Now for the Rink. Remember that it opens on Christmas night and remember that during the coming long winter you cannot afford to be without a season ticket. The closing of the Spring Park school for the Christmas holidays took place yesterday. The program consisted of recitations from the pupils and selections from the gramophone of Walter Burke which were very much enjoyed. The distribution of candy formed a pleasing part of the entertainment. Santa Claus and his assistant were on hand and admirably performed their parts. The teachers Miss Dorsey, Miss McFadden and Mr. Bell were the recipients of many handsome presents, this evincing the esteem in which they are held by their pupils.

The Xmas closing of the Charlottetown Business College last night was a very successful affair. Principal Miller occupied the chair, and on his right was His Honor the Lieut. Among other prominent gentlemen present were Dr. Anderson, Chief Supt. of Education; Percy Pope, Dominion Savings Bank; Mr. Cotton, editor "The Examiner"; Mr. Macdonald "The Patriot"; Mr. M. Court, Editor of the "Watchman"; Capt. Wisner and many others. The College rooms were crowded, and it was remarked that the closing should have been held in the Market hall. A letter of regret was read from Premier Peters stating that owing to a meeting of the Government he was unable to be present. A splendid program was prepared by the students, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations and readings. Introductory remarks were made by Principal Miller, and after the presentation of diplomas, His Honor addressed the students. A very pleasing feature of the program was the presentation of an address to the principals and vice principals accompanied with most valuable gifts, as follows: Principal Miller was the recipient of a very valuable gold watch; Miss Sobey, Vice Principal, gold locket and chain; Mr. Trainor, Principal of the shorthand and typewriting departments, a valuable gold locket and chain while Miss Trainor, Vice Principal received a gold bracelet. Both Principal Miller and Mr. Trainor replied very feelingly and fittingly to the presentations. Walter Trainor read the addresses and was very highly complimented by Dr. Anderson for the clear and distinct manner in which they were read. Miss Gertrude Essery and Miss Helen Mitchell presented the presents. The program throughout was capitally rendered. Dr. Anderson, Mr. Nicholson, Mr. Pope and Mr. McCourt made splendid speeches eulogizing the good work being done by the C. B. C.
