—MR. WILLIAM CALLBECK REMEMBERED ON HIS BIRTHDAY — Mr. William Callbeck, well known citizen of Bedeque was very kindly remembered on Sunday on the occasion of his 77th birthday by the pastor and congregation of the Bedeque United Church. Mr. Callbeck who is not at all well at present, was superintendent of the Sunday School for over fifty years and all his life has taken an active part in church work, until ill health forced him to retire from his active duties in the church. In recognition of his faithful service in the Sunday School and church the congregation wished to present him with something that would be a lasting tribute to his work. It was decided to give him an address framed, and surrounding the address was a picture of the church, as well as pictures of the present superintendent of the Sunday School, the choir in their gowns, the interior of the church, the parsonage and pictures of leading members of the church. Long before nine o'clock yesterday morning, fox ranchers were arriving at the Exhibition Grounds with their precious cargoes in cars, trailer and trucks, having heeded the request of Secretary Shaw to be at the Fox Show early. It was well that they did so because "the shades of night were falling fast" so fast that the electric lights had to be turned on to complete or nearly complete the classifications.

Some of the exhibitors were delayed on account of accidents notably the Lowell Hancock display of 44 foxes who struck a broken axle and landed in the ditch. The silver beauties valued at $12,000 escaped injury, however.

—ADDRESSED CONGREGATION AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, S'SIDE — The Right Reverend J. B. Skene, B. A., Minister of the Central Church, Vancouver, B. C., and Moderator of the General Assembly, addressed the congregation of the Summerside Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening. There was a very large congregation. Rev. Wm. Ver Wolfe, pastor, conducted the worship period and the men's choir under the direction of Miss Sue Meadows, organist, led the service of praise. The men's quartette sang a pleasing number. Rt. Rev. Mr. Skene based his sermon on the parable of the Prodigal Son, taken from St. Luke. He used the parable as an illustration of the world today who so lightly values the things of God. Nations today are demanding their rights in this world, forgetting the duties and responsibilities as God's children which we must share, if we are to benefit from the privileges we enjoy. There is no privilege without a duty. The folly of the human race in thinking they can get along without obedience to God's will has brought upon the world the terrible tragedy we are witnessing today. The peoples of the world must resolve to ask forgiveness and repent, asking God to make us worthy of his goodness to us, before we can hope for a lasting peace, based on Christian principles.—S

Joseph O'Brien, 25, of Morell Rear, P. E. I., was drowned last night when his car plunged into six feet of water at Wright's Bridge, three miles from Charlottetown. The man was alone in the coupe. He was proceeding towards this city.

Coroner Dr. I. J. Yeo of Charlottetown ordered an inquest. A jury was impanneled, headed by Byron Brown of Charlottetown and the hearing adjourned until Monday. The jury viewed the body as it lay at a local hospital where it was taken for artificial respiration.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police said apparently the body was in the water almost an hour. It was recovered when the almost submerged car was towed from the water by a tractor.

Apparently O'Brien turned out to pass a car parked on the bridge. The pavement was wet and visability poor. The car continued across the road, went through a light railing and down a 15-foot embankment into the water. The tidal stream is not wide there but the car went into the channel.

Mounted Police said they did not know whether there were eyewitnesses. They were investigating that as well as other phases of the accident.

O'Brien operated a sawmill at Morell Rear, 25 miles from Charlottetown. His father is Michael OBrien. His mother is dead. He is survived by four sisters and a brother.

One sister, Margaret O'Brien was married yesterday morning to a neighbor boy, Francis Fitzgerald.

Police said it was likely the inquest would begin at 8 p. m. Monday. It would probably be held at the court house although that was not certain.

Snow flurries and colder temperatures marked the third day of the Provincial Fox Show at the Exhibition Grounds and as usual interest increased as the show progressed. Over 100 autos were parked around the Main Building yesterday afternoon while the some 400 occupants watched the judging. It was a day fraught with excitement and ushered in by competitions to decide the champions. This meant that only the best foxes, males and females, in the various classes of registered silvers would be on the tables.

Space does not permit giving a description of these foxes but it is sufficient to say they were the cream of the show and therefore champions that would fit in anywhere.

The champion registered silver fox pup of the show was won by Raoul Reymond's Southport 339 V with Gordon McMillan's Cornwall 64 V reserve champion. Mr. Reymond's fox then met the champion adult male and defeated him and so became the champion registered male silver in the show with Gordon McMillan's fox again reserve champion.

The champion female in the show was won by Lowell Hancock's 54 U with A. L. Rogers 9 V reserve champion.

In the competition for Grand Champion Registered Silver Fox in the show between the champion male and female highest honors again went to Raoul Reymond's 339 V with Gordon McMillan's Cornwall 64 V reserve.

The placings of the various groups—senior herd, junior herd, senior get of sire, junior get of sire, etc., etc., are shown elsewhere. These classes are important from a breeders standpoint and the winners were naturally jubilant.

PRIVATE SUCCEEDS CAPTAIN

"Private McGinnis" has been taken "on strength" of the Irish Regiment of Canada succeeding "Captain Kilkenny," deceased. The Toronto Irish demand Irish wolfhounds for Mascots and the fine specimen which left with the troops when they went Eastwards for training died and a recruit was sent to join the battalion. "Private McGinnis' travelled in style first by the "Maple Leaf" and then by the "Maritime Express" of the Canadian National Railways from Toronto to Camp Debert, N.S. As pictured he was being transferred at Montreal after the Canadian National Express had provided proper rations for such a distinguished member of the "other ranks."
