Big Clearance Auction Sale AT ROCKY POINT On Monday, October 16th, 1922 At One O'clock, Sharp Of Beautiful Farm, Stock, Crop and Farm Implements:

FOR SALE I offer for immediate sale my interest in the firm of Auld and Walker, Freetown Station, consisting of general store and tailoring establishment. Also my house and lot. House contains ten rooms with bathroom and furnace heated, barn and outbuildings all in excellent repair.

Thoroughly alarmed by Violet's cry, I hurried down the pathetic, ridiculous passage James had cut through the hay to his retreat. I went through the door, and into the dark room. Jim said he had "smashed it" what he meant I could not tell. But I saw now, even in the faint light that the engine had been torn or thrown down, and that tools wheels and straps and other pieces of all the things James worked with, were lying all over the place.

"In just a moment, my General" yawned the impudent careless voice from the roof. "Too busy for now."

him and Innocencio obligingly leaned against the fire place and opened the imposing document. Then he burst out laughing. "Why you laugh?" demanded Aguilera.

There is a power and reliability in herbal medicines that never belong to mineral drugs. The curative power of herbal remedies, too, does not wear off with constant use, as is the general rule with mineral compounds.

BACK TO THE MINERAL AGE. In the age that followed, the people of Europe fell back on artificial salves and ointments composed of mineral oxides of lead, zinc, bismuth and other deleterious metals, without thought of the great damage which these unnatural compounds undoubtedly did to the delicate under-skin.

CHAPTER IV. Capt. Innocencio smiled sweetly benignly at the blazing features of Gen. Aguilera. For one electric moment the two adversaries stood like two embattled tomatos with every muscle taut. It required the last atom of old Farley's will power to keep him from shouting "Stop!" Had he or anyone else made a sound or move, two automatic pistols, at point blank range would have barked death.
