

POLITICAL MURDER ALARMING ENGLAND

Indian Student Who Fired the Fatal Shots, Arraigned. No Doubt he Deed Was Political. Excitement in Eastern Bengal, Where a Noted Agitator Preaches Sedition.

LONDON, July 2.—(Special)—Madar Dhinagri, the Indian student who killed Lt. Col. Wylie and Dr. Lalcaica, of Shanghai, was arraigned in Westminster police court and remanded for a week, after being formally charged with wilful murder.

This is the first time the method of the terrorists has been introduced into political agitation in England and the country has awakened to the fact in an ugly temper.

The prisoner, whose age is given as 25, is said to have relatives in good standing in Calcutta.

EARTH SHOCKS YET CONTINUE

MESSINA, July 2.—(Special)—The people, although still alarmed as the result of the earthquake shocks, are beginning to return to the country.

SASKATON'S NEW UNIVERSITY

SASKATON, July 2.—(Special)—The new university buildings here will cost about a million dollars.

GRAIN CARGOES GROWING LESS

MONTREAL, July 2.—(Special)—Shipment of grain through the St. Lawrence canal to Montreal for export show a falling-off of a million bushels compared with the corresponding period last year, while more wheat is being manufactured into flour and shipment made in that form.

A BANKER HAS DISAPPEARED

From Oshawa, But Believed Bank Will Not Suffer. Twenty Years Employed.

OSHAWA, July 2.—(Special)—Lary Cassels, Mgr. of the Dominion Bank here, has disappeared.

WOMEN SEEING NEGRO HANGED

Sister of His White Victim Wanted to Spring the Deadly Trap.

SENATOBIA, Miss., July 2.—(Special)—Steve Veasey, a negro, was hanged here today for the murder of A. T. Veasey, a young white man.

WOMAN'S APRON A DANGER SIGNAL

How a Farmer's Wife Saved Train From Destruction In a Wash-out. And the Escape Was a Narrow One.

HASTINGS, Mich., July 2.—(Special)—Seeing her white apron as a danger signal, Mrs. Atkins, wife of a farmer residing here, prevented a train from dashing full speed into a washout, thereby saving the entire train crew.

Mrs. Atkins observed that the roadbed had fallen away. Seeing the freight approaching a good for perhaps a minute not knowing what to do, then, remembering her apron and hastily tearing it she stood at the centre of the washout waving the garment wildly.

TENNESSEE HAS "CRIEST" LAW YET

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 1.—The statute extending the provision of the "Four Mile" law to the entire state becomes effective at midnight tonight. Under the provisions of this law it will be unlawful to sell or tipple liquors, wines, ales or beer as a beverage in Tennessee.

HARVARD CREW WINS FROM YALE

NEW LONDON, July 1.—In a grand exhibition of rowing by a crew remarkable for its physical power and endurance, Harvard this evening defeated Yale in the annual varsity eight-oared race on the Thames.

FIRE REPORTED IN SILVER CITY

MONTREAL, July 2.—(Special)—A report states that half of the business section of the town of Cobalt has been destroyed by fire.

AFTER FORTY-FIVE YEARS' ABSENCE

LEE, Mass., July 1.—George Hecox, who has been missing from Lee for forty-five years, appeared there last night and made himself known to his wife, who had, during his long absence, married another man, and been widowed.

WOMEN IN BALLOON TRIP

FAIRFIELD, Ct., July 1.—The balloon "Massachusetts," that made an ascension at Pittsfield, Mass., about two hours before sunrise this morning landed here today, after the aeronauts had been in the air a little over 10 hours.

OFFICER LOSES LIFE IN DUEL

BERLIN, July 1.—The details have only now become known of a duel fought by infantry Lieutenants Granier and Zwitzer, near Blankenburg, a fortnight ago in which Zwitzer was killed.

INSANE FARMER TOOK HIS LIFE

FREDERICTON, July 2.—(Special)—John Donalds, farmer, hanged himself in a barn at McNamee's Cross for some time past. Donalds had been acting strangely and all rumors were that he had been sleeping in the barn.

SEMI ANNUAL EXAMINATION

The semi-annual examination of the Port Hill school was held on Tuesday, June 29th. A large number of rate payers were present.

LARGE ICEBERGS SIGHTED

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., July 2.—Never in the history of ocean navigation has the presence of icebergs along the Grand Banks and the eastern Newfoundland coast been so prolonged as the present year.

MESSINA AGAIN IN TERROR

MESSINA, July 2.—Messina experienced two terrific earthquake shocks accompanied by roaring undulatory movement than the earthquake of December which destroyed Messina, Reggio and other cities and killed two people.

CHICAGO MARKETS

Table with market data for Chicago, including prices for wheat, corn, and pork.

FAIR, THEN SHOWERS

TORONTO, July 3.—(Special)—Variable winds, fair at first, then showers and local thunderstorms by evening.

DREADFUL EXPLOSION FROM GASOLINE

HALIFAX, July 2.—A dreadful accident occurred at Shag Harbour, Shelburne, whereby two boys, whose names are not yet ascertained, were killed and four others seriously injured.

CHINESE MURDERER FOUND

NEW YORK, July 2.—Although complete identification was impossible, there is a strong probability that the body of the Chinaman found in the Hudson river was Leon Ling, the murderer of Elsie Sigel.

Condensed Advertisements

WANTED—Two rooms without board, centrally located, for married couple. Address H. K. E. Box 957. 7-32wpd.

MINARD'S LINIMENT

The above is a photo of the Grants' tomb and other points of interest. The second trip was through the business sections of New York City, visiting the Antiquarium at Green Car, in front of the Metropolitan Battery Place, Wall Street, and other places that are near complete notable business parts.

NEW YORK PASSES ANTI-NOISE ORDINANCE

NEW YORK, July 1.—An anti-noise ordinance, which has been sleeping in the board of aldermen since last March, was passed by the board today.

THE PASSENGER LIST

The number of passengers arriving in this port by the S. S. Halifax on Thursday night was very large indeed. The list was as follows: From Boston, C. Ward, Mrs. McTavish, R. H. Farquarson, Miss Warburton, Miss R. Gilis, Miss McCachern, Miss L. M. A. A., and M. Lannigan, W. B. and Mrs. McKinnon, Miss M. E. McKinnon, C. H., E., and A. D. Jenkins, J. L. Donahue, T. and R. N. Tenney, Mrs. A. S. Bennett, Miss S. Campbell, Miss M. Matlow, Mrs. T. McKay, C. Schrober, Mrs. M. McCachern, Miss C. L. M., and H. Grandy, Miss G. T., and L. Finlay, C. L. and Mrs. Harrington, C. L. and Mrs. Broderick, Mrs. T. L. Alford, C. Gaskarth, J. D. and Mrs. Campbell, E. R. Rillon, W. Kemp, Miss T. and M. Reed, L. S. Wetmore, Miss B. McPhee, Miss T. Porter, Mrs. W. Pendergast, N. R. McLean, Mrs. M. Matheson, and R. A. Johnston, From Halifax, N. S., E. and Mrs. Stacy, T. and Mrs. Lewis, H. T. and Miss Flynn, and H. P. Lyle, From Port Hawkesbury, R. P. and Mrs. Stevens, Miss B. McMillan, J. J. Webb, W. T. Kerr, D. A. Boyd, C. H. and Mrs. Bennett, Miss J. B. and B. Lamery, Miss A. Cambourne, Miss B. Murray, P. H. Dawson, P. McCallan, J. E. Whitehead, Miss E. Finlayson, Miss B. Hunter, and Miss L. Kull.