In Choosing A Fur Coat, Consider The Reputation of Your Furrier

Consider It First—you may hear many extravagant claims and conflicting statements about furs. In the face of these even the experienced buyer needs a guide to true fur coat value—in Charlottetown that guide is Island Furriers. Since the founding of our business we have set the standard for quality. Since the founding of our business we have made it our creed, to tell the truth about furs—Select your fur coat during Island Furriers' tremendous August Fur Sale, serving in the knowledge that you are making a judicious investment in quality beauty and service.

*MISSION AT MONTAGUE—Rev. George Bradley and Rev. Richard Johnston of Montreal are conducting a very successful mission at St. Mary's Church, Montague, St. James Church, Georgetown, next Sunday, August 14. Each morning two masses are held, one at 6.30 and the other at 7.30, at the end of which very important spiritual instructions are given. The mission for the children is held at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. and is conducted by Rev. Richard Johnston, followed by a very impressive sermon by Rev. George Bradley. The evening service is concluded by benediction. The number of persons attending the mission is very large.

*FAMILY OF MASONS—One of the grand events in the history of Tujunga Lodge was witnessed on the night of June 13th. On that night Brother Harry H. Fraser, dean of our Past Masters, was given the privilege of conferring the First Degree of Masonry on his only son. It was truly an inspiring sight and the second time in the history of Tujunga Lodge that a father was given the honor and privilege of conferring a Masonic degree on his son. Brother Fred Bate was accorded that privilege in 1935. The above is a clipping from the Tujunga Bulletin July, 1938. Tujunga Lodge No. 592 P. and A.M., Tujunga, California, and was received by Mr. J. E. Fraser, Montague. He and Mr. W. J. Fraser are brother of Past Master H. H. Fraser mentioned above and all three are sons of the late Charles B. Fraser, Past Master of Saint Andrews Lodge No. 13 A.F. and A.M., Montague, P. E. Island, one of Montague's grand old gentlemen.

PERSONALS

*Mrs. Allbright of Wollaston, Mass. is visiting friends in Montague and at present is the guest of Mr. Alex and Miss Emily Campbell.

*Mr. G. A. Poole and Mr. G.H. Poole, Lower Montague, Mr. George Moore, Charlottetown, and Mr. W. Graham of Murray Harbour, left on the S.S. Surf Wednesday on a trip to Sydney.

*Mr. Kier Clark, Mr. M. Reynolds, Mr. Carl Stewart, and Mr. Alfred Guest, all of Montague, returned from a most enjoyable holiday through Nova Scotia and Cape Breton, passing over the beautiful Cabot Trail.
