

"Be a snob" says College Prof. "Manicure your nails"

Promotion depends on appearance as well as brains

MAYBE this sounds foolish at first glance, but it is not. How many men do you know who need just a little practical grooming to give them a better place in the world? Two things will improve your appearance immensely. Well kept hands and a good smooth shave!

Always well groomed

Take the shave, for example. Tomorrow morning spread a light film of "Vaseline" Jelly on your face before you work in the lather. Then shave and see the difference. After you try this once you'll be a "Vaseline" Jelly fan for life.

As for the hands—when you come in from doing any form of manual work, apply "Vaseline" Jelly and rub it in briskly before you wash. It softens the cracks, loosens the dirt, soothes the irritation.

These are sensible things to do. Easy too. And "Vaseline" Jelly costs only a few cents at the nearest store. Get some today. And remember when you buy that the trade mark Vaseline on the package is your assurance that you are getting the genuine product of the Chesbrough

Mfg. Co., Cons'd, 5520 Chabot Ave., Montreal, Canada.

INSTITUTE MEETING—The East Royalty Women's Institute met for the September meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward Shaw. Thirteen members and two visitors present. The President occupied the chair. The meeting opened by the members repeating the Creed in unison, followed by a sing-song. Roll call was responded to by relating exhibition experiences. School and sick committees reported. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Fred Andrews, roll call to be answered by Halloween jokes. Meeting closed by singing National Anthem, after which the hostess served a delicious lunch.

WEST ROYALTY INSTITUTE—On Wednesday evening, October 22, the West Royalty Women's Institute held a shower at the home of Mrs. Stelman Frizzle for one of its members, Mrs. Anthony Gallant, who a few days later moved to her new home in Egmont Bay. Fifteen members were present. On answering the roll call, each presented Mrs. Gallant with a gift, all of which were useful as well as pretty. Although taken by surprise, Mrs. Gallant thanked each one for their kindness and extended the invitation for all to visit her in her new home. All joined in singing "For She's a Jelly Good Fellow" after which luncheon was served by the hostess. Next meeting of the Institute to be held at Mrs. Fred Gates, Nov. 28th. Election of new officers for the coming year. All members requested to be present.

DEPRESSION

"I'm a different woman"

"Two years ago I began to get depressed, and everything was too much trouble for me. I was a misery to myself and everyone around me. I was advised to take Glauber Salts by my friends who said it was the same as Kruschen but it did me no good, so at last my husband got me a bottle of Kruschen and no one would realize the different woman I am. I have been taking Kruschen now constantly for two years. My daughter also would not be without it. I have got my neighbour to take Kruschen as well and she has found its worth as she feels a different woman."

The commonest cause of depression is "partial" constipation—an insidious complaint because the sufferer is seldom aware of it. It means the gradual accumulation of body poisons which dull the mind, damp the spirits, sap the nervous strength and lower the whole vitality. Kruschen Salts make constipation impossible. Therefore, if you keep to Kruschen you need never know the meaning of melancholy; never feel "nervy" or depressed.

WOOD—MCEWEN WEDDINGS—In Tremont Temple Church, Boston, on Sunday evening, October twelfth, a pretty wedding was solemnized when Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, D.D., L.L.D., united in marriage, Hazel E. Wood, eldest daughter of Calvin and Mrs. Wood, of Southport, Prince Edward Island and Raymond L. McEwen, son of B. L. and Mrs. McEwen, St. Peters, Prince Edward Island. The young couple were married at the close of the evening service while the congregation remained seated, the church being filled to capacity, including a large number of relatives and personal friends. The bride wore a gown of white Spanish lace, while her veil fell from a cap of white tulle edged with pearls and rhinestones and fastened with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses, showered with lily of the valley. The groom was dressed in evening dress. Prof. Rice, the church organist, rendered most appropriately Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" and Mrs. Lampton the soloist, sang "Cherubim." As they marched away from the altar to the rear of the church, Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, including cut glass, silver, linens, cheques from the bride's and the groom's parents, and a beautiful Seth Thomas Parlor Clock with a quotation in bronze "As time passes, friendship grows" from the Paine Furniture Co., of which the bride is a valued member. The groom's gift to the bride was a silver muskrat coat and wrist watch of white gold. The groom has been an employee of the Studebaker Sales Co., of Boston, for over four years and now remains a successful holder of same. Among the Island friends at the wedding include Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gwynn and family, Miss Jessie Andrews, Mr. Willard Wood, The Misses Shipley, of Nova Scotia, Mr. and Mrs. McEwen will reside in Boston.

BRIDAL SHOWER—Showers being the order of the day, a very interesting one took place on Tuesday evening, Oct. 28th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stockman, Winsloe Station, when about sixty-five friends of Miss Mabel Chown gathered there to shower her with good wishes prior to her marriage to Mr. Emmons Newson. After seating the bride-to-be in the centre of the room, a large basket laden with gifts was taken in by Doris and Keith Pickard, dressed as bride and groom. Miss Doris Stockman untied the parcels and Miss Florence Burke read the accompanying verses, which caused much laughter. On arising to thank her donors Mabel was showered with confetti from an overhanging bell. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, after which the evening was spent in music and dancing. In the wee, small hours of the morning, the friends dispersed, after bouncing Emmons and wishing both he and Mabel many years of happiness. On Wednesday evening, Oct. 29th, the Women's Institute of West Royalty met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Chowan, Highfield, to do honor to Mr. Emmons Newson, whose marriage to Mr. Emmons Chowan, took place Wednesday, Nov. 5th. An address was read by Mrs. Stelman Frizzle and a lovely silver cake plate presented the bride-to-be by Mrs. Russel Bell, on behalf of the Institute. Luncheon was served by the ladies, then all joined in singing "For She's a Jelly Good Fellow," after which all departed, wishing Mabel much happiness in her new home.—(Patriot please copy.)

Little Hope

(Special to the Guardian) WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Hope of continuing the one percent, tax reduction is remote, it was learned today from a high Government official. Dr. Wood's Her Two Children Coughed Day And Night. Mrs. Fred T. Kilnappell, R.R. No. 1, St. Catharines, Ont., writes: "My two children were coughing day and night, from a very severe, whooping cough. I tried every kind of medicine I could think of, but they got no relief. A friend told me I should try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got two bottles of it, and before they were used the children were rid of their coughs. It is a very good medicine, and I would not be without a bottle in the house." Price 35c. a bottle; large family size 65c. at all druggists or dealers; put up only by The T. M. Barr Co., Ltd., Toronto, Ont.
