Nervous Breakdown

The extreme depression and discouragement which comes over one at times is the most alarming symptom of nervous exhaustion.

This letter is a message of hope to all who find themselves in this unfortunate condition.

Mrs. Geo. T. Tingley, Albert, N.B., writes:—

"For years I was in a very nervous, run-down condition, was much depressed in spirits and suffered a great deal at times. The least noise would irritate me and at times I felt as though I certainly would go crazy. I consulted different doctors to no effect.

"A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and I can truly testify today to the great benefits received. There was a marked change before I had finished the second box and when I had used a dozen boxes my nerves were thoroughly restored and I was entirely relieved of those terrible feelings I used to have. I shall ever be ready to testify to the benefits of this wonderful medicine, feeling sure that it will give to others the quick and permanent relief it has given me."

Returned Soldier Progressive Candidate

(Special to The Guardian)

OTTAWA, Oct. 25.—The standard of the National Progressive party has been raised on Parliament Hill with the somewhat unexpected nomination by a fairly representative gathering last night by David Loughnan, returned soldier and former editor of the Vetern to represent the party in the present federal campaign. A new interest has been injected into the fight here. Judged from the standard of ordinary political conventions the nomination might be regarded as somewhat irregular. The meeting was called by the provisional executive of the Independent Progressive Association for the purpose primarily of confirming that executive and of fixing a date for another public meeting at which a constitution would be adopted and nominations made. The Orange Hall, however, was filled and it was decided to strike while the iron was hot to nominate Mr. Loughnan and later on to seek alliance with and to find a running mate for him probably a French Canadian. There was no balloting but Mr. Loughnan secured the nomination without opposition. He is now in the field.

The robbers appeared to have had advance information as to the location of the bags for other mail pouches were not molested. The robbers escaped in their car, driving north on Broadway. A general police alarm has been sent out.

AN OPEN LETTER TO WOMEN

Mrs. Little Tells How She Suffered and How Finally Relieved

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was not able to do my housework and had to lie down most of the time and felt bad in my left side. My monthly periods were irregular, sometimes five or seven months apart and when they did appear would last for two weeks and were very painful. I was sick for about a year and a half and doctored but without any improvement. A neighbor recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me, and the second day after I started taking it I began to feel better and I kept on taking it for seven months. Now I keep house and perform all my household duties. You can use these facts as you please and I will recommend Vegetable Compound to everyone who suffers as I did."—Mrs. J. S. LITTLE, 3455 Livingston St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Housing Problem Progressing in England

LONDON, Oct. 25.—Inquiries into the housing question in Great Britain show that over crowding is increasing in all parts of the country. Government officials concerned view the position with some alarm The shortage in houses at present is estimated at over half a million. Progress is now being made in the building of houses under the government scheme at the rate of 7,000 houses monthly but even if this rate is maintained the government's programme will be uncompleted before the beginning of 1923. Eighty thousand houses have been completed and a further hundred thousand are in course of erection.

Outlook Brighter For Irish Peace

(Special to The Guardian)

LONDON, Oct. 25.—The view was expressed at Sinn Fein headquarters this afternoon that the crisis in the Irish Conference was over for the present. The Dail Eirreanne representatives who said last night that if the negotiations were broken off today they would return to Ireland tonight, were this morning making no preparations to leave British delegates said there was some improvement but that the situation was still serious. Both agreed, however, as they resumed their meetings this afternoon that the outlook for peace was more hopeful. The Catholic members of the delegation and of its staff attended mass this morning celebrated at Southwark Cathedral for the late Mayor MacSwiney of Cork who died a year ago as the result of his hunger strike in Brixton prison.

A BELATED REPORT

Sir;—In the Patriot of yesterday appears a letter signed "Subscriber" detailing what is alleged to be "a sad case." This report appears to refer to one the whole history of which I am thoroughly acquainted with And I have only to say that the report is not only false but a slander upon the good name of Charlottetown and its Christian people. I think I am safe in saying that no such case as Subscriber describes has ever occurred in this city as any cases of destitution or misfortune are always taken up by our people when discovered.

With reference to this particular case, the mother was taken ill some six weeks ago and was taken to the hospital. The father was at home with the children and as soon as it was found that they were in need the kind women and men of the city gave them what assistance they required in food, clothing and coal. Later the father became ill and was taken to the hospital and they are both still there and recovering Meantime the same women and men who ministered to their earlier wants are continuing the good work. The children have plenty of food, coal and clothing. The burden it is true is being borne by a few. If Subscriber has any more tangible assistance to offer than an ill advised letter in which the city is publicly slandered he may find an outlet for it at this home which he is so sorry for. True also, a woman is needed in the home to care for the children, a duty now being willingly performed by the half brother, to the best of his ability Perhaps Subscriber would lend at least his sympathy in procuring a woman.

I am Sir, etc.,

D. J. McNeill,

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in t he stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well.

Artificial digestents are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisurated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bisurated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

Shropshire Registered Ram, also ram lambs. A Registered ram costs parties no more than a scrub ram now, who never used a Registered Ram before owing to the liberal grant of the Live Stock Branch. Many of these rams are prize winners at our Exhibitions. The value of a pure bred sire has been demonstrated many times by experiments conducted at various Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations. To quote one: in 1913 the Missouri Agricultural Experimental Station conducted a test to show the value of a good ram. Seventeen ewes were bred to an inferior scrub ram and seventeen to a fairly good registered ram. The lambs sired by the pure bred ram made 26.6 per cent. more daily gain than those sired by the scrub. The lambs from the pure bred ram sold for $7.35 per 100 pounds and the scrubs for $4.50 per 100 pounds. For further particulars apply at the Corraville Registered Sheep Ranch, Limited,
