—KENSINGTON - WELLINGTON HOCKEY SPECIAL—That hockey is becoming more popular every day was evidenced in no uncertain manner by the number of people entrained at Kensington on Tuesday night to witness the Kensington-Wellington game and incidentally inspect the fine new rink at Wellington. Notwithstanding the fact that the "special" was announced only a few hours before starting time, sixty tickets were sold at Kensington. Many passengers got on at Summerside, Miscouche and St. Nicholas, till the number reached one hundred and fifty. It is proposed to run a special from Wellington to Kensington when the big double-header, Kensington vs Wellington and Holman's vs C. Y. M. L. takes place.—K.

—KENSINGTON DAIRYING ASSOCIATION—The Annual Meeting of the Kensington Dairying Association took place in the King George Hall on Tuesday, Jan. 20th at 2 P. M. President W. L. Johnson presiding. The attendance was fairly good. The President in his opening address said that the year 1930 was not encouraging to the dairy industry so far as prices realized for both butter and cheese were concerned. The unemployment situation, the heavy shipments of New Zealand cheese on the British markets were main factors for such conditions. The Dairy Industry however did not suffer nearly as much as other industries, which have experienced heavy losses on small profits. The situation to-day demands greater cooperation on the part of patrons and thus lower the cost of operating the plant. The Secretary reported the manufacture of 110191 lbs. cheese which netted the patrons 25.5 cts per lb. butter fat, also the manufacture of 39444 lbs. butter which netted about 36 cts per lb. butter fat.

Man Injured in Back; Shoulder Was Hurt
"That stab like pain hit me in the back one day, and I knew I had strained my back," writes S. E. Coulture from Colon. "At Espinosa's drug store they urged me to use Nerviline. I am glad I did so, because with Nerviline I rubbed all the soreness out of my back and shoulder joint. There is wonderful relief for muscular pain in Nerviline. It drives away rheumatism, takes the stiffness out of sore joints. It's fine for strains, sprains and stiffness. For coughs, hoarseness and sore chest Nerviline is a boon to the entire family. Dairy Produce Grader F. T. Morrow who was present spoke favorably of the quality of our butter and cheese for 1930. He commended the work of all officials under such unfavorable conditions, but felt that matters would soon readjust themselves. In the discussion that followed by the patrons many valuable suggestions were made relative to the management for the coming season. The following Board of Directors were appointed for the ensuing year: President W. L. Johnson, Vice Pres. John Simpson, James Pendergast, William Caseley, Wesley Heaney, J. P. Donald and Percy McGougan. On motion it was unanimously agreed to call a meeting of the patrons early in the season to decide on the operations of either butter or cheese. After a standing vote of thanks was passed and tendered to the board of directors and secretary and also to Mr. F. T. Morrow Dairy Grader for his attendance and assistance during the past year a splendid and harmonious meeting was brought to a close.

Jones, who aspired to be a senator, was scheduled to speak one night in a small village, and being desirous of finding out the religious faith of his audience, addressed them in the following manner:
"My great grandfather was an Episcopalian (stony silence), but my great grandmother belonged to the Presbyterian Church (continued silence). My grandfather was a Baptist (more silence), but my grandmother was a Congregationalist (frigid silence). But I had a grand-aunt who was a Methodist (loud applause)—and I have always followed my great aunt."

BRINGING UP FATHER

Y. BASKETBALL
Once Banker
Now Captain
Commanded by a man, who but seven years ago was a bank official without knowledge of the sea, the handsome white-painted steamship Lady Hawkins of the Canadian National Steamships' fleet docked at Commonwealth Pier, South Boston, yesterday from Halifax, N. S. picked up 100 passengers and later proceeded to ports in the West Indies. The man whose life was transformed in this brief period is Captain Ewen H. Cameron of Charlottetown, P. E. I., who in 1923 was manager of the bank of Nova Scotia and a leading financier in the province with not the remotest idea of embarking on a seafaring career.
His health failing under the stress of his duties, Cameron on advice of his physicians, made an ocean voyage, which not only benefited him, but created within him the desire to devote his life following the sea. Cutting away from all his shore connections and leaving behind a promising career in the banking world, he started as a seaman, scrubbing decks and doing other menial tasks. Ambitious and determined to get to the top, as he had done when ashore, he forged steadily ahead, and in an amazingly short time achieved his captaincy, the goal for which he had strived. Captain Cameron is today regarded as one of the ablest navigators in the company's roster of commanders.

IN MEMORIAM
MR. PETER WHELAN
On December 31, 1930, numerous friends and acquaintances learned with profound sorrow that the long life of Peter Whelan of Kildare Lot 3, had come to a calm and peaceful close with the closing year after an illness of only one week's duration.
The late Mr Whelan, although having reached his 97th year maintained unusually bright mental faculties to the last. He could converse on any of the topics of the day with more than ordinary intelligence, while his accounts of the days of pioneer life were so interesting as to make his company sought and enjoyed by young and old. His sunny temper quiet wit and hospitable manner endeared him to all hearts and many are those who now long for the touch of a vanished hand and the sound of a voice that is still.
His long life was a record of self-sacrificing friendship to his fellow-man, unswerving loyalty to his country and above all, most edifying devotion and fidelity to his God.
There are left to mourn their irreparable loss two sons, Alphonus of Pawtucket, Rhode Island, and Aeneas at home, and two daughters Sister Adeline of St. Paul Minnesota, and Mrs Austin O'Brien of Southport, P. E. I.
The funeral which was largely attended was held to Sacred Heart Church, Charlottetown on January the second. The pall bearers were, Messrs Moses Foley, Anthony McIntyre, Peter Cahill, Herman Cahill, Frank Whelan and Jerome Gillis.
After Requiem Mass sung by the Pastor, Rev T. Campbell the remains were tenderly laid to rest in the family plot beside his wife who predeceased him fourteen years ago.
When the last solemn words were pronounced the grave hid forever from earthly view, the form of one whose place cannot be filled one of the great hearts of the by gone days, a friend tried and true a noble example to true christian manhood the best gift that life can give and death can take away. Malpeque
The passing of Mrs Robert Thomas Donald Ballie, Lot 18, removes from this community one of its leading residents and severs another link that binds the past and the present in the history of our countryside. Mrs Donald was in her eighty-seventh year and during this long period enjoyed a full measure of health. It was only within the past two years that she was known to suffer from occasional attacks of weakness due to her advanced years. However about a month ago her illness became such a serious nature that it was realized that the end was near and at 5.30 p. m. on Friday January 23rd, she fell asleep like a weary traveller after a long journey.
Mrs Donald was the daughter of the late Mr and Mrs Alexander Murray of Bedouque but at the age of nine she came to Malpeque where she resided at the home of her uncle and aunt the late Mr and Mrs Daniel Woodside until her marriage with Mr R. T. Donald a citizen whose sterling worth is still remembered in this community.
After forty years of wedded life Mr Donald predeceased his wife about twenty-six years ago.
Mrs Donald was a woman of strong intellect and force of character and took an active interest in church and social activities in connection with the church life. She was especially interested in the auxiliary of the W. M. Society of which she was an active member. But it was, however, as a wife and mother that she filled a large place, and her hospitality was her special characteristic.
At her bedside Mrs Donald had the satisfaction of being surrounded by her two daughters Mrs Nelson Ramsay of Alberton and Miss Clara Donald also five of her sons namely, William A. Donald, Malpeque, James H. Donald and Melville Donald of Baltic, Leslie Donald of Halifax and Dr. Stanley Donald of Moncton. To all of these the sympathy of this community is extended.
Mr and Mrs Hubert Agnew of Wilmot Valley were guests on Sunday at Mrs Agnew's parents Mr and Mrs Sinclair MacGougan.
Mr and Mrs W. A. Woodside and daughter Miss Arla Woodside are who predeceased her two years ago.
