About Callaghan

The Merchant Tailor

In Charlottetown—on Upper Queen—There works a genial tailor man. His place I'm sure you must have seen.

For twenty years he's at the trade, And never once made a mistake. A thousand overcoats he made For Tory bold, and crafty Grit.

His fame has spread from shore to shore; His suits by every class are worn. This fact is growing more and more—His pants won't rip, and can't be tore.

A "Special" brand of fancy blue Was made for him in London town. It's "Guaranteed" shrunk through and through; At "Twenty-five he has marked it down.

It does not matter how you're made, Or whether you are fat or lean—Give "Jim" a piece of good Scotch Tweed, Or Woaded black, or grey, or green

A garment, fitted to the man. He quickly will get into shape, And stylish too, he leads the van Of modern masters of the tape.

JAIL JOHNSON STOPPED ON HIS WAY TO CANADA

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 16.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, indicted for violation of the Mann act, is in jail here. He was taken off a Grand Trunk train, alleged to have been bound for Canada to-day. His second wife, formerly Lucille Cameron, was with him. She also is in jail.

Johnson was under $30,000 bond to the United States District Court in Chicago. The terms of his bond provided that he should not leave the jurisdiction of the court. He is being detained here on advice from a special investigator of the Department of Justice in Chicago, who, in a telegram, said he feared Johnson was on his way to Canada to escape prosecution for violation of the White Slave law.

Johnson explained after his arrest he was on his way to Toronto to see his old manager, Tom Flanagan, regarding an offer he had received from Tom O'Rourke to put on a fight in Paris between Johnson and Al Palszer.

"I couldn't afford to let my mother's house go, besides the bond that I have up," Johnson explained, as he denied that he had any intention of running away from the prosecution. "I could not afford to turn down any fight offer I have either."

He exhibited a telegram in which an offer of $25,000 for a fight in Paris was made. The telegram was dated Los Angeles and said that the offer had been made by M. Lelippe, representing Mr. Vincent of Paris. The message was signed by Tom O'Rourke. Johnson telephoned to Chicago, and obtained permission to go to the house of Detective Patterson. Mrs. Johnson accompanied the pugilist.

PASSENGERS FROM URANIUM

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The first consignment of passengers from the S. S. Uranium, stranded on the rocks near Halifax, was due to reach New York this morning over the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, but for some reasons unexplained, did not come. Thirty-five first class and thirty stowage passengers are in the lot.

Friends, relatives, immigration officials and representatives of aid societies, numbering in all about 500 persons, gathered before dawn at the Grand Central Station to meet the arrivals, but after a three hours' wait, concluded that there had been a change in train connections.

The Uranium Line officials said they could not account for the delay, and no statement was issued by the railroad.

Two hundred and seventy-two of the Uranium's passengers are booked for New York.

It was expected that all would arrive by to-night.

WOMAN EXPOSES REAL SLAVERY IN N. E. IRON MINES

ALBANY, Jan. 15.—A woman first brought to light the shocking industrial conditions in the iron mines of the Wetherbee-Sherman company, at Mineville, Essex county, where peonage in its worst form is said to enslave 1,000 workers and led to Senator Griffin's determination to bring the matter before the Senate.

Miss Frances A. Keller, chief investigator of the State Department of Labor, went to Mineville on May 17, and upon her return told of conditions that equalled in horror the worst that were uncovered in the Florida turpentine camps. Intimidation, cruelty and extortion were among her findings.

Miss Keller demanded the resignations of Justices of the Peace John Navin of Mineville and Fred Rine of Port Henry, whom she charged with swindling the foreign laborers by fake complaints.

She also learned that it was a common practice for workers to be forced to pay a bonus to Superintendent Dugan to live in miserable shacks of the company. This was in addition to their rent, which was exorbitant.

OLDEST CANADIAN

WOMAN IS DYING

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 15.—Matilda LaFrance is dying at the house of refuge at Brampton. Matilda is a full blooded Indian and is probably the oldest woman in Canada, having been born at Port Credit in 1804. Her brain is still quite clear, but she is almost blind. She has a marvelous memory of the early history of this section of the country.

SMALL SMUGGLER BUT BIG CONSCIENCE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The United States Government received a "conscience" contribution of $2 from Canada to-day. It came from Co-bourg, Ont., and was addressed to "The Minister of Customs at the Senate Chamber." It is assumed to be the aftermath of some smuggling operation, but the conscience-stricken contributor did not furnish his name.

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province.

FOX PHOTOS.—The photos of the silver black foxes printed in yesterday's Guardian were from photos taken by Cleveland Craswell, amateur photographer of Charlottetown.

FLAG MAST.—The flag is flying at half mast on the Masonic Temple in memory of W. W. Beer, formerly of Charlottetown who passed away in Toronto this week.

DEAD IN SEATTLE.—Word has been received in Charlottetown of the death in Seattle, Wash., of Joseph Cullen, son of the late Patrick Cullen, formerly of Charlottetown. The former was at one time employed as barber with William Scott.

DEAD IN CAMBRIDGE.—Mrs. William Lockerby, Bayfield street, Charlottetown, has received word of the death of her sister, Mrs. John Cartmill, of Cambridge, Mass. Deceased had been ill only three days. She leaves to mourn, two daughters in Cambridge, and another sister, Mrs. Bridges of Malden, Mass. She was a daughter of the late Sergeant Andrew Duncan of Charlottetown Royalty.

ENJOYABLE SKATE.—About sixty excursionists came by special train from Summerside and enjoyed a skate on the ice last night. There was a very large attendance and although the weather was somewhat unfavorable the ice was not as bad as it would have been had it been worse. Notwithstanding the drawbacks the excursionists expressed themselves as delighted with the visit. The special left on return at 12 o'clock.

GOOD TIME.—At the Blake Hotel, Charlottetown, Wednesday evening, two bowling teams of the League of the Cross had a fine collation consisting of a turkey supper. The supper was the result of a bowling match between the Red Foxes and the Silver Greys, the latter coming out victorious. Those present were Rev. Father Plus MacDonald and the ten members of the team. Eitzen, the popular baritone singer, who is filling an engagement at the People's Theatre, was also present, and being the artist that he is in his profession, added much to the evening's pleasure. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Croker for the successful manner in which all the details were carried out.

ANNUAL MEETING.—The annual congregational meeting of Zion Church was held Wednesday evening in the lecture room. Murdoch McLeod capably filled the chair and George McLeod was appointed secretary. There was a fair attendance and although the congregation evidently realize that, in the building of the new church, they have set themselves a large undertaking, still the meeting was very optimistic and was characterized by a very hopeful tone. The total receipts for the year were $3,225.57 and the expenditures $2,384.06, leaving a balance on hand of $641.51. The building account receipts were $4,162.92 and the organ account for the year $1,202.52. A committee of five was appointed to prepare and submit to the congregation, a statement regarding the allotment of seats in the new church. The trustees elected for the current year are:—Murdoch McLeod, Chairman, J. N. Campbell, Secretary, M. A. Allen, J. J. Bethune, W. T. Huggan, S. A. McDonald, E. S. Coffin. The estimated expenditure for the year 1913, is $4,800. The Ladies' Aid received great praise for their splendid work. The meeting closed with an inspiring address from the Pastor, Rev. G. C. Taylor, the singing of the Doxology and the pronouncing of the Benediction.

BROADBENT MAY JUMP TO SOCIALS

OTTAWA, Jan. 15.—Harry Broadbent may jump to the Maritime League, finishing out the season with the Halifax Socials. A few days ago he received an offer from Manager Isnor of the above club and on Friday got another urgent telegram asking him to name his terms.

Broadbent wired back $900 as his lowest price for the remainder of the winter. It appears that the Halifax team are favorable towards paying Broadbent this sum, and that they will ask him to report them on the 15th. However, he hasn't decided to leave although he may get what he demands. The Ottawas are unlikely to allow him to go if they can help it. Broadbent got cold in a small cut on his face and may be out of the game against the Wanderers here Wednesday.

For school children, clerks, workmen, housewives, travellers, sportsmen—the Thermos bottle. WOMEN GET OUT BIG VOTE

BOSTON, Jan. 16.—Women fairly outdid the men in getting out the vote in Boston's city election today. The women were interested in the school board contest between Isaac Harris and Miss Frances G. Curtis, the only question at issue on which women were allowed to vote. Registration showed nearly 1,200 more women than last year. In Ward 11, Miss Curtis' home ward, there was an increase of 142 in feminine registration.

Mrs. Louis D. Brandeis, Mrs. Joseph Lee, Mrs. A. White, Mrs. Cabot and other women prominent in this Beacon Hill ward, voted early and were busy getting out other women voters.

The activity of the women was all the more noticeable on account of absence of the usual feverish campaigning among the men. This was due to the short ballot, containing only six names. It was the shortest ballot in the history of Boston city elections.

The voters will also pass on the question of license and on that of establishing an eight-hour day for city employes.

CORRESPONDENTS.—Those who send The Guardian bogus items for publication should save their time and postage, as all news is now verified before publication unless the person furnishing same, or the handwriting on the letter is known to some member of The Guardian staff. When an item is received the name appended thereto as that of the sender is immediately written to and if found to be forged the item and all particulars are sent to the person concerned. Thus there have been some cases already in which there is little doubt as to the identity of the forger, and at any time action may be taken against them.
