At the home of Mrs. McLeod, Long River, the marriage of her daughter, Miss Rachel McLeod, to Chas. E. McKay, one of Park Corner's most popular young men, took place last evening at 8 p. m. Rev. A. D. Sterling, brother-in-law of the bride, officiating.

The Colonial Stock Company was never seen to better advantage than in their fine play of last evening entitled The Two Orphans. The story is familiar to most Guardian readers and to say that the Colonial Stock Company presented it in a first-class manner is merely stating a fact. To appreciate the fine acting one would have to see the play which was full of strong and stirring situations. The two orphans, Louise and Henriette, the former Miss Crowe and the latter Miss Warren, had parts to perform which only perfectly trained actresses could present in the finished manner in which they did. Madam La Frochard, Miss Revel, had character which she truly personated, while the gentlemen acted their parts strongly and were in excellent form. The pathetic strain throughout the plot was nicely interspersed with comedy, thus relieving the tension. The electrical effects were charming and the scenery, which is new for this engagement, was beautiful and was a fitting background for the clever acting. The company was greeted with a packed house. Tonight they present The Crimson Stain.

A GOOD POSITION

Can be had by ambitious young men and ladies in the field of "Wireless" or Railway telegraphy. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the wireless companies are establishing stations throughout the country there is a great shortage of telegraphers. Positions pay beginners from $70 to $90 per month with good chance to advancement. The National Telegraph Institute operates six official institutions in America, under supervision of R. R. and Wireless Officials and places all graduates into positions. It will pay you to write them for full details at Cincinnati, O., Philadelphia, Pa., Memphis, Tenn., Davenport, Ia., Columbia, S. C. or Portland, Ore., according to where you wish to enter. 9-21436161.
