IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JOHN T. MULLIN

On the morning of Jan. 5th the angel of death visited the home of Harold Mullin, Kensington and claimed the gentle spirit of his sister, Melvina, widow of the late John T. Mullin.

The late Mrs. Mullin had been an invalid for several years and her patience and resignation in her affliction was most edifying. A few months prior to her death she had the misfortune to fall and break her hip and she never fully recovered from this shock.

She was tenderly cared for during her long and trying illness by her brother and sister-in-law, and consoled by the visits of her pastor, Rev. R. F. McDonald, who administered the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church. The deceased was fifty-seven years old and had lived practically all her life in the vicinity of Kensington. Of a kind and loving disposition she made many friends who deeply mourn her passing at a comparatively early age.

To cherish her memory and mourn her loss she leaves four brothers, namely, Fred of Souris and George, Harold and James of Kensington. Two nieces and a nephew, and uncles and aunts who were much attached to her also mourn her death.

Her funeral took place on the morning of Jan. 7th, to the Church of the Holy Family, Kensington where Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. R. F. McDonald. Her remains were interred in Indian River Cemetery. The large number attending the funeral bore mute testimony to the esteem in which she was held. The pallbearers were, John and Peter McDonald, Allie McNeil, Harold Palmer, James Dunphy and Linus Gorman. R.I.P.

The people of Hampshire and surrounding communities were deeply saddened on learning of the sudden death of Pope Tremere at his home on December 8th. Although in poor health for some time the end came quite suddenly and was a severe shock to his family and friends.

The late Mr. Tremere was well known as a skillful, industrious, thrifty citizen and most highly respected by those who knew him during the whole of his long life. He was born in Hampshire the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Tremere and was preceded in death by his brother Ersman and one sister Sarah.

There are left to mourn the loss and to cherish the memory of a beloved husband and loving father, his wife (nee Anna Molyneux of Inkeraman) and the following sons and daughters: Albert at home, Preston, Lawson and Raymond of Hampshire, Clayton of Hunter River, (Mildred) Mrs. Ralph Thompson of Hartsville, (Florence) Mrs. Cyrus Martin of Glen Valley; also the following brothers and sister who will long mourn a good brother, Oliver of Hampshire, Daniel of South Dakota, John of Framingham, Emeline of Medford.

The funeral took place on Saturday, Dec. 11th, at his late residence, and was largely attended, people from far and near coming to pay their last respects.

The Rev. Howard Christie, assisted by Rev. Donald Nicholson of Brookfield conducted the service at the house and grave. The hymns sung were "Jesus Lover of My Soul", "The Lord Is My Shepherd" and "Safe In The Arms of Jesus".

There all that was most of a loved one was laid to rest in Hampshire cemetery. The pallbearers were all neighbours of the deceased, Hamilton Watts, John Watts, Hampson Bowman, John Clark, George Kitson, Cecil Stewart.

ZION W. M. S. MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of Zion W. M. S. Auxiliary was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Patterson with the president, Mrs. G. C. Webster, presiding. The devotional period opened with the singing of a hymn. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. A communication was read from Mr. D. DeBlois, president of the Gideons in regard to membership in that society. Thirty-nine visits were made to homes and hospital. The president announced The World's Day of Prayer would be held on March 4th. Mrs. F. A. A. Mutch was chosen to represent the society at that meeting. After the routine business had been dealt with, Mrs. Patterson took charge of the study period. The theme "To whom shall we go?" was most interesting as it dealt with the three religions in China and their superstitions and worship. This period was brought to a close with prayer by Mrs. Darrach. The Lord's Prayer in unison brought the meeting to a close. Lunch was then served by the hostess and a communique in charge. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. MacMillan, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Darrach in charge of refreshments.

Rotarian Honored

By His Majesty

Believed to be the first instance in which an honour has been conferred by the King to anybody for his services as a Rotarian, the New Year's Honours List contains the following:—"To be a Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (Civil Division) Charles Edward Hunt, K.C. in recognition of his many years service in social and charitable works in the country as a leading Rotarian."

Mr. Hunt became a Rotarian twenty-seven years ago with the formation of the Rotary Club of St. John's, Newfoundland. He is a Past President of his club, Past District Governor, and was a Director of Rotary International.

Well known to Charlottetown Rotarians, Mr. Hunt's recognition by His Majesty is felt to be an honour to all Rotarians and especially to the 122nd District of which the St. John's and Charlottetown clubs are members.

At their meeting last Monday the Charlottetown Rotarians unanimously agreed that a telegram of congratulations be forwarded by the club.

Recalls Founding

Of Prince Albert

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask., Feb. 4 — (CP) — Mrs. Christina Mills, 86, has seen Prince Albert grow from a cluster of small log shacks huddled on the bank of the North Saskatchewan river to a bustling city of 16,000, now "capital" of a prosperous agricultural area and west northern hinterland.

Mrs. Mills came here in August, 1866 with the founding party led by Rev. James Nisbet, Presbyterian missionary. She is the only surviving member of the group.

When she arrived with her missionary parents, the Rev. and Mrs. John McKay, Mrs. Mills was only a child of three. But among her earliest recollections are the log dwelling houses forming the mission station. Built within several hundred feet of the actual spot where the raft on which the party travelled down river from Carleton touched shore, this centre served fledgling Prince Albert as church, school and hospital.

Mrs. Mills was born in Old Kildonan, near the present city of Winnipeg Jan. 19, 1863. Since her arrival here, she has lived all her life in Prince Albert and district.

On Indian Reserve

Much of her early life was spent on the Mistawasis Indian reserve, where her father was a missionary, and where she later taught school.

In those days Mrs. Mills was able to speak Cree, this knowledge being necessary in order to teach the Indians to speak English.

"I've forgotten all the Cree now," she says, but her friends "but I believe it would come back if I should hear it spoken again."

She was one of the teachers forced to leave their schools and come in to Prince Albert for safety at the time of the Riel Rebellion in 1885.

In 1880 she was married to George F. Mills, a city employee. They were responsible for planting the first evergreen trees in the section in which they lived.

Mrs. Mills died more than 20 years ago. They had no family, but Dr. Fred McLean, now of Halifax, was a foster son.

Bachelors' Ideas

Of Perfect Wives

Set Off Protests

NEW YORK, Feb. 6 — (CP) — Advice for bachelors: don't sound off on what you think the ideal wife should be. A group of New York bachelors tried it, and the ladies are still strolling.

The consensus of a doctor, lawyer, engineer, art student and two U.S. navy ensigns was that the girl should:

1. Be attractive
2. Be neat
3. Have a sense of humor and responsibility
4. Have the courage to be herself
5. Have a low, pleasant voice
6. Have no family
7. Possess cooking ability
8. Be discreet
9. Stop working after marriage; and, above all,
10. Love her husband.

Stopping work brought most kinks from the girls.

"We'd be glad to, they chorused, "if our men made more money." One young model said the bachelors' theories about non-working wives are "outdated."

"Girls who get to business are better dressed, better groomed and more in touch with things," she asserted.

How About Men?

Another angry young woman wrote a New York newspaper: "Attractive, neat, humorous and well-spoken are traits that may be attributed to either sex. Do these young men meet the qualifications of their so-called dream girls?"

WINNIPEG, Feb. 4 — (CP) —

Mothers who tell "white lies" to evade a certain tea party should beware. Their children will notice and imitate.

Mrs. M. L. McQueen, executive director of the Council of Social Agencies here, said today in an interview that children absorb the influence of their parents more than academic teachings. The child is always searching for a pattern to follow.

Some parents treat pets better than their children, Mrs. McQueen said. They want their children perfect and often "smack them" when they don't do what is considered right.

"Instead small children should be patted and fondled when we want them to do right. A child's delinquency can usually be traced to insecurity in the child's environment. Juvenile delinquents are made, not born."

Mrs. McQueen attributed much of present-day juvenile delinquency to the "tension, excitement and anxiety felt during the war. These feelings have been transmitted from parents to their children and are responsible for much of the emotional disturbances seen in our rising generation."

New Barn At Falconwood Farm

With speed of construction the main consideration, a Quonset hut was used to roof the new modern dairy barn at Falconwood Farm. Several old barns were torn down. Forty feet by eighty and thirty feet high, the half-circular steel hut has been placed on a ten-foot concrete wall, and the loft is completely free of obstruction. The interior has been completed by Falconwood farm labour for temporary use this winter, and is expected to be finished permanently in the spring with concrete floor, ventilation and modern fixtures. The silo, which is slated to be approximately 30 feet high and 12 feet in diameter, is of wooden construction. Mr. Walter Matheson, Charlottetown is the contractor, and Mr. G. Gurney, head farmer.

Former Islanders In News At Cranbrook

The following is taken from the January 13 issue of the Cranbrook Courier (British Columbia): "Mrs. H. A. Riggs and son Frank who leave shortly for Port Worth Texas, were the guests of honor at a delightful farewell surprise party, given by a number of their friends, Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Storey Games, music and delicious refreshments were enjoyed during the evening. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Silver, on behalf of the assembled company, presented the guests of honor with suitable farewell gifts, for which they expressed their thanks and deep pleasure at this unexpected honor shown them by their friends." (Mrs. Riggs referred to above is a daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riggs, Charlottetown.)

Also from the Local Notes: "The United Church Young Adults group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Dale Sunday evening. Mr. Gordon Douglas was the guest speaker and gave a very interesting and informative talk on Newfoundland becoming a Province of Canada." (Mr. Gordon Douglas is a native of Georgetown and is teaching in Cranbrook High School.)
