CO-WORKERS IN CHINA MEET AGAIN IN N. S.

SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 26 — (CP) — Two men who worked together in the Chinese co-operative movement and recently met again on the campus of St. Francis Xavier University, Antigonish, N. S., were among the delegates attending the 14th annual convention of the Nova Scotia Credit Union here.

They were Chang Fu-Liang, general secretary of the Chinese Industrial Co-operatives, and Andrew Brad, 32-year-old native of Clydebank, Scotland. Mr. Chang, graduate of Yale in 1913, received his master's degree in agriculture from the University of Georgia in 1927.

Brad went to China in 1941 as one of a group of the society of friends (Quakers) to do ambulance work. He became treasurer of the International Committee of the Chinese Industrial Co-operatives and remained there until last year.

Baxter united in marriage Wanda Claudina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest MacNevin, Ellerslie, and Ralph Leiland, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dickie, New Glasgow. The church was artistically decorated with dahlias, snapdragons and baby's breath. The bride and groom were escorted by Mr. Merrill March, cousin of the groom. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She looked lovely in a floor length white sheer over satin with full skirt, V-neckline and long full sleeves. Her full length veil fell from a matching headpiece with feather trim and
