

OUR NEWS BUDGET FOR OUR SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY Many friends will regret to learn of the passing of Mr. Michael Mountain on Saturday evening in Kensington after a week's illness. The deceased was the oldest and one of the most highly esteemed citizens of that town.

DWELLING HOUSE PURCHASE—The residential property of Mr. J. Lester Douglas, M.P., on Grafton Street adjoining Zion Presbyterian church has been purchased by the church trustees. Mr. Douglas has acquired a property at Parkdale.

TAKING A REFRESHER COURSE—Dr. Harold Stewart, Eldon, left yesterday for Halifax to take a week's refresher course at Dalhousie University Medical School. This is an annual event for the convenience and benefit of medical practitioners in the Maritime Provinces.

A monument to war dead was unveiled at Tignish yesterday by Lieut. Governor J.A. Bernard. Of native sandstone, it is located on grounds of Notre Dame convent and was constructed by the Tignish branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L.

The ceremony was under the auspices of the Legion. Miss Peggy Beck and Miss Betty Anne Beck left by motor Thursday morning for Calgary, where they will begin studies at the Alberta Bible School. They were accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Beck who plan to visit relatives in the United States on the return trip.

A lovely reception was tendered by Mrs. Winnifred Bell to her mother, Mrs. Eliza Campbell, Montague, on the occasion of her eighty-eighth birthday. Guests present included Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Whitehead, Saint John; Mrs. Henderson (sister), Murray Harbour, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bell and Mr. Roy Bell, Montague.

ENTERTAINED AT TEA—Mrs. Edward Gallant was hostess at the tea hour entertained Mrs. H. Forrester and Mrs. G. J. Sheehan guests at the Forestall-Peters wedding. The table was daintily arranged with snapdragons and pink tapers over a lace cloth. Mrs. E. Wilson presided. Mrs. T. Edgett, Mrs. Carl Burke and Mrs. Y. Boudrias assisted in serving.

BRIDE-TO-BE HONORED—Miss Edna Todd recently entertained an afternoon tea and cup and saucer shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. S.K. Todd, Summerside, honoring Miss Shirley Callbeck whose marriage took place on Saturday morning. Mrs. Eric Ebeen opened the gifts while Miss Dorothy Callbeck read the accompanying verses. A dainty lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by her sister, Miss Betty Todd.

Mrs. Margaret Smith returned to her home in Holbrook, Mass., on Saturday after spending a very pleasant summer with Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Campbell, Rocky Point and Mr. and Mrs. Rendle Larter, Charlottetown. Mrs. Smith was accompanied by her son Oden Smith and his wife also of Holbrook, who spent a week visiting relatives and friends. It was Mrs. Smith's first visit to P. E. I. and she was very much impressed with the kindness shown them and expect to make another visit in the near future.

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—On Thursday evening at Summerside Mrs. Francis McNeill and Mrs. James Mullins were joint hostesses at the former's home, for Miss Pearl McNeill, visiting friends to a miscellaneous shower. Many beautiful gifts of linen, china and glassware were brought in by little Patricia and Donald McNeill. Mrs. Norman Hogg opened the packages, while Miss Mary Hogg read the accompanying verses. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Lorne

Driscoll, Mrs. George Olscamp and Miss Margaret McNeill.—S. Laverne MacDonald, Pleasant Grove, was committed to Supreme Court last Saturday morning on a charge of illegal possession of stolen goods, on evidence submitted by members of the R. C. M. P. in connection with a breach which was stolen from the home of Mr. Randolph Murray, Pleasant Grove on September 21st, 1947.

MacDonald also appeared on a charge of arson as the result of an investigation carried out by R. C. M. P. into the fires which broke out on September 21st, destroying a barn on the property of Mr. Ambrose Doyle and a house occupied by Randolph Murray, who are both residents of the Pleasant Grove district. The house, which was occupied by Mr. Murray, is the property of Lieut.-Colonel Parker Hooper, Charlottetown.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Calbeck, Summerside, was the scene of a pretty wedding on October 4th at 10 a.m. when their daughter, Shirley Elizabeth, became the bride of Hugh Hunt Simpson, son of Major and Mrs. Hugh M. Simpson, Charlottetown. For the occasion the living room was artistically decorated with autumn flowers and baskets of cut flowers. To the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Pauline Todd, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. Rev. K.G. Sullivan performed the ceremony. The bride wore a street length gown of turquoise Alsatian with accessories and a corsage of Talsman roses.

Attending her was her sister, Miss Dorothy Calbeck, who wore cherry wool with black accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mr. Clifford Court of Bedford attended the groom. During the signing of the register "I Love You Truly" was played by Miss Todd.

On Sunday evening, October 5th, following the regular worship service, the congregation of the central Christian Church made a farewell presentation of a book and a purse of money to Mr. Russell Carr who leaves for Calgary, Alberta where he will enroll in the fall and winter sessions of the Bible College. Three other young people have left Christian churches to enroll in college in Calgary. Miss Leata White, formerly of Murray Harbour, recently of Charlottetown, and Miss Peggy and Betty Anne MacGregor. Both families are residents of Mt. Stewart.

At her home at Cape Wolfe, in the early hours of Wednesday morning, August 27th, she departed this life, after a long and protracted illness, borne with Christian patience and resignation. Mrs. John V. Reilly, at the age of 76 years, in her 42nd year, was missed by the loss of one of its most highly respected citizens.

RETURN AFTER TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan H. Groom and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Groom, who returned to their homes in Summerside after an extended business and pleasure trip to the United States. Mr. Groom, who is the proprietor of the up-to-date Garden of the Bull Cabins, visited the many stores during the trip in the interest of his business, journeying.

SURPRISE PARTY—On Wednesday evening a large number of the friends of Mr. J. Emer Murphy gathered at the home of Mr. Arthur Clow, Willow Avenue, for a surprise party in Mr. Murphy's honor. The gathering of friends was held in order to offer to the guest of honor congratulations and best wishes on his approaching marriage. A handsome travelling bag was presented to the prospective groom and a short but well worded speech of presentation was delivered by Mr. Freddie Gallant and the remainder of the evening was spent in a highly enjoyable social manner.

The well-known hardware business of Stanley, Shaw and Peardon, corner of Kent and Great George Streets, has been acquired by the joint stock company with D. E. H. Shaw, last surviving partner of the firm, as president. Associated with Mr. Shaw will be his son, Dr. Harold Shaw as vice president and Mr. O. R. Simons as secretary treasurer and general manager.

One of the most widely known firms in the Province, Stanley, Shaw and Peardon was established in 1901. The senior partner, Mr. J. K. Stanley, died in 1934 and Messrs. William Peardon and D. E. H. Shaw continued as partners until Mr. Peardon's death on August 7 last.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield, Wednesday morning, September 24th, when Reverend Father Robin united in marriage, Miss Agnes Leona, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallant, to Emmanuel, Prosper Gallant, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gallant of Plusville. The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white sheer nylon with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of gladioli. The bride's attendant, Miss Mildred Gallant, was dressed in a floor gown of pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of gladioli. Mr. Louis Gallant acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. An afternoon of fun and music was enjoyed by all present.

TUESDAY St. Joseph's Church, Kelly's Cross was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday morning, August 25th, when Mr. Leonard Keele of Kinkora took as his bride, Miss M. L. Genevieve Caragher, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Carragher of Kelly's Cross.

Cassidy's Restaurant in North Rustico, said to be one of the most modern in the Province was destroyed by fire last night. Origin of the blaze, which was discovered shortly before 10 o'clock, was not returned.

RETURNS FROM BOSTON.—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Johnston have returned from Boston where Mr. Johnston was undergoing medical treatment in Massachusetts Memorial Hospital and is much improved in health.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of Mr. George P. Nichol, of the MacLean Funeral Home on Saturday morning. Service was conducted by Rev. G. C. Webster, who also officiated at the grave. Pallbearers were Messrs. W. S. Grant, Vincent Blake, T. E. Macdonald, Michael Conway, Fred Large and F. S. Wilkens.

Dr. Henry Moyle, Summerside, has been elected President of the Prince Edward Island Medical Association. He succeeds Dr. A. J. Murchison of Charlottetown. Other officers elected were: Dr. Eric Pound, vice-president for Queen's County; Dr. George Ingram, vice-president for King's County; Dr. Roy Grant, vice-president for Prince. Dr. Gordon Lea was re-elected secretary with Dr. I. J. Yeo as treasurer.

A lovely reception was tendered by Mrs. Wanda MacFarlane, at the home of Mrs. Annie Schirmer, Lower Montague. The bridal couple received many beautiful gifts from their many friends. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. MacFarlane was a nurse in the King's County Hospital.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. John's United Church, Mt. Stewart, P. E. I., on Sunday, September 7th, at 4:30 p.m., when Rev. Wm. T. Mercer, in a very impressive and reverent manner, united in marriage Ariea Phyllis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leard, to William Alex. MacGregor. Both families are residents of Mt. Stewart.

At her home at Cape Wolfe, in the early hours of Wednesday morning, August 27th, she departed this life, after a long and protracted illness, borne with Christian patience and resignation. Mrs. John V. Reilly, at the age of 76 years, in her 42nd year, was missed by the loss of one of its most highly respected citizens.

RETURN AFTER TRIP—Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan H. Groom and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Groom, who returned to their homes in Summerside after an extended business and pleasure trip to the United States. Mr. Groom, who is the proprietor of the up-to-date Garden of the Bull Cabins, visited the many stores during the trip in the interest of his business, journeying.

SURPRISE PARTY—On Wednesday evening a large number of the friends of Mr. J. Emer Murphy gathered at the home of Mr. Arthur Clow, Willow Avenue, for a surprise party in Mr. Murphy's honor. The gathering of friends was held in order to offer to the guest of honor congratulations and best wishes on his approaching marriage. A handsome travelling bag was presented to the prospective groom and a short but well worded speech of presentation was delivered by Mr. Freddie Gallant and the remainder of the evening was spent in a highly enjoyable social manner.

The well-known hardware business of Stanley, Shaw and Peardon, corner of Kent and Great George Streets, has been acquired by the joint stock company with D. E. H. Shaw, last surviving partner of the firm, as president. Associated with Mr. Shaw will be his son, Dr. Harold Shaw as vice president and Mr. O. R. Simons as secretary treasurer and general manager.

One of the most widely known firms in the Province, Stanley, Shaw and Peardon was established in 1901. The senior partner, Mr. J. K. Stanley, died in 1934 and Messrs. William Peardon and D. E. H. Shaw continued as partners until Mr. Peardon's death on August 7 last.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Anthony's Church, Bloomfield, Wednesday morning, September 24th, when Reverend Father Robin united in marriage, Miss Agnes Leona, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gallant, to Emmanuel, Prosper Gallant, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gallant of Plusville. The bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white sheer nylon with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of gladioli. The bride's attendant, Miss Mildred Gallant, was dressed in a floor gown of pink taffeta with sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. She carried a white prayer book and wore a corsage of gladioli. Mr. Louis Gallant acted as best man. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. An afternoon of fun and music was enjoyed by all present.

FUNERAL AT KENSINGTON—The funeral of the late Michael Mountain took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from his late residence in Kensington and was one of the most largely attended in the locality in many years. A short service was held at the home, followed by services in the Kensington Presbyterian Church conducted by Rev. J.A. MacGowan assisted by Rev. Charles Carney and Rev. Lewis Murray. Hymns sung were: "I To The Hills We Lift Mine Eyes", and "Sands of Time Are Sinking". Mr. Tyndall Solo rendered beautifully the solo "Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me," a favorite of the deceased. Members of L.O.A. attended in a body and conducted their burial service at the grave. The pallbearers were as follows: Wesley Champion, George MacNeill, Arthur Henry, Preston Tombs, George Harris and Alex Hillz.

St. Dunstan's Basilica was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Rev. J. C. Pitre, cousin of the bride, united in marriage: Pauline Joseph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Foker, Charlottetown and Henry Gloria, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forestell of Saint John, N. B.

Flying from Saskatchewan in a jumbo 200 h.p. single-engine Cornell plane, Lieut. William D. Brickham, post exchange officer, United States Army, with headquarters at Fort Pepperville, Newfoundland, landed at the local airport Monday evening and left yesterday morning for Tor Bay, Newfoundland.

A man drowned at Georgetown Monday night was identified yesterday as Patrick Cosgrove, 64, formerly of Fredericton, P. E. I., but residing in Charlottetown since last spring. He had been a blacksmith at Fredericton for about 20 years, and was said to be a native of Hope River.

An inquest has been ordered into his death by Dr. George Inman of Montague. The hearing was adjourned until Thursday night. Monday night was identified yesterday as Patrick Cosgrove, 64, formerly of Fredericton, P. E. I., but residing in Charlottetown since last spring. He had been a blacksmith at Fredericton for about 20 years, and was said to be a native of Hope River.

Mr. Cosgrove was unmarried. So far as could be learned he has no close relatives.

BREAK AT CANADA PACKERS—A break into one of the Canada Packers' storerooms containing surgical equipment was made early Sunday morning. The thieves gained access to the building by means of a hole in one of the walls, made by workmen, for the purpose of moving machinery. They broke the inner door, stealing a number of sides of bacon. The City Police and R.C.M.P. are out investigating.

COMMITTED TO SUPREME COURT—At a preliminary hearing held before Stipendiary Magistrate, K. M. Martin, K. C., yesterday morning, Edward Weeks, City of Summerside, was committed to the Supreme Court on a charge of attempt to break and enter. He was charged in connection with a series of attempts to break into the homes of five different residents of Laphorte Avenue on the night of September 30th, and with tearing off screen doors of two of these homes before being caught off by either residents or watch-dogs.

The 130th meeting of the Maritime Union of the Presbyterian Church in Canada opened in St. James Church, Charlottetown, last evening, with a solemn and impressive service at which the Rev. T. H. Bussell Somers, Minister of St. James Church, was elected Moderator for the ensuing year.

Rev. M. Somers succeeds the Rev. D. W. Macdonald, of Mahone Bay, N.S., who as retiring Moderator presided at the opening of the convention and delivered an inspiring address.

There was a very large and representative attendance. Among those present was the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, Charles H. MacDonald, of Lucknow, Ont., who was called upon and spoke briefly, expressing his pleasure at being present, and his keen interest in the Synod proceedings and deliberations.

THE NOMINATION OF Mr. Somers was moved by the Rev. Charles Carney, Summerside, and seconded by the Rev. J. A. MacGowan, Kensington. There were no other nominations.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS—Congratulations were extended yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. J. Austin Trainor on the occasion of their 35th wedding anniversary.

SIDE MAN TO WED TODAY—The wedding of Miss Wilma Hovey of Fredericton, N.B., to Clifford Blair Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Heber Johnston, Summerside, will take place today (Thursday) at four o'clock in Toronto, Ontario.

HAD HAND INJURED—Mr. John C. Arsenault, Summerside, an employee of Messrs. R.T. Holman Ltd., while operating a circular saw yesterday afternoon had the misfortune to have the tips of two fingers cut off. Medical attention was given the injured hand and the extent of his injury was not considered serious.

Mr. John J. Gaudet, who has been visiting his brother, Mr. Joseph Gaudet and Mrs. Gaudet, has returned to his home in Cambridge, Mass., where he will resume his duties as City Police. His many friends in Alberton gave him a hearty welcome.

Master Hazen Mellich, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Mellich, Summerside, was taken to the Prince County Hospital yesterday afternoon and is reported to be in critical condition suffering from concussion of the brain.

Word has been received from Messrs. Bruce MacLaren, Stewart Sorrey, Alvin Moore, Reg Reid, and Bill Murphy, that they have arrived at Sioux City, Iowa, en route to British Columbia where they expect to obtain employment in the lumber industry. While in Sioux City they visited the Ford Motor Plant where they watched a car being completely assembled. They also paid a visit to the Ford Museum where they were privileged to view the first car put out by the Ford Motor Industry.

Marshfield Presbyterian Manse was the scene of a pretty wedding on August 16th, 1947, at 10 A.M. when Catherine Emma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Gordon Douglas, Head of Hillsborough, became the bride of Mr. Cecil E. Jay, New York. The Rev. F. N. Young officiated at the ceremony.

LAI TO REST—The funeral of Mr. Earnest J. Doucette was held yesterday morning from his late residence, North Rustico, to Stella Maris Church, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. William McCabe, who also conducted services at the grave. The pallbearers were: Lawrence Doucette, Victor Sonler, Clarence Doucette, Eugene Doucette, Rene Gauthier and Albert Doucette. Interment took place in the Church Cemetery.

The Rev. Horace F. MacEwen, B.A., B.D., who has been supply pastor for the three summer months in the Charlottetown-De Sable-Argyle Shore-Stanchel circuit of the Church of Scotland, has accepted an invitation of the western parish of the Church to become its regular pastor for the ensuing year. He will take the place of Rev. J.H. Bishop, who recently resigned and together with Mrs. Bishop has left for Winnipeg where he will receive surgical treatment and then take up his new duties as pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian (Covenanter) Church of that city.

Yesterday afternoon about 3:30, during a severe electric storm, a quality building on the farm of Harold Waight, North Bedouque was struck by lightning and completely burned. An alarm was sent in to the Summerside Fire Department and a crew of men with fire fighting apparatus responded. On arrival at the house and barn about thirty feet away. A bucket brigade had been formed and further spreading was prevented, also by a heavy downpour of rain. Fortunately there was no wind blowing at the time.

FRIDAY PAINFUL ACCIDENT—The many friends of Joyce Harrington Spring Valley, aged 4 years will regret to learn she had the misfortune of falling off a fence and breaking her arm. She was taken to the Prince County Hospital to have her arm set.

TWINS BORN TO FORMER S'IDE COUPLE—Mr. and Mrs. George Bowness, Water Street East, have received word that twins were born to their son, Calvin, and his wife on Sept. 8th. Mr. Bowness who now resides in Vancouver, was a former teacher in the Summerside High School. Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Bowness by their many friends.

FUNERAL AT HOPE RIVER—The funeral of the late Patrick Cosgrove was held yesterday morning from St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, Hope River. Requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Earl Dalton. The pallbearers were: Edward Turner, Cecil Trainer, Michael Murphy, Ben Weeks, Frank Nicholson, Ambrose Hurrell. Interment was in the church cemetery.

POTATO HARVESTERS—A total of 680 workers have arrived from the mainland to help with the potato harvest in the Province. This was announced by National officials of the local office yesterday. Some 450 have been distributed in Prince County and about 200 in Queen's and King's Counties. It is expected that the total number of workers will be considerably augmented the next few weeks by the arrival of smaller groups of 15 or 20.

A coroner's jury at Georgetown last night decided that Patrick Cosgrove, formerly of Fredericton, P. E. I., and more recently a resident of Charlottetown, came to his death from a cerebral hemorrhage. The jury decided, after medical evidence had been submitted, that the man was dead when he struck the water, after falling over the Railway Wharf at Georgetown on October 6. The death occurred at approximately 7 p.m.

FUNERAL AT DUNSTAFFAGE—The funeral of the late Mrs. Penton H. Court, Bedford, was held yesterday afternoon. A short service was conducted at her residence by Rev. Mr. MacCallum, after which funeral services were held in Central United Church, Dunstaffnage, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. MacCallum and Rev. Mr. Mercer. Mr. Roy Smallman sang as solo, "The Old Rugged Cross." Interment was in the church cemetery. The pallbearers were: Lloyd MacCallum, William Vessey, Robert Connolly, Harry Walsh, Irving Thompson, William Dover.

THE DEATH OF Mrs. Penton Court of Bedford, who died in the Prince Edward Hospital Monday, was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage "as a result of being hit by a car driven by Louis Henessey of Charlottetown," a coroner's jury decided last night. The jury found no negligence on the part of the driver.

60TH ANNIVERSARY—Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Linklater of Whittier, California, and formerly of Summerside, recently celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding in the California town of their adoption. They received congratulatory messages from friends far and near.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT—Mr. Emmett Ranaghan of the grocery department of Messrs. R. T. Holman Ltd. met with a painful accident on Wednesday morning while operating the meat slicer. In some manner the index finger of his right hand came in contact with the circular blade inflicting a deep and painful cut which required immediate medical attention. Mr. Ranaghan's injury, while not serious, will keep him from his duties for some days.

2ND BIRTHDAY—Mrs. MacNeill, widow of the late Hon. James A. McNeill of Summerside, on Saturday celebrated her 82nd birthday. This grand old lady six months ago had the misfortune to fall and fracture her hip. She made an excellent recovery and is able to be up and around every day, taking a lively interest in all the events of the day. Mrs. MacNeill had quite a number of friends call on her on the occasion of her birthday to extend kindly felicitations.

LIBERAL MEETING—Mr. J. Stewart Ross, Flat River, was re-elected president at the annual meeting Wednesday night of the Fourth Queen's Liberal Association, held at Eldon hall, John MacRae, Cherry Valley was elected vice president and Milton Funes, Vernon, secretary. Gordon Shedow and Stewart Ross were named members of the County executive, and Harold Smith, Pownal, member of the Provincial executive. Addresses were given at the meeting by Premier J. Walter Jones, J. Lester Douglas, M. P. and Messrs. Stewart Ross, A. W. Matheson, K. C. Eugene Cullen, M. L. A., G. R. Holmes, K. C. Roland MacDonald, Southport, Cecil Miller and Milton Funes.

THE UNEXPECTED DEATH OF John J. Duffy, 68, occurred at his home on Hawthorne Ave. Charlottetown, early yesterday morning.

The late Mr. Duffy was born at Fort Augustus on November 28th, 1878. He entered the service of the Charlottetown Post Office on March 13, 1913. Commencing as junior clerk, the late Mr. Duffy did all phases of the work in the Charlottetown Post Office. At the time of his retirement, July 1, 1946, he was in charge of the Money Order Branch. During his long postal service, he was a competent and genial official and won for himself a host of friends.

The late Mr. Duffy was a member of the Charlottetown Council of the Knights of Columbus and the Benevolent Irish Society. With the Knights of Columbus, he has held many offices, among which was that of Grand Knight. Mr. Duffy is survived by his widow. A sister is expected home from the United States for the funeral.

The funeral will take place Monday morning.

BIRTHS DOWNE—At the P.E. Island Hospital on Oct. 9, 1947, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downe, a daughter, Linda Marlene.

MATHESON—At the P. E. Island Hospital on September 30th, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Matheson, a daughter, Norma Jean.

MCCARRON—At the Charlottetown Hospital on September 30th, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCarron, a daughter.

FRASER—At Kings County Hospital on October 4th, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fraser (nee Melva Lund) Georgetown, a son, Charles Percy, 8 lbs., 12 oz.

RANAHAN—At the City Hospital, October 1st, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. (Tim) Ranahan, a son, Thomas Hudson.

GAUTHIER—At the Charlottetown Hospital on October 7, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Gauthier, City, (nee Emily Dolron) a son, 7 1/2 pounds. Joseph Everett Gauthier.

CARRUTHERS—At St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Saturday, October 4, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Carruthers (nee Olive Johnston) a son.

STEWART—At Kincardine, Ontario, October 4th, 1947, to Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Stewart a daughter, Loraine Beverley.

MARRIAGES CALLECK-SIMPSON—At Summerside on Oct. 4th, by Rev. K. G. Sullivan, Shirley Elizabeth Calbeck to Hugh Hunt Simpson.

JARDINE-DOUGLAS—At Marshfield Presbyterian Manse, on Wednesday, Oct. 1, by Rev. Norman Young, Mrs. Mary Douglas to Merton Jardine, both of Mount Stewart.

BELL—HOWATT—At the United Church, Paragon, Tryon P. E. I., on Friday, October 3rd, 1947, Catherine Edna Howatt to Harold Dean Bell, both of Carleton Place, P. E. Island. Rev. E. R. Woodside, B. A., officiated. At Wesley Memorial Church, Moncton, on Saturday, Oct. 4, by Rev. Mr. Freestone, Glenn Isabel Sharpe of Borden, P. E. I., to Parker Lorne Pauley of Melrose, New Brunswick.

HENNEY-NEWMAN—United in marriage at the Baptist Parish, Tryon, September 17th, 1947, P. E. I., and Dorothy E. Newman of Bradabane, P. E. I. Rev. C. A. Hacks, officiating.

DEATHS COSGROVE—Suddenly at Georgetown, Oct. 6, 1947, Patrick Cosgrove of Fredericton in his 65th year.

CURRAN—In the Charlottetown Hospital on Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1947, Mrs. Henry Curran in her 67th year.

MONTEITH—At his home on Tuesday, Oct. 7, Walter B. Monteith, 84.

MOUNTAIN—At Kensington, Saturday, Oct. 4, 1947, Michael Mountain aged 92 years.

DUFFY—At his residence of Hawthorne Avenue on Thursday Oct. 9, 1947, John J. Duffy in his 68th year.

LAIRD—At the Prince County Hospital Oct. 5, William Laird, aged 82 years.

MACGUGAN—The death occurred at the Sacred Heart Home, Saturday, Oct. 4, 1947, of Mrs. Peter MacGugan in her 82nd year.

EDWARDS—At 83 Greenwood St. Marlboro, Mass., on Oct. 4th, 1947, John A. Edwards, aged 74 years. Formerly of Hampshire, P. E. I. Funeral services in Marlboro.

FORMERLY of Hampshire, P. E. I. Funeral services in Marlboro, Oct. 6, Lorne M. Jay in his 48th year, formerly of Mount Stewart, P. E. I. COURT—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Monday, Oct. 6, Mrs. Penton Court of Bedford, in her 41st year. CURRIAN—In the Charlottetown Hospital on Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1947, Mrs. Henry Curran in her 67th year.

BLAQUIERE—At the Province's Sanatorium on Oct. 6th, 1947, Lucy M. Blaquiere in her 32nd year.

DOUCETTE—In the Provincial Sanatorium on Monday, Oct. 6th, 1947, Joseph Ernest Doucette of North Rustico in his 37th year.

ROSS—At Rosbery on October 8, 1947, Donald E. Ross, aged 84.

COURT—At the P. E. Island Hospital, Monday, Oct. 6, Mrs. Penton Court of Bedford, in her 41st year. CURRIAN—In the Charlottetown Hospital on Tuesday, Oct. 7, 1947, Mrs. Henry Curran in her 67th year.

STARTS to work in 2 seconds

EASE neuritic neuralgic PAIN ASPIRIN

GENUINE ASPIRIN IS MARKED THIS WAY

QUICKIES By Ken Reynolds

RUPTURE RELIEF PAINFUL TRUSSES ABOLISHED

SEND FOR FREE BOOKLET of this British-made appliance for relief from RUPTURE. Not an old-fashioned truss, but a washable appliance with an inflated air-cushion pad that holds the Hernia firmly with a gentle upward pressure so that in many cases tissues reunite and the rupture is conquered forever. When wearing a Beasley you can work or play in perfect comfort. Every appliance made to individual specifications. Many doctors are wearing a Beasley. Money back guarantee.

Who BEASLEY'S CANADA, LTD., Dept. 11-P, 66 FRONT ST. WEST, TORONTO

"Have you been using this razor I got with a Guardian Wharf Ad?"

WE SHIP ANYWHERE GENUINE FORD and MERCURY PARTS COMPLETE STOCK FAST EFFICIENT SERVICE STEWART MOTORS

KEEP "REGULAR as CLOCKWORK" with Nujol The easy-action laxative for ordinary constipation

RUPTURE RELIEF PAINFUL TRUSSES ABOLISHED SEND FOR FREE BOOKLET of this British-made appliance for relief from RUPTURE. Not an old-fashioned truss, but a washable appliance with an inflated air-cushion pad that holds the Hernia firmly with a gentle upward pressure so that in many cases tissues reunite and the rupture is conquered forever. When wearing a Beasley you can work or play in perfect comfort. Every appliance made to individual specifications. Many doctors are wearing a Beasley. Money back guarantee. Who BEASLEY'S CANADA, LTD., Dept. 11-P, 66 FRONT ST. WEST, TORONTO