ONE WEALTHY SCHOOL TEACHER—We have just learned, says an exchange, of a teacher who started poor twenty ago and has retired with the comfortable fortune of fifty thousand dollars. This was acquired through industry, economy, conscientious effort, indomitable perseverance and the death of an uncle who left her an estate valued at $49,999.50

INSTITUTE MEETING—The Ringwood Institute met at the home of Mrs. Joe Dolron, Rocky Point on February 8th. There were six members and four visitors present. Two dollars was voted to each of the Hospitals. The evening was spent in social chat. A dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Dolron. The meeting closed in the usual way to meet again next month.

CHARLOTTETOWN - BOSTON SERVICE—Messrs J. Carragher & Co., of this city have been in communication with the former management of the Plant Line Steamship Co., who are now operating the Nova Scotia Steamships Ltd. with steamers running between Halifax, Boston and St. John's, Nfld., and other companies, with a view to inducing them to resume the Charlottetown-Boston service which was for some 25 years successfully operated by the old Plant Line. Some of the replies received are encouraging and the matter has been promised consideration, as it is yet too early in the season to give any definite answer.

RECORD BOOK

Mr. Farmer how much did your farm earn for you in 1920? I can't exactly say off-hand. The Guardian Account and Record Book will say it for you in 1921. Subscribe or renew today.

COAL MAY BE LOWER

—According to advices the indications are that there will be a decline in the price of coal in the early spring or opening of navigation. The public could stand considerable in this line.

A BAD PIECE OF ROAD

—The attention of the road master of those responsible for its upkeep, is called to the awful condition of the road leading from Cornwall to Dookendorffs. The pitches are so bad in places that it is almost impossible to haul a load over them. This being a very public roadway, the matter should be remedied at once.

Many Women Are Taking Bitro-Phosphate Now

Women lacking in nerve force and whose minds are not as keen as in days gone by are fast finding that organic phosphate is the one element that their impoverished nerve and blood cells need. Bitro-Phosphate, for which Geo. Hughes, Ltd., has such a large demand, is ordered by physicians because with its use comes the spirited buoyancy and energy of youth. It feeds the nerve, brain and blood cells just the food nature intends strong healthy people to have, and is a safe inexpensive upbuilder.
