AN ISLANDER HONORED

Parently none the worse of his icy bath. Such a conspicuous deed of heroism touched the hearts of the members of Court Whitney, C. B., 1782, I. O. F., of which Brother Moore is an honored member.

The hall was crowded with the elite of the city anxious to do honor to a man capable of such a deed of heroism.

On the platform with him were Mayor Gunn, H. C. Burchell, President of the Century Club, and the Revs. Mr. Warner, Mr. McIntosh, Mr. Greenless and Mr. Helms; also Alderman Wm. Fitzgerald, and also the hero of the evening, Brother Moore, and the young lad he rescued, accompanied by his mother.

Major Gunn at the conclusion of a stirring and patriotic address handed the beautiful watch to the rescued lad who in turn handed it to his rescuer.

BRITAIN THINKS SITUATION SERIOUS

LONDON, Mar. 11.—The latest news received here concerning the situation in Mexico and the concentration of American troops and warships, appears to be regarded with great seriousness.

The underwriters gave notice yesterday that after March 26 a clause in their policies would become operative warranting the holders against the capture, seizure or detention, and the consequences thereof arising from riots or strike operations.

The Morning Post in an editorial today declares that no good can come from the attempts to minimize the possible gravity of the Mexican situation.

The Spectator regards the action of the United States as a very grave matter and one calculated to cause anxiety to all friends of that country.
