Sea View and Vicinity

The people of this community were indeed sorry to learn of the passing of Hon. Peter Sinclair.

A most regrettable accident occurred at the skating rink here when the hockey team of French River were playing with the team from Indian River, Pat Stewart, French River in some unaccountable way lost his balance and fell on one of the other players on the face with his skate cutting his face badly. He was at once taken to a nearby house where first aid was given and afterwards received medical attention.

The rink at Sea View has been kept at full swing during the past week amid much excitement and enjoyment. On March 10th the rink was filled with hockey fans from far and near to see the Maple Leafs and the Indian River Rovers play a sudden death game the fastest game of the season. The ice was in excellent condition and the two excellent players very evenly matched the game was an exciting one for both old and young. After three fast periods the score was 4-4 and as this game had to be finished they had to play overtime and again the score was 5-5. This meant a second overtime period and a both teams were playing their best the excitement ran high. Finally the Rovers broke away and the defense scored the winning goal for the rovers making it 6-5 in their favor, but both teams deserved much credit for the good brand of hockey they handed out for the fans to enjoy.

On the evening of March 12th Sea View rink had the largest crowd of the season to see the Indian River Rovers and French River Nationals play a sudden death game for second place for the Sea View trophy. The ice was not as good as usual but both teams played a good game. In the first period Nationals right winger had to leave the ice through an accident making the National short-handed. The game ended in favor of the Rovers, score 3-3 with Harold Champion as referee.

The many friends of Mr. David Adams are sorry to learn of his illness.

A host of friends are indeed sorry to learn of the continued illness Mrs. John A. Campbell, Burlington. Mrs. Campbell is at present a patient in Prince County Hospital.

Mr. Aubrey Hiltz received a telegram on Monday conveying the sad news of the passing of his mother at her home St. Martin's. Mr. Hiltz left the same day to be present at the funeral. Much sympathy is extended to Mr. Hiltz family in their bereavement.

The March meeting of the Sea View Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Edwin Donald on Wednesday evening. President presided and opened the meeting with the Ode and Creed. Roll call was answered by the members remaining their favorite flower. The president welcomed several visitors. Sick committee reported visiting two sick members and donating fruit for which kind thanks had been conveyed. Secretary read correspondence and the business items were discussed. Committee reported on final preparation for the concert being made, concert to be held on the 15th. The questionnaire on Agriculture was discussed and filled out by the convener, Mrs. Charles Duggan. The program then entertained with an Ice Contest this was interesting and Mr. Margaret Blackney received first prize. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close after which a bountiful lunch was served by the hosts assisted by Mrs. Fred W. MacDonald.

Miss Gerlie Adams and Mrs. Alwood Blackney have returned to their homes in Sea View after spending a few days pleasantly with friends in Charlottetown.

Mrs. William Cousins, Baltic is spending a pleasant visit with friends in Charlottetown.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dickieson New Glasgow were recent visitors to Sea View the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Donald.

The Willing Workers Mission Band of Darnley and Sea View met at the home of Evelyn Donald for the March meeting on Saturday afternoon. Owing to various reasons the meeting was a small one. President Jean McKay presided and led the devotional period. An interesting talk on the life of David was given by a visitor who was present. This was greatly appreciated by the members. Several of the members also gave lessons from the life of David. Plans were made for holding an Easter Service at a later date. Sentences, Prayers and closing hymn brought this meeting to a close after which tea was served to all present by the hostess.

A pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the parsonage at Malpeque on Thursday by Rev. Mr. Thomas when Anna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Burns, Baltic was united in marriage to Keir son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKay, Darnley. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple drove to the home of the bride where tea was served to the immediate friends of the young couple. On the following Monday evening a shower was held at the home of the bride's parents, where this popular young couple were the recipient of many useful and costly gifts of china silverware linen and many other useful articles testifying to the esteem in which the young couple were held by their many friends. A pleasant evening was enjoyed by all and a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. A host of friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. McKay a happy wedded life.

Mr. William Simmons is spending a few days pleasantly with friends in Charlottetown.

Mrs. Ernest Bryenton Malpeque is visiting with friends in Sea View for a few days.

New Type Of Road Surface Increases Visibility Greatly
BOSTON, March 23—(AP)—A new type of road surface that will "increase visibility" very greatly, was reported today at the 17th annual Massachusetts Safety Conference.
Need for some such surface was emphasized by a group of engineers discussing "highway lighting in relation to night accidents." They pointed to mounting automobile fatalities after dark, restrictions on headlights, and expense "proving" the impracticability of enforcing speeds within the limits set by headlights visibility.
C. A. B. Halvorson, of Lynn, Mass., announced that the new type of road surface was developed during an attempt by the research experts to design a surface that would allow drivers to see farther without glare.
The design he finally tested on makes his miniature test road look like one of those pans you put in the oven for hot biscuits. Little "cup" pits the road at intervals of an inch. They are one quarter of an inch deep and half an inch in diameter. Mixed with this indented surface is a substance, such as quartz, which gives a high reflectivity.

Pall-bearers were members of the Order of the American Legion of which the deceased was a member and included Commander Stephen Mason; Clayton Briggs; William Colburn and Fred Carter. Taps were sounded at the grave in the family lot in Pine Hill Cemetery by Herbert Butler with eulogy by Albert Butler. Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Mr. Patrick McGill.

In Memoriam

ANGUS MACLEAN

In the early morning hours of Saturday, March 19th, Mr. Angus MacLean, a highly esteemed resident of Flat River passed peacefully away at his home, at the age of 77 years. He was a member of the Wood Island Presbyterian Church and had been in his usual fairly good condition of health until about six weeks before coming to the end of his life. He had been taken quite suddenly ill. All that medical skill and kind friends could do was done, and for the first few days there seemed to be quite a possibility of his health being restored. But as the time went on, instead of gaining strength, his loved ones began to fear that he was growing gradually weaker. After a few weeks had gone by it became more and more evident that their fears were being realized and that he was slowly but surely sinking. His supply of reserve energy gradually waned until on the above mentioned date his gentle spirit winged its heavenward flight.

Besides a sorrowing widow Mr. MacLean leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father three sons and two daughters. The sons are Alexander MacLean and John A. MacLean, Flat River, and John Malcolm MacLean, Culloden; and the daughters are Mrs. Alexander Beaton, Flat River, and Mrs. Thomas MacPherson, Culloden. All are feeling their father's loss very keenly.

Besides the sons and daughters who now survive their father, one son, Malcolm, who was a Culloden member of the family, died quite a number of years ago at the age of two years, and a daughter Margaret Jane, passed away in 1910 at the age of twenty-two years. The deceased was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander MacLean, Culloden, and here on the island lived until about eight years ago when he moved to Flat River near the homes of two of his sons and one of his daughters.

Mr. MacLean was one of a family of three brothers, two brothers, Angus and John Malcolm, and one sister, Mary John Malcolm, died at the age of five years, and Mary while spending some time in Boston was taken ill and later, after having returned, passed away at her old home thirty years ago.

Mr. MacLean was a man who was widely known and was held in the highest esteem by all. His integrity, his great-heartedness and his sterling worth were indeed outstanding. From the years of his early manhood he took a deep interest in all that was most worth while, and all through his long life he was one of the men who always could be counted upon to stand four-square for whatever was the best and noblest in life. For fifty-two years he was a loyal and devoted member in the Wood Island Presbyterian Church and for over twenty years he was the very efficient treasurer of the church. He always took a deep interest in the welfare of the young, and for forty years he was the Superintendent of the Sunday School near his old home in Culloden.

In the different spheres of activity in the business world he was always very active and from time to time he filled responsible positions of various kinds. He was much missed in all of these different departments of life, and it is feared that his place can never be filled.

This is especially true in regard to his work in the realm of things religious. The church whose work was so dear to him is now trying to find a great man such as he was to fill the various positions made vacant by his death. The call is being sounded out to all who remain. But while he shall thus be missed in the outside world it is in the home that his loss will be felt most keenly. Here his loved ones will often sigh for the touch of a vanished hand, and for the sound of a voice that is stilled.

But all in vain. Never more shall the touch of that hand be felt, nor the sound of that voice be heard by the friends on earth. No, he has gone on forever, into that bourne from which no traveler ever returns. And knowing that he has now passed away beyond all suffering and care, none would be so unkind as to wish this unbound spirit back into bonds again.

His life's work was well done, and he now rests from all his labors. He has indeed fought a good fight, he has kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up in heaven for him a crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give him, and not to him only, but to all who love His appearing.

His passing was one of deep peace. The funeral, which was largely attended, even in spite of the very cold weather, was held at

Mr. MacLean's home, Flat River, on the afternoon of Monday Feb. 21st. The service was conducted by Rev. R. Hensley Stewart and was a very impressive one throughout. The favorite hymns of the departed "Take Comfort, Christians," "Safe in the Arms of Jesus" and "Asleep in Jesus" were beautifully rendered.

The pall bearers were Messrs. John Robert Ross, Malcolm F. Beaton, D. J. Riley, Alexander Stewart, Callum MacPherson, William D. MacKenzie.

Interment was in the Belfast Cemetery.

ST PATRICK SCHOOL

On St. Patrick's evening over one hundred people gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Toombs, Rustico, and enjoyed a social evening sponsored by the Anglo Rustico Women's Institute. After the program, the serving of lunch was brought to a close by the singing of Auld Lang Syne.

A vote of thanks was moved by Mrs. Walter Buntain, seconded by Mrs. Charles Houston, and conveyed by the president, Mrs. James Stevenson, to Mr. and Mrs. Toombs for the use of their house and to all others who had helped to make the entertainment a success.

Mr. James Stevenson acted as chairman. The following is the program:

NEW DELHI, India, March 23—Opposition parties in the central legislative assembly have decided not to participate in the budget debate. Bhubhai Desai, leader of the opposition, explained this action was taken because the government of India decided to discuss this year the practice of submitting to the vote of the assembly a portion of the expenditure on defence and external affairs.

Desai said the assembly has debated these subjects since 1924 and for the last three years by a large majority has carried motions protesting cuts. He contended also that when federation, as laid down in the new government of India Act, comes into force, the assembly will have no vote on these subjects, but the budget will carry the approval of the prime minister and finance minister.
