"TO ATTEND COLLEGE.—The following students of Georgetown and vicinity contemplate entering Prince of Wales College.—Miss Alice MacLean, Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Louise Jenkins, Miss Susie Delorie, Mr. Hudson Morrissey, Mr. James A. B. MacConnell, Mr. Homer Norton, Mr. Neil Vickerson and Mr. Charles Wear.—G.

"INTERESTING MEETING.—Mr. Frederick Clay, Evangelist Preacher, is holding his meetings in the Baptist Church, Georgetown. He is a very interesting and dramatic speaker and his style of speaking will doubtless suit many. A large attendance is present each night and many are eagerly looking forward to his talk on "Booze."—G.

"FAREWELL PICNIC.—It was on Monday, August 27th that St. George's I. O. G. T. Lodge, Georgetown, held its picnic for the departing students and the good time enjoyed by all well repaid the effort. It was a splendid outing, in fact together one of the I. O. G. T. Brothers—"It was a picnic worth crossing the street for." An ideal situation near the Brudenell River surrounded by shade trees of various kinds was selected by the Lodge. Handy "Riverdale" the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Gordon. The afternoon train from Georgetown brought many picnickers to the grounds and others drove in carriages but all were there and in the best of spirits. The lawn afforded a splendid place for games and the lodge members and guests quickly availed themselves of the opportunity and for some time the time was thus pleasantly passed. The more skillful and athletic ran races, pulled a tug-of-war or played quots in an adjoining field. The call for supper which came on the latter part of the day was promptly responded to and all did full justice to the bountiful repast set by the Lodge Ladies which according to the statements of some of the complimentary male members of the party was the daintiest and most beautiful that they ever had the pleasure of partaking of. When evening came the party departed with a hope that an equally pleasant outing should again be given in the near future. Credit for this picnic is due in a large degree to the picnic committee and to the lodge sisters.—G.

Pimples Spread All Over Face

Came on arms. Large, hard and red. Itched and burned causing disfigurement. Lost rest all night. Two boxes Cuticura Ointment and two cakes Cuticura Soap healed.
From signed statement of Miss Katherine Lafford, Grand Greve, N. S., Nov. 30, 1916.
While Cuticura Soap works wonders in most cases of skin troubles its properties are so mild and so delicately combined that it is also ideal for every-day toilet uses. Cuticura Ointment used for little irritations, pimples, etc., will do all and more than the majority of expensive creams in keeping the complexion and skin soft and clear.
For Free Sample Each by Mail address post-card: "Cuticura, Dept. A, Boston, U. S. A." Sold everywhere.

GENERAL KORNILOFF GIVEN ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

MOSCOW—The second general sitting of the national conference was held this afternoon. General Korniloff, commander-in-chief, entered the hall in company with Premier Kerensky. His appearance was the signal for a prolonged and enthusiastic ovation. All the delegates cheered for Russia, the revolutionary government and the army. Cladimir Naboukoff, a prominent Social Democrat, speaking in the name of the first Duma declared the country aimed at the establishment of a strong and independent power uninfluenced by political parties, a power which, based on democratic principles, would establish obedience to law, civil liberty and personal security.

M. Naboukoff said the members of the first Duma repudiated with indignation all thoughts of a separate peace, and that if they were to have peace they did not desire it to be the result of German victory, but the consequence of the triumph of Russia and her allies.
M. Alexinsky made a similar declaration on behalf of the second Duma.

GERMAN PRISONERS ESCAPE AT AMHERST

AMHERST—Two German prisoners made a successful escape from the internment camp on the Highlands at an early hour Thursday morning. How the interned Huns managed to elude the sentry and penetrate the barb wire entanglements is a mystery to the officers at the camp but in some manner they did so, crossed over Park St., went through a field of oats and into the nearby woods. A. Peters and T. Reana are the men who made the escape. The latter speaks excellent English while the former in his use of that tongue is not far behind his comrade. The descriptions are as follows: T. Reana, complexion fair, height 5 feet, 5 inches, hair light, eyes blue, right eye slightly crossed, defective, weight one hundred and fifty pounds, tattoo marks on both arms, wearing a dark blue suit. A. Peters has good appearance, fair hair light, eyes grayish blue, height 5 feet 8 inches, inclined to be stout, weight one hundred and eighty pounds, wearing blue suit.
Since the last escape from the experimental farm the Teutonic prisoners have been conducting themselves with the utmost decorum. The fate that their comrades met has evidently deterred them from making he plunge until the present time. However, they can only go into hiding, and will be caught sooner or later.
All hopes of exit from the country are now closely guarded, and the United States hardly offers them a refuge as in former times.
Col. Morris had a large armed force out this morning scouring the country side, and it is understood that a clue has been discovered relative to the whereabouts of the Germans.

TELLS OF MUTINY IN RUSSIAN RANKS

MOSCOW—Premier Kerensky introduced General Korniloff at the national conference, saying the government had thought it necessary to invite the commander-in-chief to lay before the conference the situation at the front and in the army. General Korniloff said the death penalty, restoration of which he had asked together with other measures, constituted only a small part of what was necessary in an army stricken with the terrible evils of disorganization and insubordination. In the present month, General Korniloff said, soldiers had killed four regimental commanders and other officers and ceased these outrages only when they were threatened with being shot. Quite recently one of the regiments of Siberian Rifles, which had fought so splendidly at the beginning of the revolution, abandoned its position on the Right front. Nothing except an order to exterminate the entire regiment availed to cause it to return to its positions.
"Thus we are implacably fighting anarchy in the army" the commander continued.
"Undoubtedly it will finally be repressed but the danger of fresh outbreaks is weighing constantly on the country."
"The situation on the front is bad. We have lost the whole of Galicia, the whole of Bukovina and all the fruits of our recent victories. At several points the enemy has crossed our frontier and is threatening our fertile southern provinces. He is endeavouring to destroy the Roumanian army and is knocking at the gates of Riga. If our army does not hold the shore of the Gulf of Riga the road to Petrograd will be opened wide.
"The old regime bequeathed to Russia an army which, despite all the defects in its organization, nevertheless was animated by a fighting spirit and was ready for sacrifices. The whole series of measures taken by those who are completely foreign to the spirit and needs of the army has transformed it into a collection of individual groups which have lost all sense of duty and only tremble for their own personal safety.
"If Russia wishes to be saved the army must be regenerated at any cost. We must immediately take measures such as I have referred to, which have been approved in their entirety by acting minister of war."
General Korniloff then outlined the most important of the measures, in addition to restoration of the death penalty, which are:
First: Restoration of discipline in the army by the strengthening of authority of officers and non-commissioned officers.
Second: Improvement of the financial positions of officers, who have been in a very difficult position in the recent military operations.
Third: Restriction of the functions of regimental committees, which, although managing economy affairs of the regiments, must not be permitted to have any part in decisions regarding military operations or the appointment of leaders.

BEAVER FLOUR

One reason why the Pies and Cakes, Bread and Rolls always turn out right when you use is because the flour is always the same. It is milled from blended wheat. Ontario fall wheat, strengthened with western spring wheat. Being blended in exact proportions, Beaver Flour is always the same in strength and quality; and always gives the same results, no matter what or when you bake.
It will be a change for the better when you change from western wheat flour to Beaver Flour, milled from blended wheat.

COWAN'S COCOA

"Perfection Brand" Purest and Best

- TRY THESE RECIPES.
- COCOA ICING.
4 teaspoonfuls Cowan's Perfection Cocoa
2 cups icing sugar
2 tablespoonfuls cold water
3 tablespoonfuls hot water
1/2 teaspoonful vanilla.
Place the cocoa in a saucepan and mix with cold water until of a perfectly smooth appearance. The hot water is then added and the whole is then cooked from 1 to 2 minutes. Add the flavoring and a pinch of salt. Enough sugar should then be added to make the whole mixture sufficiently stiff to spread evenly. To ensure against lumps beat these ingredients until smooth and glossy. Should the mixture be too thick a little cold water may be added, and, on the other hand, add a little sugar if not sufficiently thick.
- COCOA FILLING.
1/2 cup Cowan's Perfection Cocoa
1/2 cup sugar
3 tablespoonfuls milk
1 egg
2 teaspoonfuls butter
1 teaspoonful vanilla
Pinch of salt
The whole should be cooked in a double boiler till the substance thickens. Care should be taken to stir constantly. Now cool the mixture and add the flavoring. About 1 cup of nuts or cocoanut in the same proportion, or even mixed fruits, make a splendid addition to this filling.
