THE death occurred at Fredericton, N. B., on Thursday evening, of Mrs. Lemont, mother of Messrs. William and Martin Lemont, who are well known here, and grandmother of Mrs. A. S. Johnson, Charlottetown. Mrs. Lemont was taken ill with pneumonia a few days ago, but previous to this she had always enjoyed good health and had reached an old age.

TOMORROW is children's day in Grace Church and the children of the Sabbath School will assist at both services. The sermon to the children in the morning will be from the theme, "God questioning the children." At night the tenth sermon in the course of women of the Bible will be preached on "Ruth, or decision of character," a sermon to young people. The choir will be assisted by a number of children with some choice and appropriate music.

BAY FORTUNE NOTES.—Mr. Stanley Aitken, student in Mr. Moody's Theological School at Northfield, arrived home recently, being unable to continue his studies on account of ill health. He intends to remain here until the college re-opens next fall.—We regret to report the serious illness of Mrs. Joseph H. Dingwell.—The grip is prevalent in this community in common with others. One of the oldest residents has fallen a victim to its ravages. Phebe Coffin, relict of the late James Coffin. Possessed of many of the graces that adorn womanhood, she continued till the end a model of truth and virtue.—Mr. Henry Dingwell has recently purchased the farms formerly occupied by Ephraim McCallum and John McKie. As these two farms are side by side, and conveniently situated for market, wood, etc., the purchaser may be considered lucky.—Mrs. Charles Aitken has recovered from her recent severe attack of pneumonia.—Mr. C. P. Flockton intends to bring a number of his fellow actors with him next summer, by whose help he will produce his new play "Hager and Ishmael," in the different villages throughout King's County. Mr. Flockton owns the historic "Abel's Cape," a farm which for beauty of situation is un-rivalled by no other spot of ground on the Island. Commanding an excellent view of the deeply indented coast for miles around, the gently undulating country and the picturesque Fortune river, the "Cape" farm has more than an ordinary value.

The words of praise bestowed upon Hood's Sarsaparilla by those who have taken it prove the merit of the medicine.
