CONFEDERATION TEA.—Attention is directed to the advertisement re Miscoche Tea which takes place on Wednesday, Aug. 5th. It is planned to make it one of the best teas of the season as will be seen by the ad in another column.

SCOTCHFORT.—Haying is the order of the day in Scotchfort and vicinity now and notwithstanding the backwardness of the season looks as if there will be an average crop.—The play entitled "The Texas Cattle King" was put on in Mount Stewart Hall on Monday night, July 27th. A goodly number being present. The play in itself was interesting being fairly well presented. After the play was over vaudeville shows were put on for which special tickets were sold mostly everyone remaining. The vaudeville was humorous and amusing bringing forth much applause from the audience.—S.

A PREACHER'S VIEW.—In the course of a sermon in the Carleton Methodist Church, St. John, on Sunday evening, Rev. H. E. Thomas, the pastor, who was formerly of Charlottetown, referred to the recent strike and outbreak of lawlessness in the city. The preacher said that the incident was very greatly exaggerated and a combination of circumstances made the riot worse than the ordinary course of events would produce. Being present as a casual observer when the trouble took place, Rev. Mr. Thomas said that it appeared to him that only about thirty or forty boys and young men were more or less actively engaged in the trouble with the cars on Market Square. The large crowd of people were only the ordinary citizens and pleasure-seekers who would naturally be on the streets on a beautiful evening with band concert attraction. He was in front of the Dominion express office, King Street, when the cavalrymen charged the crowd. A little girl was knocked down and her face cut by a cavalryman's sword when the charge on the crowd was made. This incident, which appeared unaccounted for, stirred the mob up to great fury. He thought that if a score of policemen had marched into the crowd and paid attention to the trouble-makers the whole affair would not have reached such serious proportions. Exaggeration in dealing with the trouble was an unwise feature which did no good.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—What might have been a more serious accident occurred at Hayden's wharf on Friday evening last when the S. S. Harland was leaving the wharf after discharging the passengers and freight. A man who was standing close to the side of the wharf lost his balance and went over falling a distance of twelve feet. The tide was low and luckily for him there was water where he fell or otherwise he might have fared very badly. As it was he received a bad shaking up being rendered unconscious for about twenty minutes by the fall.—S.
