DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

The harness races in connection with the Nova Scotia Exhibition were well contested but the cold weather and heavy track prevented fast time being made. John Dean, owned by A. Morris, Saint John, and driven by H. M. Sweeney, trotted the fastest heat, time 2.12. The fastest heat paced was by Calumet Budlong, owned by Mrs. Margaret Ballard, North Sydney, and driven by Billy Hood, time, 2.09 1-4. The $20 prize for leading driver was divided equally between Col. D. A. MacKinnon, Charlottetown, Mayor H. M. Sweeney, Bridgewater, and William Cummings of Halifax, each having eight points. Drivers Sweeney and Hood each received $10, for driving the fastest heat trotted and paced, respectively.

The writer had a long conversation with Frank Boutlier at Fredericton and he told of the trip which Spurge Gammon and he took several years ago in quest of a stallion to fill the place left vacant by the death of Captain Aubrey at the Government Farm Truro. They visited some of the best of the breeding centres in New York State and finally went to Kentucky where they saw Spencer 1.59 1-2, pronounced by Frank as one of the most beautiful horses he had ever seen. They also saw Guy Richard (since deceased) and he was wonderful; but the horse that filled his eye completely was Guy Abbey. He has everything, size, soundness and magnificent appearance.

Grattan Axworthy, which showed up so sensationally on the ice at Toronto last New Year's and was sold for $1,700, paced the Welland, Ontario track recently in 2.04 3-4. This was claimed as an all time Canadian record in a race over a half-mile track, but incorrectly, as Gusswork with a mile in 2.04 1-4 at Fredericton holds the race record for Canadian twice-arounds. $4 3-4 has been accomplished at Fredericton by Single G. 1.58 1-2, Billy Strathmore 2.04, Janette Royal 2.04 3-4 and Ruby P. 2.04 3-4.

The 39th renewal of the Walnut Hall Cup at Lexington, Kentucky, was won by the Canadian bred trotter, Lee Hanover, in 2.01, winner of thirteen races this season. He is now owned by Homer D. Biery of Butler, Penna. This race gets its name from the fact that the winning owner receives a handsome trophy donated by the Master of Walnut Hall Farm, Dr. Ogden M. Edwards, Jr., son-in-law of the original proprietor, the late L. V. Harkness.

Professor S. A. Rockford was very much in the limelight at the Nova Scotia Exhibition. He occupied a prominent position on the platform at the opening ceremonies and was Distance Judge during the races. He gladdened the heart of one worthy supporter by winning a Classified Dash with Alestra, and the two dollar ticket paid the biggest of the meet—$63.80.

The first winner of the event was the Monk, a son of Chimes, bred at Village Farm by the late C. J. Hamlin and driven by the late Edward F. Geers. The Monk was a full brother of Shadow Chimes 2.05, raced by Mr. Geers and afterwards passing into the ownership of the late C. J. Hamlin of Charlottetown. Reference was made to Shadow Chimes in last week's notes. Down through the years followed such well known names as Nut Boy, Uhlán, The Great Volo, Allie Pento, Hollywood Chief and others that we cannot recall. Nut Boy was owned by Lotta Crabtree, the great actress, who employed Myron McHenry, "the wizard of the sulky" to do her teaming.

Believe it or not, Alestra is a much better pacer than she is given credit for. The writer timed her in better than 2.14 at Fredericton, and in her Classified Dash at Halifax she finished like a whirlwind with the "Prof." teaming in a style reminiscent of Walter Cox's best days.

In 1916 Walter Cox won after a remarkable contest, by driving Mabel Trask to victory over Saint Frisco. Seventeen years later her son, Vansandt by San Francisco, Calumet Evelyn 1.59 1-4 pacing—which is the world's record for four-year-old paces—has added to her honors by trotting a third heat at Lexington last Saturday in 1.59 1-2 after trotting the two previous heats in 2.03 1-4 and 2.01. This is a world's record for a third heat trotting in a race. She was driven by the Canadian reinsman Vic Fleming, who has handled her since the first time she stepped on a race track as a two-year-old.

At the same meeting her three-year-old full brother Recovery won the Kentucky Stake for three-year-olds, best time 2.03 1-4.

Joe Louis Cuts Down Brescia In 3rd Round

BY EDDIE BRIETZ (Associated Press Sports Writer) (A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) NEW YORK, Oct. 9—(A.P.)—Jorge Brescia was just another chopping block for Joe Louis tonight.

The Detroit Bomber blasted the Argentine out of the heavy-weight picture with a knockout in the third round of their scheduled 10-round bout in the New York Hippodrome. Louis weighed 202, Brescia 205 1/2. It was a typical Louis finish. Joe fooled around just long enough to get his bearings before uncorking two paralyzing left hand belts to the head that started the birdies twittering—for the time being South American—on every rafter in the new home of the 20th Century Sporting Club.

Brescia's knees sagged with the first left. The second caught him flush on the jaw and he went down like a fallen tree. He hadn't so much as stirred when a huge electric clock flashed the count of 10. A crowd of about 6,000 saw the Bomber all but massacre a game but badly over-matched Brescia to register his 26th knockout in 31 professional bouts.

Brescia didn't go out without a battle. Trailing for two rounds, he cut loose with all he had in the third and for exactly one minute made a fight of it. He slugged Joe into the ropes with a barrage of rights and lefts to start the third and the negro had to unloose both big berths to bet his way out of the jam.

It was then the Argentine's number went up. Slightly disconcerted, Joe missed two hard rights to the head, but came back to rock Brescia with another right. flush to the jaw, and then brought his trusty left into play to apply the finishing touches. The end came after 2:12 of the third round.

Joe, who didn't manage to work up a good sweat, had nothing but praise for Brescia, former Argentine amateur champion after the fight.

"He'll be a good boy some day," he cried. "Maybe he will learn to fight as well as Joe Dimaggio plays centre field. Some of those punches in the third round hurt a bit, but he didn't show me anything like a knock-out punch."

Brescia said he thought the left side of his head was coming off when Louis popped him in the third.

"I do the best I can," he said. "Joe can hit harder than I thought."

CAN HE DO IT?

Ex-heavyweight Island champion who on Monday night will answer that question himself when he takes part in the big boxing tournament at the Forum to decide a challenger for Jim Evans' crown.

Fine Pitching Record By Carl Hubbell Is Revealed

(By Sid Fedee, Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 10—The baseball cam after the stormy days of New York's World Series gave the statisticians a chance today to figure out just how great the great Carl Hubbell really was this season. They found out he was very great, indeed.

Batted Out Five Times They learned, for example, that out of the 35 games he started—of the 42 in which he saw action—he was batted out of the box only five times; that he finished 25 of his starts, and, winding up the season with a record of 26 victories against six losses, he completed an official earned-run average of something less than two per nine innings, close to his best year on, 1933, when his mark was 1.66.

Excluding the sixth place Boston Bees, with whom, surprisingly, he encountered most difficulty, the long-trousered southpaw of the National League champion New York Giants stood the rest of the loop on its collective ears.

How He Trained Them He whipped the Cardinals five times: out of six, stopped the Phillies six out of seven, took four each from Pittsburgh and the Cubs, while losing once to the Pirates and twice to Chicago. The Cubs were not the only outfit to whip him two times out. He won three and lost one to Cincinnati and shut out Brooklyn and Boston out of the win column, taking three triumphs over the Dodgers and one over the Bees.

Only 10 of his pitches were home run hits in the approximately 300 innings he worked, and less than 60 batters drew free passes to first in that time.

In the light of cold statistics, he took apparent delight in two things—humbling the Cards and Cubs, the outstanding pennant favorites, and beating the pitchers who held decisions over him.

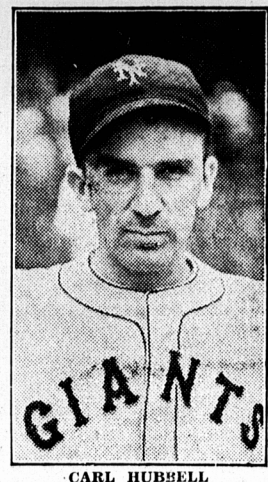

Saints To Play Mount A In Rugby Opener

Saint Dunstan's University fifteen, almost annually holders of the Island senior rugby crown start their 1936 season Monday afternoon at the Abegweit Grounds when they clash with last year's Maritime Intercollegiate champions Mt. Allison. Everything is all set for a gruelling battle word coming through last evening that the Mounties will be here in full force anxious to take back the scalps of the Islanders.

But whether or not they can accomplish that purpose remains to be seen. The red and white clad warriors from Saint Dunstan's will prove no easy marks. Right in the pink of condition after a month's intensive training the Saints looked good in their final pre-game workout. Gaps caused by graduation have been filled admirably by members of last year's second team and this year's squad is on a par with the other smart teams that take the field annually representing the Malpeque Road University.

The game will also serve as an opener for the season and it is to be hoped that a large crowd will witness the tilt. Football enthusiasts are making a gallant effort to pep up the pilskin game this year and a large attendance Monday afternoon will go a long way in helping both the game and players along.

Game is scheduled to start at 3.30 sharp. Place --- the Abegweit Grounds.

Stage Set For Big Boxing Tournament

24 eager, rugged battlers wait the word that will send them into action Monday night in each division will have a tough, hard road to travel, calling for every ounce of stamina and courage they possess, but they are fully aware of this and have trained accordingly. Each and every one of the entrants are ready assuring Promoter McDonald of another of his highly pleasing nights of fistfights.

The light heavy division is a wide open affair with each fighter according to the dope that is going the rounds having an equal chance. Some rough, tough battling is assured, and the winner will have to be courageous and fit.

Then there are the big boys. Always crowd pleasers the heavies as long as they get in there and fight will draw a big hand. Not very much is known of the respective ability of the majority of them. Of course there is the usual talk going the rounds about second Tunneys and Dempseys, but this is to be taken with a grain of salt and from this corner it looks like another open affair.

Of course there is George Leslie to consider. Leslie, fresh from a stunning one round K.O. victory in Souris, is on edge to get in there. He wants another crack at the crown so lately held by himself but just like the other entrants he will have to show his stamina and courage to the utmost to gain another title shot. However many of George's friends feel that he will be returned the winner and will be there to root him home to victory.

It looks like another capacity house and fans are assured of a night of thrills and spills even exceeding that of the first tourney.

Speed Demons Ready For Racing Classic

BY PAUL MICKELSON Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 9—(AP)—Major George H. Robertson's dream of a $1,000,000 "pretzel" stuffed with racing dare devils comes true Monday when the speed demons of the United States and Europe risk lives and limbs over the twisting four-mile Roosevelt raceway course.

The 300-mile auto race, a combination of curves and straight-away driving will be worth approximately $40,000 to the victor with $20,000 more spread among the next nine place winners. Forty-five cars worth on the average of $10,000 each, will start the grind. Major Robertson's "pretzel" so bending that exactly 1,200 turns will be necessary before the 300 miles are traversed, was not popular among the speed demons, who figured it too dangerous for fast racing. They estimated an average of 64 miles an hour would be good enough to win and that the pilot whose car stood up under the grind would be lucky.

Tazio Nuvolari of Italy, regarded as the greatest road driver in the world on his record of winning 87 out of 153 road races, rules a strong favorite. The Italian has been called the "man who has a contract with the devil."

He, unlike the other invaders from Italy, France, England and Australia, takes the hairpin turns in skidding fashion.

Lou Meyer, only man to win the Indianapolis race three times, rates as America's best bet, followed by such knights of the road as Wilbur Shaw, Babe Stapp, and Bill Winn, perennial stars of the Indianapolis classic.

Golf Program For Weekend

The Ball may be lifted on the fairways of 17 and 18 where the ground is under repair. Drawing takes place at the club house at 2.15 sharp.

Men's and ladies' sweepstakes will be played on Monday morning, and the competition in the afternoon will consist of match play handicap against par, open to both ladies and gentlemen members.

Fred Perry & Helen Jacobs Head Tennis Rankings

(By Bob Savagnaro, Associated Press Staff Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 9—(AP)—Fred Perry of England and Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Calif., rule the tennis world, in the opinion of A. Wallis Myers, British authority, in his "first 10" rankings for 1936.

Perry retained the no. one position without dispute by holding the All-England title and recapturing the United States championship.

Miss Jacobs was elevated to the spot for winning the all-England crown after eight unsuccessful attempts—and despite her loss of the United States title.

This year's rankings saw red-headed Don Budge of Oakland, Cal., pull up from sixth to third behind the German, Gottfried Von Cramm; Wilmer Allison of Austin, Tex., 1935 United States titleholder, drop from fourth to seventh, and Bryan "Bitsy" Grant Jr. of Atlanta admitted to the exclusive set for the first time at no. eight.

Two others, Adrian Kari Quist of Australia and Heiner Henkel of Germany also were given international ratings.

Back of the three leaders, Myers graded the men's list as follows: No. 4, Quist; No. 5, H.W. "Bunny" Austin, England; No. 6, Jack Crawford, Australia; No. 7, Allison; No. 8, Grant; No. 9, Henkel; No. 10, Vivian McGrath, Australia.

Hilda Krahwinkel Sperling of Germany and Denmark, who lost to Miss Jacobs in the Wimbledon final was ranked No. two; followed by Dorothy Round of England; Alice Marble of San Francisco; Simona Mathieu of France; Jadwiga Jedrzejska of Poland; Kay Stammers of England; Anita Lizana of Chile; Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fry of Brookline, Mass., and Carolin Babcock of Los Angeles.

Moncton Britons Turn Back Trenton Scotias In Opener

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 9—(CP)—Playing superb ball behind the five hit pitching of their young mound ace, Moncton Britons, last year's Maritime Softball Champions, took the lead in the final series for the Maritime title, downing Trenton Scotias 12-1, in the first game here today.

With Melanson, pitching for Britons, in top form, Trenton was unable to put more than one run across which came on a four base hit by Patterson in the first half of the third. Coming to bat in the fifth inning, Moncton turned on the power, collecting three runs on two-base hits by Keith, Trites, Steeves and Whitenect.

A seven run rally in the next inning clinched the game for the New Brunswick Champions. With men on bases, Steeves and M. Taylor collected home runs off Dunn, pitching for Trenton. Base hits and a sacrifice in the seventh, adding two more runs for Britons, finished the scoring spree.

Melanson was credited with ten strikeouts to seven for Dunn, while Trenton had two errors charged against them to one for Moncton. The second game of the best-two of-three series will be played in Stellarton, N. S., Monday, as will a third, if necessary.

Amherst Again Wins Junior Baseball Title

SAINT JOHN, N. B., Oct. 9—(CP)—Amherst St. Pats, 1935 Maritime Junior baseball champions, retained the title today by defeating Saint John Falcons 4-0 in a replay of yesterday's game.
