IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

EVERYBODY should read JOHN-SON & JOHNSON'S special add on page 6 of Xmas Edition. 7068.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—The Presbyterian services on Dec. 20th will be at 11 a. m., Hampton 3 and Bonshaw at 7 p. m.

RUSTICO.—There will be service at St. Mark's Rustico, on Sunday, Dec. 20th at 2.30 p. m. Rev. S. Trivet, Rector.

FLAG DAY.—Next Tuesday, Dec. 29, will be "Flag Day" for the little orphans at St. Vincent's Orphanage. Everyone should buy a flag to help this worthy institution. M11.

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—The Rev. D. MacLean will preach at Churchhill on Sabbath, the 20th inst., at 10.30 a. m. and in the People's Church, at 7 p. m.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.—Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bisset announce the engagement of their daughter, Amy Rosina, to Mr. Harry Eaton England, B. A. of Montreal, the marriage to take place in Windsor, N. S., on Dec. 29th.

HORSES PURCHASED.—On Thursday last Mr. Wesley Newsome, Charlottetown, purchased at Victoria a fine pair of heavy Clyde horses from Mr. Moses Woodside, of Tryon. They weighed 1355 lbs. and 1320 lbs. respectively, and it is understood that the price paid was a handsome one.—V.

COLLEGE CLOSING.—The Union Commercial College will close for the holidays on Monday evening at 8 o'clock when the Diplomas, Certificates, Medals and Prizes won will be presented. A handsome Gold Medal will be awarded for improvement in Penmanship. 7079.

FOR THE BOYS.—All persons contributing to the Xmas dinner for the boys on home defence at Canso, Sydney Mines and Halifax, kindly send their donations to the Drill Shed on Monday from 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 4 p. m. or phone 261, before ten o'clock Monday morning when the parcels will be called for.

SCHOONER HITS BRIDGE.—The schooner Oregon, from Charlottetown, was driven against the Grand Narrows Bridge Wednesday, says a Sydney exchange. The schooner was driven against the bridge and lost all her spars and superstructure. She was picked up by the Bluehill and docked at Iona wharf. No damage to the bridge is reported.

CHESS CLUB.—The Charlottetown Chess Club will meet Monday evening in Dalton Rooms at 7.30. All members are requested to bring chess boards with them. Visitors will be made welcome. Several new members names have already been added to the list of players, and before the tournaments begin in February all lovers of chess are invited to get in all the practice possible.

PERSONAL MENTION.—Mr. Nell Penpraise, Victoria, returned Wednesday from a business trip to Charlottetown.—Mr. E. L. Mabey, Victoria, was in Charlottetown on business Wednesday.—Among the visitors to Victoria on Thursday were: Mr. Fred Dunstond, South Melville; Mr. Wesley Calbeck, Craupud; Messrs Louis Taylor, Allan Ferguson and Robert Arbing, Hampton; Messrs Louis Howatt, Camdon Holland, John H. Lea and Hartford Woodside, Tryon; Mr. M. E. Hall, Bradaaban.—V.

A CHOICE HERD.—At the late Amherst dairy test, in which ninety-nine cows competed, Messrs Lea & Clark, of Victoria, entered three animals, an aged cow, a three-year-old and a two-year-old heifer, and won two 2nd and one 3rd place, also a special prize (a cream separator) for the three highest scoring dairy cows owned by one exhibitor. The aged cow gave 28.4 lbs milk and 9.41 lbs. butter in the 72-hour test, an average of nearly 79 lbs. milk per day. This cow was afterwards placed 1st in the judging class and is a cow of almost ideal type and conformation. The three-year-old heifer had only been dry a short time, having just finished a large yearly R.O.P. record, and was only freshened four days when her owners left for the test and not in condition to do her best, but her record was good, 17.6 milk and 8.50 lbs. butter, averaging nearly 3.9 fat. The record of the two-year-old was one of the largest, the writer thinks the 2nd largest, ever made at Amherst for that age, 17.7 milk and 7.01 butter, nearly 66 lbs milk per day. Considering the hardship of such a journey, walking 8 miles to the station and the long boat and car trip en route, all those records are very high for the age, and prove these cows splendid producers. All three have husky bull calves now by their side that should develop into choice animals good enough to head any herd.

THE NORTHUMBERLAND.—The steamer Northumberland docked in Charlottetown at 6.45 last evening.

BIG PORK MARKET.—Yesterday Davies and Fraser bought upwards of 550 carcases of pork at 9 cents per pound. The firm report it one of the largest pork markets they have yet handled and that the pork was of first class quality and compared very favorably with other years.

NARROW ESCAPE OF P. E. I. MAN.—At Amherst on Saturday last an accident which would certainly have resulted in the death of a gentleman from P. E. Island, was narrowly averted by the presence of mind of a bystander, says a New Glasgow exchange. The man in question endeavored to board the C. P. R. express which was pulling out at a high rate of speed. He seized the railings of the car entrance but was unable to pull himself to safety. A bystander seeing his plight braced himself and grasped the man breaking his hold and bore him to safety.

LARGE MARKET.—The ideal country roads tempted hundreds of people to drive to the city yesterday to enjoy a day's shopping, many of them coming very long distances in record time. The market was one of the largest in years there being an abundance of butter, eggs, poultry and produce of all kinds. Turkeys were quickly bought up from 15 to 17 cents per pound, ducks at 12 cents, geese at 12 cents and chickens from 10 to 12 cts. per pound. As Christmas and New Year's days are near, the usual market days will be held on the Thursday previous.

AN UNUSUAL SIGHT.—Yesterday morning from about 8 o'clock roads seemed to lead to Grafton Street the lower end of which was simply lined with truck wagons, etc., waiting a turn to get to Davis & Fraser's store, where pork was being bought in very large quantities. Curiosity getting the better of one customer, he took the trouble to count the wagons lined up and at 10.50 a. m. there were 67 wagons waiting in line, no team having less than five carcases of pork and many having as high as 20. Other teams were also in the distance and during the entire day, the firm were busy handling pork, the roads being in splendid condition for handling.

ISLANDERS BUSY.—The Calgary Morning Herald of December 11th, has an interesting report of the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society. The names of Prince Edward Islanders figure prominently. Mr. J. T. McDonald, a native of Montague, was chairman, and Rev. A. D. McDonald, a native of New Glasgow, came in for a large number of prizes for his work as Secretary. The report presented by the latter, who was re-elected, stated that during the year 462 cases were dealt with in the juvenile court as compared with 475 last year. Capt. Reginald Stewart, another Islander, formerly of Charlottetown, was solicitor for the Society. In his report, he says "his heart is going to the front. A resolution embodying thanks for past services, was unanimously passed."

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding took place in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Lot 11, on Tuesday, Dec. 15, when Miss Adele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Adams, of Wood Brook, Lot 11, became the happy bride of Mr. Harry McKinnon, of Colman. The bride was beautifully gowned in blue silk with white lace and was attended by her sister, Miss Lulu Adams, who wore a blue cloth suit. The groom was ably assisted by his brother, Mr. Hugh McKinnon. The nuptial knot was tied by the bride's pastor, Rev. J. J. Banford, of Port Hill. Immediately after signing the register the bridal party left the Vestry to the strains of Whyman's wedding march, beautifully played by Miss Adele, daughter of Palmer, of Freehold, and proceeded to the home of the bride's father where supper was served. The same evening the happy married couple drove to the groom's home in Colman, where a reception was tendered them. The bride will be much missed in Wood Brook and vicinity, where she was a very popular young woman. Many good wishes follow Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon to their new home for a happy journey through life.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late Mr. Erwen Cameron, whose death occurred on Dec. 17th, took place yesterday afternoon from Mrs. McPhail's residence in Brighton and was largely attended. The funeral services at the house and grave in the People's cemetery were conducted by Rev. Dr. Fullerton. The late Mr. Cameron, who was 43 years of age, was the son of the late Captain Roderick Cameron, for long years a prominent citizen and a veteran master mariner, being at the time of his demise a commander of one of the Steam Navigation Company's boats. He had carried on a successful hardware business in Charlottetown, the premises now occupied by the Royal Bank of Canada, and was widely known throughout this province, being a member of the Masonic and Odd-fellows Lodges. The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. L. Stewart, H. V. Buntain, F. Chandler, B. Rogers, J. G. Jamieson and Mayor Storms. To his bereaved wife and two young children, and other members of his family is extended respectful sympathy.

PRINCE EDWARD.—Francis Ford and Grace Cunard, who won the hearts of the Prince Edward patrons by their clever acting in Lucille Love serial, appeared again last night in a three-part detective drama. Mr. Ford and Miss Cunard have shown that they are unsurpassed in their ability to produce and act plays of vivid dramatic qualities, dealing with crimes and detectives. That they are returning to the city in a series of plays of this kind will be a keen source of pleasure. The story deals with a clever gang of crooks, headed by My Lady Baffles, who have been attending fashionable weddings in order to make away with

SCROFULA AND ALL HUMORS GIVE WAY

There are many things learned from experience and observation that the older generation should impress upon the younger. Among them is the fact that scrofula and other humors are most successfully treated with Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine is a peculiar combination of remarkably effective blood-purifying and health-giving roots, barks and herbs, and has been tested for forty years. Get it today.

the costly presents, how they are rounded up by Detective Kelly, all but the leader, who cleverly escapes, is shown in two reels. The story holds one spell-bound, waiting and wondering what will happen next. Another three-part feature with Kathryn Williams in the title role was also shown. This is a big wild animal production, showing man's domination over the wild beasts of the jungle. An uproarious comedy, "Mike in Search of his long lost Brother", closed the pictorial part of the programme. Mr. Dewitt Cairns, who closes his engagement tonight, sang in splendid voice "Well, Never Let the Old Flag Fall." The same programme will be repeated this afternoon at three and tonight at seven and nine o'clock.
