ling by sleigh. The drains also

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE—Rev.
Dr. Campbell, President of Mount Allison Ladies' College, formerly of Charlottetown, preached at both services in connection with the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Sunny Brae Methodist Church, says a Moncton exchange. Despite the storm and inclement weather, large congregations attended both services and listened most attentively to the sermons. In the morning Dr. Campbell gave an eloquent sermon on the Text founded Matthew, Chapter 12, verse 30, while in the evening he delivered an able discourse of Chapter 7, verse 24.

HEARTILY WELCOMED—Rev. J.
E. O'Brien, late pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Good Help, River St., Washington, has taken the pastori-ship of the New Riverside Church at Riverside, Wash. Rev. Father O'Brien is a native of Port Augustus, P. E.
I. He was ordained in Montreal and left this Province about ten years ago. He was honored with a splendid reception, according to a Seattle paper, upon his arrival in Riverside to take charge of his new parish. An excellent program was rendered and the new pastor was assured that he would have the hearty co-operation of his parishioners in the upbuilding of the church work at Riverside. Rev. Fr.
O'Brien feelingly replied. The program included several addresses by clergy and others assuring the new pastor a warm welcome.

A GOOD BALL—The Winnipeg Telegraph contains a detailed account of the second annual ball of the Khar-ton Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S., which took place in that city on St.
Valentine's night and which was largely attended. Among the guests were Miss Lynette Gunn and E. E.
Poole, formerly of Cardigan. As the first strains of the opening dance sounded, the ball-room brightness faded to semi-darkness, the emblems of the order outlined with tiny electric lights were suspended from the centre chandelier and hung about the walls, shedding a soft glow over the pretty surroundings. A "spot" light followed the dancers about the room for the opening waltz as the merry troupe tripped to "Until the Sands of the Desert Grow Colder." The hosts of the evening wore their fez and the jewels of their various orders.

British Almond Pink cures chapped the skin is remarkably nice and
