Mr. Neil Crawford, Hamilton, Ont., writes: "My nerves were in such bad condition I found it almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I was also bothered with headaches and dizzy spells. I tried many different remedies, but they did not seem to give me much relief, but after I had taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I could hardly believe the change they had made in my condition."

Belfast and Vicinity

At the conclusion of the regular weekly meeting of the Young People's Society of St. John's Church on Friday, Jan. 13, a very delightful social time was spent. There was a good crowd present and each tried to help in some way to make a good time. The readings and recitations were good and thoroughly enjoyed by all. The musical part of the evening was up to the usual standard of St. John's. The song, a parody on The Meers; chum Pipe, with apologies, was especially good and showed up the different activities of several of the active Y. P. S. members. A contest—something new at these socials—was put on by Mrs. John Gillis and was an enjoyable part of the programme. The young people were delighted to have their pastor back with them again and as usual was a great asset to the evening, both in song and humor. At the close of the programme the lunch committee excelled themselves, and needless to say was one of the best of the evening's entertainment.

Miss Elizabeth MacCormac, Rollo Bay. Dear Elizabeth: I have been requested by the members of the Institute to offer you a slight token of our affection and regard. I can't tell you how delighted I am to be the means of conveying to you the expression of our united love. What we offer you is a poor symbol of our feelings, but we know you will receive it kindly as a simple indication of the attachment which each one of us cherishes for you in our hearts. You have made our Institute meetings a frequent visitor to Rollo Bay pleasant by your presence with us. West.

Mr. Wilson Murchison, Point Prim, had the misfortune of losing a very fine looking and valuable young horse by drowning on Pinette River on Jan. 11. The horse was tied in the yard at George Docherty's when it took fright from an unusually noisy car that was passing. It started to run towards the bridge and was going so fast it was impossible to make the turn, so it jumped across the rail, cutting clear of the wagon and went out on the ice and made for the channel. A large crowd gathered and a boat was procured but the horse being on the north side of the bridge, and the ice was in such a condition that going out in a boat would be inviting disaster to human life. The horse was in the water between one and two hours and the spectators report that it made a desperate effort for life. Going through the arch of the bridge it struck one of the piles which turned it completely over and evidently took water in its lungs as it gradually grew weaker immediately afterward. The public are sorry to hear that such a lovely animal should have such a tragic death and are particularly sorry for its youthful owner.

BORDEN DRAMATIC CLUB AT SEVEN MILE BAY AND BORDEN

On Thursday evening, Jan. 12th last, Borden Dramatic Club presented the three act comedy, Change of Identity, in Seven Mile Bay Hall. Although the weather was unfavorable and the roads practically impassable, a fair sized audience greeted the players. The play itself is a very interesting and humorous story of a bridegroom who changes his identity to suit various occasions, resulting in very entertaining situations. There is not a dull moment from start to finish and this, coupled with the superb acting of the various members of the cast affords a full evening of real enjoyment. The play was repeated in Borden Hall, Monday, Jan. 16th, to a capacity audience, there being nothing but slight standing room left. So great was the appreciation here at times that the actors had to interrupt their lines and await restoration of silence only to be broken in upon almost immediately by loud and repeated rounds of well merited applause. Dramatic recitations by the little Misses Patricia Rogers and Ruth Macdonald added much to the specialties, as did also in a special manner, a dance given by eight little boys and girls, splendidly trained by Miss Blanche McIvor. An old time favorite, The Hat My Daddy wore, was sung nicely by Mr. P. J. McInnis and was well received. Music was furnished by Mrs. James McAleer, pianist and Mr. James O'Connell, violinist. The following comprised the cast: Timothy Shea, James McAleer, Patrick Rooney, P. J. McInnis, Jimmy Rooney, Lorne McAleer, Slade, Frank Westhaver, Fred Grady, J. LeRoy Sherry, Yonnie (a colored boy), Reggie Rogers. Mrs. Daphney Rooney, Mrs. W. P. McNeill, Kathleen O'Connell, Miss Annie McDonald, Nora Shea, Miss Jennie McDonald, Tessie Connors, Mrs. Lorne McAleer, Yennie, Miss Pauline McIsaac, Yaney, Miss Doris Noonan.

The February meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Annie MacDonalld on the evening of February sixth. Roll call is to be answered by a good joke. The following ladies are to be responsible for the Program—Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Annie MacDonalld, Mrs. Mack Vickers and Mrs. Hazen Howard. At the end of the business meeting a programme was given as follows: Reading, Mrs. Dan McEwen and a contest, conducted by Mrs. William White and won by Mrs. W. W. Crosby. The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Wife—"Does it say in the papers what hats are to be worn this summer?" Husband—"I can tell you without looking in the papers. Either hats that do not suit you or hats that I cannot afford to pay for."

BEDEQUE

Mr. Winston Mayne has returned to Acadia University, Wolfville, N. S., having spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mayne.

The ladies of the Norboro Women's Institute of Norboro, were entertained at the home of Mrs. S. Glover last Tuesday evening—there being 16 members and four visitors present. One new member was cordially welcomed. The roll call was answered by a New Year's Resolution. On motion adopted, all outstanding bills were paid. It was decided that the Institute purchase a dictionary for the school. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Stewart, the roll call to be answered by a Valentine Verse. A reading was given by Miss Reta Stewart and much enjoyed by all. A contest, conducted by Miss Jennie Paynter and another by Mrs. Charles Murray, caused much consideration and amusement and suitable prizes were won by Mrs. James Croken and Mrs. Stanford Glover. The hostess and assisting hostesses then served delicious refreshments and the remainder of the evening was spent in social entertainment.

The following clipping from the Oakland, California, Maple Leaf, will be read with much pleasure and interest by the people of this community and other parts of the Island, as Mr. Fowler is a native of Bedeque, P. E. I.—L. U. "Lou" Fowler is secretary of the Vacant Lots Garden Club and has been for so long that pioneers cannot remember when he first took office. Your estimate of his age will vary according to the basis you use. In energy he is still a young man; in experience he has a chance of bettering Methuselah's record. His office in the basement of the city hall is a horticultural museum and a visitor must be wary when he subsides in the chair. He may sit on cucumbers or cauliflowers, or a sample of loam. Mr. Fowler takes great pride in his library, which is quite extensive and in his two sons, one of whom is manager of a large Eastern manufacturing company and the other fairly recent entry into the ministry. He tells a story well and has a collection which almost equals the variety of the book shelves. Part of his ability in this direction is natural and the remainder acquired from attendance at the famed White Lunch Discussion Club, which foregatherers for gossip and lunch each noonday. Mr. Fowler has a secret vice—he wants to be a writer. In fact he has had considerable success, having "crashed" fairly regularly the pages of the Maple Leaf, a magazine published by Canadian expatriates in the United States and enjoys a large circulation. Yes, he writes occasionally of his home town, Calgary and the Luncheon Club, taking an occasional sly dig at J. S. Low, K. C., and Major Durcan Stuart. Equally prominent in his articles, however, is Prince Edward Island, where most good potatoes and Mr. Fowler come from.—B.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. L. E. SHAW

The death occurred in the Prince Edward Island Hospital early yesterday morning of Mr. L. E. Shaw aged 63. Mr. Shaw took ill shortly before Christmas and had apparently improved, but he took a relapse and about a week or ten days ago entered the hospital. He was a native of Stanhope and had been engaged in farming and teaching school before he removed more than twenty years ago to Charlottetown. For a number of years he has very capably filled the position of trustee officer for the city schools and agent for the Children's Aid Society. He was a man of splendid character and the news of his death will be learned with deep regret by many friends in city and country. He is survived by a widow, a sister of the late Mr. Earl Ross, who was accidentally killed at Albert Plains in November last.
