REASON FOR BIG COMPETITION

Primarily the object of this Big Prize distribution is to increase the already large circulation of the "Guardian" and to win a welcome in every household in the field covered by this daily paper.

SUPREME COURT

At the Supreme Court yesterday preliminary hearings were given in the criminal indictment cases. The Court met at 11 a. m. and adjourned after a brief sitting until this morning, when some of the non-jury cases on the docket will be heard.

Lightning Killed Cattle In Prince County

A severe lightning storm on Monday morning was experienced in the western part of the Province and caused much damage. Two fine cattle owned by Mr. Fred Compton, St. Eleanors, were killed in their pasture and it is further reported that two cattle belonging to Mr. Daniel McLean, Tyne Valley, were struck by lightning and instantly killed.

City Schools Closed Yesterday

The closing exercises at the different City Schools were held yesterday and the various programmes were admirably carried out.

WEST KENT SCHOOL

The closing exercises of the West Kent School yesterday were very largely attended by parents and friends, the scholars acquitting themselves with much credit in the fine programme prepared, as printed yesterday.

PRIZES WORTH WORKING FOR

Many men holding important positions of high standing do not receive for a whole year's salary what the first prize in this competition amounts to. Do you realize that the winner of the $1,640 New Gray-Dort Special will be earning $205.00 per week for the next eight weeks; that the winner of the Chevrolet will be making $125.00 per week during the next few weeks and that the winner of the other prizes will be earning amounts in proportion to the value of the prizes.

GRASP THE OPPORTUNITY.

Dame opportunity knocks but once at every door. She is now loudly clamoring at yours, but don't expect her to knock the door in. The Competition is a golden opportunity for you to win a prize of real value absolutely free—Do not let it slip by unheeded.

Inspection Yesterday at Victoria Park

The inspection of No 8 Signal Company and the 1st Battalion P. E. I. Infantry Regiment, was carried out by Major General H. C. Thacker, C. B., C. M. G., D. S. O.
