Rev. Jas McDougall will preach (D. V.) as follows:—On Sabbath the 20th at Cape Traverse at 11 and 7; at Searlton at 3, on Sabbath the 27th at Argyle Shore at 10.30; Desable at 3, Hampton at 7; at Coleman on Wednesday and Thursday the 30th and 31st at 7 p. m. Session at the manse Cape Traverse on Tuesday the 29th at 6 p. m.

There was considerable curiosity yesterday regarding one of the delegates from the north-western corner of Queen's County to the D. C. S. in this city. The gentleman in question disappeared from his friends about nine o'clock in the morning and at latest accounts was still at large, but as he has always returned from his roamings in the past nothing serious is anticipated.

Persons sending advertising to The Guardian will confer a favor on the management if they will state whether or Rural Daily, how long and how frequently they wish it inserted in each, and whether as a business local, display ad, or classified ad, bearing in mind that if for the latter it can run but for consecutive insertions. All ordinary accounts under one dollar are accepted on a cash in advance basis and ten per cent discount given, except to those having a regular advertising account.

The following additional particulars have been received about the late Rev. Matthew Smith whose death was reported in last Wednesday's issue: On Saturday March 12th, Rev. Matthew Smith of Annanage N. B., was awarded his reward at the advanced age of ninety-six. He was born at Osmotherly, Yorkshire, England in 1815 and came to Crapaud, P. E. I., with his parents in 1817. About 1850 he moved to Annanage, N. B., where he has since lived and labored. He leaves to mourn one son and one daughter, Chris Smith of Annanage and Mrs. S. Chittick, Corn Hill, also one brother, Sam Springfield, and Mrs. John Wright, Tryon. It has not been the privilege of many men to proclaim the gospel as long as Mr Smith commencing to preach at the age of eighteen and two years ago when visiting in this province he would still tell the "old old story" he loved so with a vigor that would do credit to a younger man.

The program of the hospital concert to be held in the Opera House on Easter Monday night, will appear in Saturday's issue of this paper. Watch for it, it is composed of the best of talent only. 3-18421.

Don't Shut the Door in the Face of Business

Why do you slam the door in the face of a customer—the door on your desk or wall—we mean the phone? Are you on a party line?

Would you like to know how many times the operators have to report "line busy" in a day or week—would it interest you to know how many dollars passed your door to your competitor through this false economy? Put yourself in your customer's place—look at your business from the outside. If at the last moment you telephoned for some article or information in a hurry, on different occasions, and in reply received "Line Busy". Would you or could you do otherwise than to phone to where you get the best service—not if you are a thrifty business man or an industrious woman.

On request we can tell you the number of times the line was reported busy in a day or week. Give your customers a square deal and you will be assured of the very best class of trade.

Better phone Contract Department now—right now, before you forget it—there may be someone at this very moment trying to get admission through the business door and the operator has to again report "Line Busy". Don't stay on a party line.
