"The Trail Of The Lonesome Pine"

By JOHN FOX, Jr.

But Dave did not plunge toward the engineer as expected, instead assuming a conventional boxing attitude, and Hale remembered that the youth had been away at school for a year and must have learned something of boxing science.

The engineer ducked Dave's first blow and countered with a jab that made the mountaineer reel and grunt. Hale followed up his advantage and hit the youth again. At this, Dave, in his rage forgot his science and soon Hale had bested him.

"Gimme my gun! I'll kill him," Dave shouted, but the sergeant forced him to leave, and the youth rode through the town toward home, cursing and threatening revenge. (To Be Continued)

EYESIGHT EXAMINATION

N. J. MASON OPTOMETRIST

Address And Presentation

An event of some importance took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Proffitt, Spring Valley, on Thursday evening, March 28th, when the Aces Hockey team and friends gathered to spend a social evening. Several tables of auction were organized and some interesting games played. Then Mr. Roscoe Walker called the assembly to order and in a few well chosen words, explained the purpose of the gathering. He then called upon Mr. Bruce Murphy, who read the following address:

Dear Bill,—It is with a great deal of pleasure that we are able to meet together here tonight to offer you in a small way some proof of our esteem and regard; and our deep gratitude for the time, energy, and patience that you gave so freely. During the past season there must have been times when you were nearly discouraged, times when your patience was put to the test when we failed to measure up to your set standard; yet in your inimitable manner, without harsh reproach, you finally brought us to the top. We have grown to think of you as a dear friend, as well as a capable coach, so we ask you to accept this small gift, not for its value, but as a token of our appreciation and good will. May it ever remind you that your efforts have not been in vain. And as you sit upon this hearth rug, smoking your pipe, we would ask only that you sometimes remember the smiling, cheerful bunch of boys who won the trophy for you. We wish you every success for the future, and long life and happiness.

Dominion Has No Control Re Executions

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, April 1—The Dominion has no control over executions in Canada, Minister of Justice Hugh Guthrie told the House of Commons today. He was commenting on the hanging of a woman in Montreal last Friday which resulted in her being decapitated.

EXPLORER'S MARRIAGE NO LONGER SECRET

PATERSON, N. J., April 1—The secret of Commander Donald B. McMillan's marriage to his secretary, the former Miss Miriam Look of Boston, is no longer a secret.

Commander McMillan, explorer who accompanied Admiral Peary to the North Pole 27 years ago, declined to name the exact date or place in announcing the marriage last night but said "it was in February and near St. Augustine, Florida."

The McMillans will leave today for Provincetown, Mass., after a visit with relatives of the bride.

Urgent Need To Further Peace Pact

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, April 1—The gravity of the position in Europe, which he said "threatened the peace of the whole world" was called to the attention of the House of Commons today by Henri Bourassa (Ind. Labelle).

Mr. Bourassa proposed a resolution reaffirming Canada's adherence to the Paris peace pact and calling upon the government to do everything possible to "further peace either by a League of Nations or otherwise."

Dying Imperialism

Mr. King's firm stand at the time of the Chanak incident in 1922 had been a great service not only to Canada but to the British Empire as a whole. He had had the courage to oppose the frantic demands of two British cabinet ministers and widespread clamor in Canada. This clamor Mr. Bourassa described as the last "echo of dying imperialism."

Cubans Await Finish Of Yacht Race

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) HAVANA, April 1—Cuban yachtsmen tonight awaited the arrival of the yachts in the St. Petersburg-Havana race although there was no news of the position of the contestants.

A Cuban gunboat set out tonight in search of the racers, particularly to locate Ironduquoit, the 56-foot yawl owned by Leon Lewis of St. Petersburg, which was reported to have gone astray.

Baby Marie Has Her First Tooth

CALLANDER, April 1—Seldom does Dr. Allan Roy Dafeo, modest little country doctor, get excited, but today his enthusiasm "bubbled over" and he put through a long distance phone call to Premier Mitchell Hepburn in Toronto. He coot the Ontario Government leader $5 in big copper—not the phone charge, but the fact that baby Marie, mite of the Dloume quintuplets had produced a tooth.

BRINGING UP FATHER

OH, ME, OH, MY! IT'S TOUGH ENOUGH TRYIN' TO GIVE SMOKE! BUT IT'S LOTS TOUGHER TRYIN' TO FERGIT ABOUT IT!

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN!

You've had days when you've felt discouraged and low. Nothing seemed to go right. Frequently these dreary days can be traced to common constipation, due to lack of "bulk" in your meals.

This ailment may cause headaches and loss of energy. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory research shows Kellogg's ALL-BRAN provides "bulk" to aid elimination. ALL-BRAN also furnishes vitamin B and food-iron.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN resists digestion better than the fiber in fruits and vegetables. It is gentle—and often more effective. Isn't this natural food better than taking patent medicines—often harmful?

Two tablespoonsful of ALL-BRAN daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Brighten up with ALL-BRAN! Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in London, Ontario.

Mr. Max Gallant, Summerside, was a recent guest to Fernwood.

Mr. Basil Sherry, Albany was a welcome guest to Fernwood Wednesday and reported the roads to be in good condition for the time of year.

MR. JOHN MUTCH

The death of Mr. John Mutch at the P. E. I. Hospital on March 18th, aged 79 years, has cast a gloom over town and country, where he was a kind and respected neighbor.

He was a son of the late John Mutch and Mary Lacey Fulton. He leaves one sister Emily, with whom he lived.

He was a great lover of music, among his favorite selections was the Sweet Bye and Bye. His funeral was largely attended from McLean's Funeral Home to Mermaid Cemetery.

and now one of the infants' guardians, that Cecile would "sprout" the next tooth. Annette and Yvonne had already teething. As soon as Mr. Croll receives the money, it will be turned over to some charitable institution.

"Douglas' Egyptian Liniment" should be in every household. Stops bleeding at once, cauterizes wounds and prevents blood poisoning. Keeps away inflammation and proud flesh.

EMERALD SCHOOL DISTRICT

A short time ago the Principal of Emerald School asked the pupils of grade IX and X to write a history of Emerald School district since first established. A number of pupils undertook the work, and gleaned what information they could get from the oldest living inhabitants.

On examination of papers the highest marks were given to Miss Elizabeth Murphy, followed closely by Miss Ellen Allan and Miss Edna Simcoe.

The following paper was written by Miss Murphy: "The first school house was erected here on the County Line road, the name this locality was known by, which was sparsely settled by pioneers and the largest portion of the land was wilderness and green woods. The first settlers were the McMahons, McEntee and Gillis (with the Duffy's, Clark, and Green-an on the south side of the Dunk River. A saw mill had been erected on the Dunk River, South of the present residence of Thomas F. Hughes, by the Haslam Bros., of Springfield about two miles distant, and as the largest portion of land was not occupied and contained large quantities of pine and other heavy lumber, they obtained large quantities which was sawn in the Spring season and was rafted down the river to Bedeque Bay by the spring freshets. When new settlers came in and took up these lands, the mill ceased operations.

The first school was built about sixty seven years ago and the first teacher was Miss Hogan of South Shore. She married a Mr. Doyle and lives in Charlottetown. Among the names of teachers who taught in this school were: M. McKenna, Elizabeth Trainor, Margaret McDonald, J. A. Johnston, M.D., Rev. Dr. Smith, Dr. W. J. P. McMillan, Lucretia McDonald, Katherine Trainor, Gerald McCarthy, Austin McGuigan, Elmer Roberts, P. F. Hughes, and others whose names escape my memory.

The railroad running through here opened up the place that was considered very backward, with few roads and stores and merchants miles away. A small way station was placed here and shipping of produce began. This was about sixty-two years ago. A small store was built and opened up by Archibald Ferguson and he was appointed first Postmaster of the district.

Shipping produce grew to a large extent and as business increased the railroad decided that a booking station was necessary, so they erected a new station and Mr. Byrne of Georgetown was appointed as agent. In 1887 he was moved to Georgetown and Mr. George McMahon was given charge of County Line station. Mr. Ferguson sold his small store to John W. Hughes of Hunter River, who erected a larger building and conducted a general store until 1888 when he, with his family, removed to Ottawa. Mr. Hughes also was Postmaster.

About three years later Mr. F. P. Murphy was appointed Postmaster and has retained the office since and is said to be the oldest Postmaster in the Province.

Mr. A. Craig of Freetown moved here in 1887 and conducted business for a number of years when with his family they removed to Winnipeg. Mr. P. F. Hughes also conducted a store business for upward of thirty years and was also secretary-treasurer of Emerald Society Co. for nearly forty years when he retired.

Upward to fifty years ago the name of the district was changed from County Line to Emerald and many bright students passed from Emerald School and are scattered throughout Canada and the United States.

Mr. McVinn and Miss McIvor are doing splendid work and giving "top" satisfaction to all the district. At present we have the general committee to supply the wants of the community. Our village blacksmith, Mr. Power, although advanced in years is still on the job assisted by his son, George W., who has charge of the forge. Mr. James Allan is our esteemed station agent, and is the right man in the right place. He is always ready and willing to oblige the travelling public. The population of the village of Emerald is about one hundred souls.—Elizabeth Murphy.

WOMAN OF 102 IS AN INVETERATE READER

Mrs. Martha Hall, of Bedford, Que., has survived upon her 102nd year in excellent health and active in the life of her household. This venerable lady celebrated her 101st birthday recently at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Marvin Smith.

She has a very keen memory and can relate many interesting facts in connection with the early days in this section of the country. Her eyesight is still unimpaired and she is an inveterate reader.

GLASS HAS IMPORTANCE AS SPRING FABRIC OF HAT, COSTUME NOVELTY

PARIS, April 2—Glass glitters in the 1935 Spring mode in ways both novel and amusing. Glass hats, capes and buckles, glass fans, scarfs and belts give a scintillating touch to both day and evening clothes. It is not the brittle, breakable variety used in window panes, but a shimmering spun glass fabric which flashes under light, or a composition substance resembling thick isinglass.

One chic Parisian chooses it for the hats she wears of nights. One evening she appeared in a glass fedora tilted over her smooth coil-furs, again she wore a little toque of shimmering spun glass ribbon. Patou shows a hip length evening cape of transparent glass fabric bordered and collared in white satin over a low-cut white #satin gown and Ardane tops a pale pink organza gown designed for moonlit nights with a little shoulder cape of shined pink spun glass ribbon.
