABLY ENTERTAINED

On Saturday, June 27th., the Greenmount ball club were invited by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Ailey to hold a picnic at the Abegweit Silver Black Fox company's ranch at Alma. The prettily arranged parlors and den were opened all day and were enjoyed by all. Field games were played and all enjoyed the ball game for hours, the ladies doing extra work at the bar as well as making the home runs. At 4.30 the hostess served delicious hot chocolate together with the basket lunches, and three large freezers of ice cream and a case of ginger tonic furnished by members of the club, and a most enjoyable hour was spent. "ABEGWEIT"

The Indian Name for P. E. Island. (An Acrostic.)

A pretty name, now seldom spoke
 By English tongue unaided to Micmac speech.
 Empt- the pipe of Peace whose friendly smoke Gave to their Councils ways that white men teach.
 While in their native woods the Micmacs hold,
 Early to cross the value of the Game
 In giving furs, more precious far than gold;
 To tread the Silver Pipe, the Island's fame!—G. E. F.

PITY TO WASTE IT.
 ("Manchester Guardian.")

A "Lancashire Doctor" writes: The Miscellany story of the Atlantic City child who died after taking the medicines of two doctors who had been treating the case unknown to each other recalls an experience of my own. During my "surgery" attendance upon a "club" patient I was informed that he was going to another as well as coming to me. Calling at the house, I found the patient out, and asked the wife when Jack was last at Dr. Blank's.
