HOME GIFTS ARE MUCH APPRECIATED

Mrs. (Dr.) Bagnall, President of the 8th Siege Battery, auxiliary has received the following letter from Mr. P. A. McLellan, of the 8th Siege Battery, formerly of Red Point, P.E.I.

Dear Friend—You will not detect the writer by the writing, neither will you recognize the name, I suppose, but I feel I should write you a few lines thanking you so very, very much for the beautiful repast we have all indulged in, not very long ago, through your kindness.

Today is a happy day, following a happier night, for the boys of the "Happy Eighth," originally "Happy Fifth," (you know we have lost the "Fifth" but we still retain the "Happy") for on last night the source of our happiness, eats and smokes, was issued.

Each one of us is filled with loving memories of dear old P. E. I., and its people, our people, our friends and our homes, and all they are doing for us. If you could only see the smiles on those faces last night as we paraded from "the Quarters," Sergt. Acorn's stores, some of the lads with caps full, some with mess-tins and more with hats full, I imagine you would be greatly pleased.

The depressed look of hard work and hard luck also, I might say, gradually faded away and gave place to smiles and cheers for P. E. I., for the good old P. E. I. girls and particularly for the ladies of your benevolent society.

"Boys, try this!" and "By gosh, that's good stuff!" and "I'd like to know who made this!" and many other ejaculations were heard throughout the evening before we began to get like, and think of, reporting to M.O. in the morning.

But with all the joy, and with all those pleasant thoughts of home and our dear home people, there still seemed to penetrate through somewhere the gloomy thoughts, for some of us, especially, of the missing faces, faces that we used to gaze upon at other occasions of the same kind.

But with all the joy, and with all those pleasant thoughts of home and our dear home people, there still seemed to penetrate through somewhere the gloomy thoughts, for some of us, especially, of the missing faces, faces that we used to gaze upon at other occasions of the same kind.

They are missed and they are mourned, and especially on occasions like last night.

Now it is nearly time for a conclusion. Although Capt. Bagnall was not present, owing to the fortunes of war, in fact all our officers absent, we thoroughly enjoyed the good stuff and, as boys, we shall all look forward with great hopes and a good round stomach for the next shower of your generosity.

There is one thing more I must say. I would like to know the one who made the ——. I don't know the name of it, but it was some kind of, I'd say "Fruit Chocolate," or "Fruit Fudge" or something. Candy with peanuts, raisins, etc., all mixed. I would like more.

Good-bye for now, Yours gratefully, P. A. McLELLAN, No. 8th. (Patrol please copy).

The Charge. The man stammered painfully as he stood in the dock at the police court. His name was Sissons, and it was very difficult for him to pronounce. He had the misfortune to stay out late and make an uproar the previous night, so that he had to account for it before the magistrate next morning.
