A psychological and industrial challenge at the Communist. Instead of accepting a crippling of the public services of the nation as an inevitable part of the May Day demonstration, the Premier has decided to attempt to maintain the country's life on a normal basis. He has asked banks and business houses to operate as usual to prevent the Communists employed in them to show their hands and run the danger of disciplinary action.

Followers of Bergery numbering 150 stormed the home of Mayor Dreyfus following the election in an effort to carry out a threat to burn his house if Bergery was defeated. Because of his withdrawal from the election in favor of Sarrett, Dreyfus polled 800 votes in last week's inconclusive election, and when he dropped out those votes were sufficient to bring victory to Sarrett, whose margin was only 300. The victory was regarded as possibly enabling the government to crush the young Turb movement of the Radical Socialists, and the Radical ministers out of the Cabinet. Bergery resigned his seat in the Chamber after the February riots in Paris, asserting the deputies no longer held a mandate over his constituents. He fought his campaign on the issue of opposition to the National Government and polled 8,489 votes against Sarrett's 8,788.

PIANO DAMAGED.—The firemen responded to a still alarm about 6 o'clock last evening to extinguish a fire in a piano at the summer residence of Mr. L. T. Lowther, Brighton Shore. The instrument was on the veranda and had been covered with a sheet. The covering caught fire with the result that the piano was badly damaged.

WILL REBUILT.—Mr. William Jordan, proprietor of the five tenement house on King Street, which was destroyed some time ago, plans to rebuild the structure this Spring. A five tenement wooden building will be erected on the site. The work will be done by Messrs. MacDonald and Webster.

ON VISIT TO PROVINCE.—Mr. Austin H. Carr, C. A., of Toronto, Secretary-Treasurer of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants is on a visit to the Maritimes and has been spending the past few days in Charlottetown with Messrs. George P. Nicholson, C. A., and W. E. Massey, C. A., the President and Secretary respectively of the Prince Edward Island Institute of Chartered Accountants. In speaking of the Chartered Accountancy profession Mr. Carr said that business men are realizing more and more the importance of having their business accounts audited and comprehensive reports compiled regularly of their business. Only by having reports at intervals on their accounts can executives determine the trend of their business and in that way know where they are making a profit or a loss on the year's work. Chartered Accountants are interested in seeing that comprehensive annual reports are made to shareholders and that provisions be made in Companies Acts that balance sheets of corporations be made informative. Mr. Carr stated that the annual meeting of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants is to be held in Montreal the first week of September and that a large representation will be there from all the Provincial Institutes of Chartered Accountants.

PERSONALS Mr. John C. McPhee, Long Creek, made a business trip to Charlottetown Friday. A letter received from Mr. Alex Kelly, who is a patient in St. Anne's Hospital, Ste. Anne de Bellevue, Que., brings the good news that he expects to return to Charlottetown within the next few weeks. The many local friends of Mr. Elmer Farnell of Amherst will be sorry to learn that he has entered the Amherst Hospital for an operation. Mr. Farnell who is well known both as a traveler and soloist had planned to visit the Island the first of next month had it not been for his sudden illness.

MONTREAL, April 28.—(C. P.)—Trebilth Lincoln, who during an extraordinary career has been a member of the British Parliament, a German spy and a proponent of various religions, left here today for Saint John, N. Four nuns and six monks who accompanied him here from China are sailing with him to England.

Buddhist Monk Visits Halifax (C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HALIFAX, April 29.—"You are all doomed by your wickedness and folly!" That's what Abbot Chao Kung, formerly Trebilth Lincoln, thinks of all newspapermen and he said so tonight to Halifax reporters who greeted him aboard the Canadian Pacific liner Duchess of York before sailing for England where he hopes to be reinstated as a British subject.

"You cannot help me and you shall certainly not hinder me," the Buddhist Monk and the man formerly known as an alleged German spy had printed on a little yellow card which he passed out to newspaper representatives instead of talking. This same message, he said, he would give to English journalists on his arrival in the Motherland.

"Years of experience with journalists has now finally forced upon me the decision not to receive any more journalists; not to grant any more interviews. I am not at all interested in publicity. My work, to help suffering humanity through and with the doctrine of the Buddha, will be carried on by Buddhist means in a Buddhist manner. You are all doomed by your wickedness and folly!" stated the card, which came to the press of Canada.

Trebilth Lincoln returned to Halifax today after an absence of 32 years. As Rev. Mr. Lincoln, clad in the cloth of the Church of England ministry in 1902 he was a member of the missionary loan expedition seeking funds to spread Christianity. He preached in St. George's Church. Today accompanied by a band of followers, all in the garb of Buddhists, the visitor expressed his intention of propagating a different Messiah throughout the world.

When Lincoln was here before, he was the guest of Rev. Dr. H. W. Cunningham, Rector of St. George's Church. He called on the Rector today and took his band of followers with him. As soon as the Duchess of York docked here he began a sight-seeing tour, visiting places familiar to their leader. Riding in three taxis they went to see All Saints' Cathedral, St. Paul's Church, oldest Protestant church in Canada, St. Paul's Hall, where the former Church of England missionary conducted services, and St. George's Church.

Abbot Chao Kung left Canada with the earnest desire to establish a Buddhist monastery in British Columbia. After visiting England and India in the interests of his religion, he said, he would return to Canada early next summer.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH "Let brotherly love continue." This was the message which the United Church had for the Odd-fellows and Rebekahs of the city at the morning service yesterday delivered by Rev. C. N. Brown, M.A., in his sermon and by Mr. A. R. Gillis in his singing of what is known as the "Odd Fellows Ode." At the morning service the choir sang "Sweet the Moments," T. Edwin Solly.

SACRED SONG SERVICE The regular Sacred Song Service was held in the Central Christian Church with a large attendance. Professor Wigmore presided and Milton G. Stewart read the Scripture lesson, Isaiah: 35. Rev. G. Carlyle delivered a lucid address on the importance of "Habits in Life." A pleasing duet "Whispering Hope" was rendered by Miss Marion Saunders and Mr. Jack Murdoch. Mr. Burton Livingstone very acceptably sang a solo, "Masses regarding the Retreat." Rev. W. L. Outhouse led in prayer and pronounced the Benediction.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH At the Church of The Most Holy Redeemer yesterday morning, Masses were at the usual hours, 7.30, 9.00, and at 10.30. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Fleming, C.S.S.R. Rev. Father Cloran, C.S.S.R., who is conducting the Retreat, which began last evening and which will continue during the entire month of May, spoke at all the Masses, regarding the Retreat. The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Alfred Doucette, with Mr. Alex McLean as organist, rendered Millard's Mass in a very creditable manner. Last evening the Retreat for the month of May opened with a service for married women. Father Cloran preached an inspiring sermon on the subject "Holiness." Congregational singing was a feature of the service, which closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament. Masses will be celebrated each morning this week at 7.30.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH At the morning service at St. Paul's Church, the Rector, Rev. H. D. Raymond took as the subject of his sermon "This Jesus whom ye had crucified." Acts 1: 25. These words were spoken by Peter in his great sermon following the gift of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. His audience was composed of those versed in the learning of the age, also of Pharisees and Sadducees, and the great swaying mob of the common folk. When we notice how each reacted to the appeal of Jesus we find that the learned were amused; the prejudiced Pharisees and Sadducees rejected Him, and some of the common folk were ready to receive Him—some were not.

The Rector pointed out that if we had lived then, we too no doubt would have rejected Him. "Today we have what they had not. We have nineteen hundred Christian years as a background, and the Book of the New Testament. We have also childhood instruction and an experimental experience of Him which in our inmost selves tells us we have known Him. Sin crucified Christ. We too must apply Peter's message, "Repent and be baptized," to ourselves. We should look into our lives each day in self-inspection. Then should follow repentance for sin and doing it no more. Baptism in the spiritual sense—a renewal of life—is the blessing which follows repentance.

"I have not found so great faith, not in Israel," St. Luke 7: 9, was the text of the evening sermon. In this miracle of the healing of the centurion's servant we have an instance of Our Lord's divine mercy and pity. In the words of the text we find not only very great joy but also the guest of the Master. He finds one whose faith is very great and it gives Him joy. This faith is an example of the response of the human heart to Himself. It is the

King's Jekyll And Hyde

(Continued from Page 1) "Four hundred years ago the Liberal party was known as the Whig party which, in a Scotch vernacular, meant "corrupt, sour whey" or else "sour cheese." I understand that at Ingersoll the other day the leader of the opposition, after delivering a speech to the people there, was denounced a large block of cheese. I do not know whether that was in admiration of his ability, but in view of the two hour speech which he made in an academic dissertation on liberty I am inclined to believe that this block of cheese is symbolic of the disintegration of former Liberal policy, or in other words, it is good milk that has gone bad. I cannot agree at all with the defeatist Liberal attitude on this question. What they to all intents and purposes mean is that nothing can be done and therefore nothing should be done. I do not think that is a cure for depression. This fine virtue, liberty, has wrongfully construed as applied to the discussion on this particular

In Memoriam

MRS. J. HUGHES BRYAN There passed peacefully away at the Prince County Hospital on April 26, 1934, Grace Sweet, beloved wife of J. Hughes Bryan, of Casumpee, P. E. Island in the 52nd year of her age. Mrs. Bryan was born in Casumpee, daughter of the late Francis A. and Mrs. Sweet of that place. She was educated in the public school and Prince of Wales College of this Province. She taught school for a time before her marriage.

MRS. JOHN BYRNE The death occurred early Sunday morning of Margaret, wife of John Byrne, Bedford Station. She deceased was always very active until about three months ago when her health began to fail and from that time her decline was rapid. She had lived practically all her life in Tracadie Parish and was closely identified with the affairs of the community and all religious and charitable works. Besides a sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn four daughters, Blanche at Fairmount, North Dakota, Mrs. Thomas Barbeau, Enderlin, North Dakota, Mrs. J. A. Griffith, Charlottetown, and Helen at home; two sons, Frank of Marshall, Texas, and Emmett of St. Paul, Minn., who arrived home before his mother passed away. Two sisters, Dr. Jane C. Sullivan and Dr. Helen H. Hiel, also of Marshall, Minn., and one brother, Rev. Robert Hughes of St. James, Minn., also survive. The funeral will take place Tuesday morning at nine o'clock to St. Bonaventure Church. To the bereaved family the Guardian extends sympathy.

CAT OUTFRATES HUMAN JUDGE'S ESTIMATION BRUSSELS, April 30.—Sentence pronounced by Belgian judges sometimes make curious reading, especially when they concern carrier pigeons. The owner of a Siamese cat that ate a prize pigeon at Coudrekerke-Branche has been sentenced to pay $25 damages and the costs of the action. On the same day Max Coensy and George Lhoir were fined $17 each, with benefit of the first offenders act if they refrained from anything of the kind for three years, for killing a workman and seriously injuring another, during experiments with a stratosphere gondola. The judge explained that they were working in the cause of science, but the cat had no excuse.
