How To Make the Quickest, Simplest Cough Remedy

Much Better than the Ready-Made Kind and You Save $2. Fully Guaranteed.

This home-made cough syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Its promptness, ease and certainty in conquering distressing coughs, chest and throat colds is really remarkable.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This gives you, at a cost of only 54 cents, 16 ounces of better cough syrup than you could buy for $2.00.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in gaitacol, which is so healing to the membranes.

To avoid disappointment, be sure and ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces Pinex," and don't accept anything else.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE SONG OF HOME

The song of songs that wings its way into the hearts of men. Must voice the longing always felt, for "the house" again; Must take us back to happy times Before we learned to roam— The song of palace and of hut, The song of "Home, Sweet Home."

When far away from those we love In stranger lands we hear The song that sings the joy of home We answer with a tear. Oh, sweetest, tenderest strain of all— What yearning memories come! To be with those we love once more, And sing of "Home, Sweet Home."

O homesick heart, with eye of faith And longing all untold, High on the hills of Paradise Thy "Father's House" behold, Its doors stand evermore ajar For those who take the way.

To welcome all who roam, And there, God grant, with those we love At last we'll find Home.

CHRISTMAS PAST

It was indeed a gracious time, and as we recall the revels and ceremonies and find foolish beliefs of Christmas Past, we might regret what we have lost in this tamer and less picturesque age, if we did not know that never before in history Christmas kept so truly and heartily in the spirit of the day as it is now.

We have dropped a good many rude and some pretty customs, but we have gained a broadening spirit of almost universal charity, a feeling of brotherhood, that is perhaps none the less real than that of the past.

—Charles Dudley Warner.

A FRENCH CUSTOM

In France children place their shoes before the mantelpiece in anticipation of a visit from Father Christmas.

Lot 16, A. E. McLean, Bedouque, Dr. J. C. Ballem, Horace Wright, Middleton, Michael McCabe, Albany, Abraham Noonan, Kinkora, John P. Smith, Cape Traverse, Edward Crosby, Gordon Gibson.

MANNER OF GIVING PRESENTS

At no time does the manner of doing a thing count so much as at the time of Christmas giving, and while in a few instances there are those who overdo the outward embellishment of gifts, none of us now like to offer the simplest little remembrance unless wrapped in spotless paper, tied with gay ribbons and adorned with bright seals expressing merry greetings.

And this is as it should be for the holiday season gains a great deal of cheerfulness and rest from the multiplicity of veribonned white parcels whisking to and fro, and we do not regret the passing of the yellow paper bundle of our grandmother's day.

But the attractive appearance of the gift is not all that counts; we must be careful of the how and when and where of presenting it.

The time that custom more and more sets apart for the exchanging of gifts among friends is Christmas eve, any time from dusk to midnight; but Christmas day itself is sacred to presenting gifts within the family circle.

Some families put all the gifts in the library or living room, in separate piles, and then after a deliberate breakfast they all walk in and open the packages in the presence of each other.

Never give a gift in person if you can contrive to send it or put it where it will be found awaiting the recipient when he or she is alone, for when received in this way the gift makes its strongest appeal to one's appreciation.

In giving money, even to near relatives, the utmost care should be taken to give it in the most delicate way possible; especially if you know the money is needed.

One of the cleverest ways is to take a tiny Japanese umbrella, place the money in a paper bag and, after rolling and tying the bag around the upper part of the handle underneath, close the umbrella over it and tie with narrow ribbon.

Another good way is to present an attractive little booklet with a check or a greenback for a bookmark, writing on the flyleaf, "note page 14." Turning to see what is noted, the fresh new paper money is seen and the recipient appreciates the manner of its presentation no less than the material benefit.
