 DUE TO DELAYED ARRIVAL OF PART OF AIR CONDITIONING EQUIPMENT — IT IS NECESSARY TO DEFER PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED OPENING A DAY OR TWO.

A Personal Announcement

The writer can look in retrospect over twenty years of Charlottetown Motion Picture activities, during which period vast and world-wide changes and improvements have been effected.

It has always been my thought during these years to accept seriously my responsibilities in respect to my Charlottetown theatres, and to keep the Island Capital well served with that popular type of entertainment, which has now become universally accepted as a public necessity.

My faith in the future of Charlottetown is evidenced by large capital expenditures, as instanced by building the Capitol, continual expenditure in the Prince Edward, culminating in using what represented practically only the walls of the old Prince Edward, to build a new theatre.

It has been my ambition to create in the Prince Edward what our patrons and all citizens might regard as a real asset to Charlottetown, and I trust that the consensus of opinion on the opening night will be to the effect that I have been successful to that end.

The opportunity to provide for Charlottetown a place of amusement such as the new Prince Edward is indeed a much appreciated privilege, and the fact that circumstances over which I have no control will prevent my being present at the premiere is indeed to the writer a very great disappointment.

WINS AWARD—Saturday morning Mr. Phillip S. Cobb, sales manager of Carvell Bros. Ltd., received a notice from the Ceylon Tea Co., that he was the winner of a silver-plated tea service, as the tea taster's award for the best answers in their recent competition, opened to the Maritimes. For some time before the examination Mr. Cobb took a course, studying production, manufacturing and merchandising. A number of questions were then sent by mail and Mr. Cobb was gratified to receive the award.

The announcement that in competition with many experienced and much older tea men in the Maritimes, he captured first place. In addition to the tea service Mr. Cobb will also receive a certificate.

BACK TO WORK—A carpenter's strike for 10 cents more an hour, delayed work on the Prince Edward Theatre over the week-end. The workmen, however, employed by Mr. G. Rodd, returned to work early this morning, beginning work shortly after midnight. The strike is being held in connection with the opening scheduled for Thursday, Mr. Ed. Landry, spokesman for the men, approached the Truro contractor Saturday with the demanded wage increase, but Mr. Kenny would not negotiate with the men until this morning the men are busy putting final touches to the remodelled theatre, which has been closed for three months. The dispute is still unsettled, however, Mr. E. J. Johns, engineer from Sackville, N.S., has arrived to install the air conditioning equipment.

THREE FIRES OVER WEEK-END—A thirty-seven day respite from fire in Charlottetown was brought to an abrupt end when the firemen were called for three fires over the week-end. The first alarm was at 9:30 Saturday morning for a blaze on the roof of a double-tenement house at the corner of Union and King Streets. The chemical and hose wagon responded and on reaching the scene it was found that the fire was from the Hook and Ladder truck. Considerable chopping was necessary, but the blaze was extinguished with little damage. The building is owned by Mr. James O'Neil, and occupied by Messrs. James Hughes and A. Messrs. The next alarm at 12:30 p. m. Saturday was for a fire on Water Street. It was a roof blaze, which was extinguished without a hose line being laid. Little damage was done. Last night at 10:10 p. m. the firemen were again called for a fire in Mr. V. C. Smallwood's radio repair shop, North River Road. Two lines of hose were laid and a quantity of water used before the blaze was extinguished. The interior of the shop was considerably scorched. The equipment was out about half an hour.

ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA
 Yesterday "Passion Sunday" was observed as Holy Name Sunday. All masses were at the usual hours, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 o'clock. The Mass of the Holy Name Society was celebrated

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES' CHURCH

In accordance with the custom of the Presbyterian Church, solemn pre-Communion services were held at both diets of worship in Saint James Church, on Wednesday. The Holy Year was read at all the Masses by the Minister, the Rev. R. Moorhead Legate. There were large congregations. At the morning service the soloist was Mr. Raoul Raymond and in the evening Miss Oulton.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

Large numbers were present at all services yesterday. In the morning the Married Women of the Holy Name Society received Holy Communion in a body at the 7.30 Mass. The children's Mass was at 9 o'clock and at 10.30 High Mass was celebrated by Rev. C. O'Hara, C.S.S.R. A letter of His Excellency, Bishop J. A. O'Sullivan was read at all the Masses by Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R. Sunday School was held for all the children in the afternoon.

At the evening service, Rev. R. I. McKenna, C.S.S.R., continued his series of Lenten sermons on "Characters of the Passion," and preached a very powerful and eloquent sermon on "Peter." Previous to the sermon congregational prayer was recited by the choir. The Perpetual Holy Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R., after which veneration of the picture of Our Mother of Perpetual Help took place. The singing was rendered by the mixed choir.

SACRED SONG SERVICE

The young people's service in connection with the Y. M. C. A. and S. C. M. was held in Hearts Memorial Hall at half past eight last evening. Mr. Fred Large was chairman and the Scripture Lesson was read by Mr. Neil Price.

The young people's associated choir led the singing and rendered as a special selection, the Negro Spiritual, "Lead Me On, Jesus."

Rev. Hugh Miller addressed the meeting and based his discourse on Criticism of the Church. He pointed out that there are two things which are essential to the kinds of criticism, desiring over the constructive, and passing over the destructive.

The speaker showed that the church was of Divine origin, identified in its aims, acceptable in its teachings, and remarkably successful in the accomplishment of its effect upon the world.

The chairman announced that the Sacred Song Service for next Sunday would be under the direction of the S. C. M. and it is to be held in Zion Presbyterian Church, at the usual hour, half past eight.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service yesterday, Dr. Vincent, speaking on "A Lamentable Fact," and taking as his text the words of John 8:12, "I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." The speaker mentioned to put me in the water is troubled, the fact that the story of the man who for thirty eight years had been suffering from disease, might perhaps be considered as in a degree a picture of an ignoble creature.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH

At the morning service at St. Paul's Church, Reverend Mr. Raymond in addressing the younger members of the congregation explained the meaning of the name "April" and why such name was given to the present month.

Taking as his text the Epistle to the Hebrews 9:14, "How much more shall the blood of Christ who through the Eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God." The Rector pointed out that this Epistle is not easily understood for it was written for a class of Christians who at that time were very well informed in Christian doctrine and principles, consequently it is beyond the understanding of the present day Christians who have not had such opportunities as the Hebrews.

The Gospel was written to build up and strengthen the Hebrews in the Christian faith so that they would not slip back and become careless. It was a challenge to the Christian of centuries ago and it is a challenge to the Christian of today. Mr. Raymond went on to explain, Religion must reveal itself in our daily lives if Christ is to be within us. In the merits of His blood and cross can we obtain the salvation that God has created for us.

During the offertory Mrs. Francis Trainor and Mr. Williams sang very acceptably as a duet. "The Lord is my Light" was followed by a celebration of the Holy Communion.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

The robins are here. The flowers are becoming more beautiful (as witness those in church yesterday). Easter is near at hand, all of which assure us that Spring is "just around the corner."

It is announced that there will be a series of pre-Easter services starting next Wednesday night, when Rev. Henry Pierce, B.A., will lead in meditation on the last seven words spoken by Jesus on the Cross. Rev. J. M. McLeod, B.A., will deliver the message on Thursday evening and the services which will be of special interest will continue up to and including Good Friday. Knowing the ted at 8.00 o'clock in the Upper Church by His Excellency, J. A. O'Sullivan, while at the same hour the Children's Mass was celebrated in the Lower Church. Bishop O'Sullivan in the course of his sermon reminded the congregation that the Holy Year closes on Low Sunday, and that only three weeks remain for the gaining of the Indulgences. He also called upon the faithful to pray for peace which is the expressed hope of the Holy Father that the faithful in the world participate in prayer for peace.

There was a very large attendance of Holy Name members, who received Holy Communion in a body during Mass congregational singing took place.

At 11 o'clock, Solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. John Sullivan, with Rev. Eugene Murray deacon, Rev. Earl Dalton, Sub-deacon. His Excellency the Bishop vested in "Cappa Magna" officiated at the throne, assisted by Rev. Dr. Gillis and Rev. Louis Dougan.

Rev. Dr. McMahon preached a most impressive and instructive sermon on "What the Forty Hours' Devotion mean to the faithful." Today in this parish, Father McMahon said, will mark the beginning of the Forty Hours' devotion, when our hearts will be solemnly exposed on the Altar of this Church for the Forty Hours' devotion. Days set apart to pay special honor, love and devotion to our Blessed Lord Jesus in the Eucharist, and if we would reap the full benefit from those days, we must try and increase in our hearts the love of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Only the loving Heart of God could give us a man that great mark of His love, the Blessed Eucharist, which is the center of our faith, thus the reason for the Forty Hours' devotion to bring the hearts of men closer to God. He referred to the hundreds of men of the Holy Name Society, who showed their love to Jesus at the 8.00 o'clock Mass, when they received their God in their hearts.

At the end of Mass, the Blessed Sacrament was exposed and carried in procession by His Excellency, the Bishop, who solemnly opened the Forty Hours' devotion. The Male Choir, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown rendered the singing.

In the afternoon Sunday School classes were held.

The evening devotion at seven o'clock consisted of Rosary, sermon and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. The Basilica was filled to capacity. The sermon, which was delivered by Rev. Arthur Kelly, C.S.S.R., was most inspiring and fitting for the occasion of the Forty Hours. Father Kelly took as his text the words of our Divine Redeemer Himself: "Come ye that are burdened and ye that labor and I will refresh you."

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was given by Father Dalton. The singing was specially rendered by the Corpus Christi Choir, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown. Miss Bessie Blanchard was organist.

At the morning service at St. Paul's Church, Reverend Mr. Raymond in addressing the younger members of the congregation explained the meaning of the name "April" and why such name was given to the present month.

loyalty of our membership and their co-operating spirit in every movement to promote righteousness gives assurance that these special services will be largely attended and be a source of inspiration and power to our people.

The Cross of Jesus is the all predominating theme as we again commemorate the events leading to Calvary. "There is nothing in all the world comparable with the Cross of Christ. If Christ fails there is no hope for humanity," so declared Rev. Hugh Miller at the morning service yesterday when he put the pointed question: "What shall we do with Him?" The subject was "Watching the Cross." The text: Matt. 27:36: "And sitting down they watched Him there." This quotation refers to the soldiers who were present in the performance of their duty. They recognized that Jesus was different. One of them declared his conviction that he was the Son of God. This is significant. They must also have been impressed by His resignation, His courage, His faith, His thought for others as He prayed "Lord forgive them," and as He said to the penitent thief: "Today shalt thou be with Me in paradise." This is the love that will not let us go. The Cross is love's supreme sacrifice.

At the evening service Rev. Hugh Miller spoke from the text in Matthew, 16:23: "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me." This was a continuation of his Lenten addresses in which he discussed "What the Cross means to us," "Why the Cross requires of us," finally asserting that we can only sing with sincerity and truth, in the Cross of Christ I glory when we realize and experience its transforming power. Rev. J. W. Barbour, assisting power, rendered two finely rendered solos, one by Miss Doris Tait in the morning, the other by Miss Alice Coffin at night, also selections by the Choir, under the direction of Professor Kendall. Next Sunday being Palm Sunday, the Choir will render a Cantata at the close of the evening service.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the morning service, Mrs. Milton Stewart sang with fine effect the Gospel Song: "I Will Never Grow Old." The subject of the sermon was: "He Emptied Himself," in which some of the human affections were discussed and the means by which one might rid himself of these affections of mind, altruism, love and cultivate likemindedness, lowliness and kindness. Kindly consideration and the other virtues which characterized the life of Our Lord.

The subject of the evening was "The Letter Killeth, but the Spirit Giveth Life," and was in the nature of an exposition of the third chapter of Second Corinthians. During the course of his remarks, the speaker pointed out that the primary duty of a minister of the Gospel is not indoctrination in theologies, ceremonies, and rituals, but the impartation of the Spirit of God. In this connection, Christianity was pointed out and was said to be responsible for its lack of influence.

The choir sang Stainer's "God So Loved The World."

CAMBRIDGE CREW FLASH TO BRILLIANT WIN

With a daring coxswain getting the utmost out of their superb oarsmanship, the Cambridge eight on Saturday defeated Oxford by 4½ lengths in the 87th varsity boat race, rolling up the 12th successive victory for the Cantabs. This is three more races than any previous string of successes.

Cantabs Chalk Up 12th Successive Victory Over Oxford Rivals.

(By Guardian's Special Wire)
 PUTNEY-CR., ENGLAND, April 7.—Still the underdog, Oxford faces another year's wait in her long attempt to wrest rowing supremacy from her classic rival, Cambridge University.

For a considerable distance from the finish line there was only one crew in the race, the Cambridge men racing along easily directly in front of the laboring Oxonians. They finished unchallenged in 18 minutes 48 seconds, much slower than their own record of 18:03 set last year.

Glorious sunshine favored the renewal of the historic contest started by topnotched and bewhiskered undergrads in the Thames. Hundreds of thousands lined both banks of the winding course. The usual cluster of launches and sightseeing craft followed the racing shells. Traffic was so heavy that the river police had to send for special reinforcements.
