WOMEN
Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well.

Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of kidney trouble. Under ordinary conditions they ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with a weak aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what is not a trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If you work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order. Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys that should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stoney Creek, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak. I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meantime a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from Kidney Disease to try them."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

INSISTED ON SHAVING HIMSELF.

Patron of City Shop Who Wanted to Be His Own Barber.

Two barbers were disengaged when the customer came in. Both got their chairs ready, but the newcomer dodged them.

"I need a shave all right," he said to the proprietor, "but I want to shave myself. Can you accommodate me here?"

"Certainly," said the proprietor, "but I'll charge you the same as if one of my men shaved you."

"That's all right," said the man. "I'm not kicking about the price. All I want is a chance to do my own barbering."

A tonsorial outfit was speedily produced and the self-sufficient individual went to work, and apparently he knew his own business.

"Isn't that a new wrinkle?" asked another man, who had been an interested observer of the proceedings, and who had been through the barber's hands.

"Not at all," returned the proprietor. "Every once in awhile we run up against a fellow who prefers to shave himself, but hasn't the apparatus handy. We keep a lot of razors in stock for the accommodation of just such independent customers."

Stork Day.

At Haslach, in the Kinzig valley, in Germany, February 22 is a holiday and has been observed as one for hundreds of years. Once upon a time, the story teller who explains its origin begins, Haslach was overrun with snakes, and no one knew how to drive them out. One day a great flock of storks appeared, and they were the saviors of the place. In recognition of this deliverance from the pest, which occurred on February 2, the day has been kept sacred and is known as "Stork Day." An appointed official known as the "Stork Father" parades the streets, followed by as many children as care to join the procession. He wears his "Sunday clothes" and a high hat, decorated with two stuffed storks. Stops are made by this procession at houses along the line and the children receive gifts of sweet and small coins, every household feeling pleased to show his gratitude to the stork.

Pat Broke the News.

Pat had been delegated by his fellow employees to tell Mrs. Casey the news of her husband's accidental death. On the way to the Casey home, Pat pondered on how to break the news to the widow. Finally he hit on what to him seemed a most humane way of preparing Mrs. Casey for the sad news.

Knowing the violent hatred which Mrs. Casey as well as all loyal Irishmen have for the A. P. A., he said on greeting the woman:

"Ah, Mrs. Casey, it is bad news I have to bring you. Your husband, Mike, has turned an A. P. A."

"Mike turned A. P. A.?" The scoundrel, I hope he is dead."

"He is," answered Pat. Milwaukee Free Press.

Phosphorus of the Sea.

The phosphorescent light that is often seen at sea, sometimes following the ship like a great streak of fire, is caused by a variety of small animals, chiefly crustacea. The globe-like lights often seen at sea in the nighttime are due to the Medusae, or jellyfish. But the most dazzling displays of phosphorescence come from the Pyrosoma, a jelly-like, cylindrical mass, measuring from two to ten inches. These bodies congregate in immense luminous shoals, floating near the surface and sometimes embracing the whole of the visible horizon.

Jane Was Sensitive.

Jane is an athletic girl, and her feet are not of the Cinderella type.

"I see that Sizer, the shoe man, is having a sale," said Jane's mother. "Perhaps you could find something there to suit you."

Jane frowned.

"I certainly shall not enter Sizer's store," she said with such firmness. "And why not?"

CAN YOU GUESS?

When is a sailor not a sailor? When is he aboard?

Why are weary persons like bicycle wheels? Because they are tired.

BROUGHT FORTUNE TO FAMILY.

The Refrigerator Car the Invention of a Cape Cod Yankee.

Constantin Franklin Swift, the first of this commercial dynasty, was a Cape Cod Yankee who bought a steer low and then peddled the meat from the back of a certain go-cart which has since become famous.

He moved to Albany and went deep into meats, discarding one after another partners who had not the foresight and daring which he possessed. He located in Chicago at the beginning of those days of great possibilities in bringing into touch the new west and the older east.

It was he who invented the first refrigerator car. This was the one revolutionary act which put his sons and a few other sons in very fair control of half of the meat of America.

He saw the market for dressed beef extended only after the hardest of fights. All great revolutions are fought against. All the east, all England, all Europe, fought the idea of dressed beef and then accepted it. I doubt if we could do without it now.—Cosmopolitan.

Grief is an Illness.

Grief is an illness and must be treated as such. Sorrow, grief and the emotions caused by all great misfortunes should be regarded as akin to acute physical maladies. Recent medical observations show that the physical results of depressing emotions are similar to those caused by bodily accidents, fatigue, chills, partial starvation and loss of blood. Birds, moles and dogs, which apparently die in consequence of capture and from conditions that correspond in human beings to broken heart, were examined after death as to the conditions of their internal organs. It was found that the nutrition of the tissues had been interfered with, and the substance proper of various vital organs had undergone degeneration.—From the Osteopath.

Plant Savings Banks.

All bull plants have savings banks—storehouses that in fat seasons they fill with substance which in the lean days may be drawn upon.

The leaf-buds on the bare winter branches of plants are savings banks full of the plant currency called starch. This currency, accumulated in the easy summer, makes life through the hard winter endurable.

Some plants—the beet, carrot and turnip—run particularly fine savings banks called tap roots. These plants have turned economy to parsimony. They are misers. Their banks, or tap roots, are bigger and finer than their selves.

Hence their destruction. Man eats them. Or rather he eats their savings, their best part.

Scraping Along on $50,000.

We have heard it laid down by a thoughtful man, and a Scotchman to boot, that the most impossible of all positions is that of a man who has a wife and a large family and but a thousand pounds a year to keep up an appearance on.

Why not, for variation's sake, discuss the question as to what a man can manage to cut anything of a figure on? It was laid down by a former member for Sheffield that it was absolutely impossible to make any real show in public life with an income under ten thousand ($50,000) a year.—London Saturday Review.

Woman's Rights.

"Madam, do you believe in woman's rights?" asked the man standing in the car.

"I do," she replied shortly.

"Excuse me," he went on. "I am but an ignorant male seeking light. May I ask you if you construe these rights to include the privilege of spreading your really becoming skirts over three seats?"

Thereupon she condensed herself, he took a seat and conversation flagged.

Make Your Newspaper Advertising Profitable

Newspaper advertising costs too much for experimenting. It is mistaken economy to try it today and stop it tomorrow. The wheels of business should never stop and the whole machine is out of gear unless the big advertising wheel is always turning. A constant ad works all the time and charges no overtime.

You'll admit that the newspaper is the greatest medium of advertising, and if "any old kind" of advertising pays haven't you every reason to believe that with the attention of specialists your advertising would prove much more profitable. Advertising is our business—we know how to analyse your goods, to pick out their strong selling points, we understand the class of people you are catering to, then we prepared the advertising in an interesting "catchy" way that will beget confidence. With all we give the printer a design to follow—showing how to lay out the ads so that they will "stand out" from other ads—that will be attractive. The same as an architect gives plans for a building.

This service is a combination of newspapers and advertising specialists—the strongest forces known today in the mercantile world.

And, then, the very fact of our carrying a large list of clients enables us to quote merchants prices that would not permit them to even waste their time if they were specialists in advertising.

No advertising or printed matter too large or small to receive our attention—when you think of advertising, think of us. We'll take pleasure in quoting prices. Phone 123.
