DOM. STEEL'S MARCH OUTPUT LOOKS BETTER.

The March output of Dominion Steel Corporation makes a favorable comparison with the same month a year ago.

The production for March in tons was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Product, 1915, 1914. Pig Iron 23,669 vs 22,619. Steel ingots 25,897 vs 28,352. Rails 8,102 vs 18,359. Wire rods 4,453 vs 2,981. Bars 316 vs ...

The output has been going largely to Great Britain recently, and the company has a satisfactory outlet for its product. If shipping facilities can be assumed, the company has almost completed arrangements for the trade in by-products created by the war, which promises good returns.

IN MEMORIAM

MARGARET A. DOUCETTE.

For several days the angel of death was hovering over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Doucette, Rustico, and on Monday, March 29th, claimed for its victim their beloved daughter Margaret Anne. She was ill only 11 days of spinal meningitis, and despite all that kind and loving care and medical skill could do, she gradually sank until the end. Little Margaret Anne, who was only 10 years old, was a general favorite with all, and the sad news of her death caused her many friends much grief.

scians of this city and province. His residence was on the corner of Pow-nal and Buxton streets, that old-fashioned Colonial style of house, extensive grounds and trees surrounding it. A sister Mrs. Henry Palmer died several years ago and two brothers, Wallace and another, left the Island for Australia in the days of the gold fever connected with that colony. There are three nieces of the late Miss Mackieson now living, namely Mrs. F. P. Carvell of Montreal, Miss Evelyn Carey in England, and Miss Amelia Palmer, who lived with her aunt until her demise. The late Miss Mackieson was also a cousin of the late Honourable Frederick D. St. Croix Brecken, the late Mr. John R. McDonald, father of Mrs. Aneas McDonald. Five years ago Miss Mackieson met with a rather serious accident and from that time she had been unable to attend to the social duties that she formally took great interest in. She was a lifelong member of St. James Church and was a Christian lady adorned with those virtues of charity, benevolence and kindness to all. Her generation have nearly all passed away, so few will remember her but those who knew her will feel assured and comforted with the thought that to one of her life and example there will be an abundant entrance into the better world.

MR. JAMES OWEN MCKENNA.

Seldom in this solemnity of death so keenly represented as it was at Orwell Cove on March 31st, when James Owen McKenna, son of Mrs. Owen McKenna, was suddenly called from their midst by a premature death. Deceased was a young person in the summer of life, having attained the age of only thirty-six years. About two years ago he became agent for the International Har-vesting Co. in which position he enjoyed good health for a time; but six months ago he was seized with sickness, which continued to grow slowly more alarming until on the advice of his physician, he retired from work. Notwithstanding the best medical treatment and careful attention rendered by his devoted friends, he patiently endured much suffering and gradually pined away, until on the evening of the 31st inst., the angel of death crossed the threshold to summon him to eternity; and the soul of James Owen McKenna, strengthened by the grace of the Roman Catholic Church went to meet its Maker. At home a loving and affectionate brother, his place in the family circle cannot be filled, while by his affable and pleasing manner he became so ingratiated in the hearts of a host of friends, that his place in company will ever seem to be vacant. His funeral took place on Good Friday evening to St. Michael's Church, and was attended by one hundred and thirteen sleighs, which shows the esteem in which he was held by his relatives and friends. The funeral services was officiated by the parish priest, Rev. M. J. Smith. The pallbearers were Messrs Daniel R. MacDonald, James Morrissey, Michael McKenna, Patrick J. Hughes, Nell MacPherson and Willie MacLeod. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing mother, one sister, Mrs. Joseph J. Griffin of Lower Montague; two brothers, Rev. Patrick J. McKenna of Kansas City, and Peter at home. To the grief-stricken parents and sorrowing sister and brother is extended heartfelt sympathy. May they find consolation in the assurance that his exemplary life on earth in performing God's holy will has gained for him an eternal abode in heaven.

Comparative Food Values

1 pound of rib roast beef [bar]
1 pound of Grape-Nuts food [bar]

Comparative Cost per Pound

1 pound of rib roast beef [bar]
1 pound of Grape-Nuts food [bar]

It would be difficult to find a food that affords the same abundance of true nourishment, at so low a cost, as does the famous wheat and malted barley food—

Grape-Nuts

At less cost, a package of Grape-Nuts supplies nearly one-third more nourishment than a pound of rib roast beef. And besides, in buying a roast you pay for about 20% refuse, and there's a shrinkage in cooking.

Grape-Nuts food comes ready cooked and every particle in the FRESH-SEALED package is good to eat. Its rich nutrient includes the 'vital salts that are necessary for brain, bone and sturdy muscle. Grape-Nuts is delicious—easily digested—economical.

Thinking people everywhere are more and more adopting Grape-Nuts—
