Sacred Musicale
At Saint Paul's

On Sunday evening a large audience enjoyed a sacred musicale in St. Paul's Church rendered by the Senior Choir and the Junior Girls' Choir under the direction of Mr. Royston F. Mugford, A.R.C.O., organist of St. Paul's Church. The program consisting of several anthems and solos was beautifully rendered and was enjoyed very much by those present.

Mrs. Constance Nash sang "Come Unto Him" and "My Heart Ever Faithful" very effectively, and Miss June Foster rendered "O Holy Night" in a very pleasing manner. Mr. V. Leigh Dingwall sang "If With All Your Hearts" and "Goin' Home", which were very much enjoyed.

The following is the program: Hymn 60: "Lo He Comes with Clouds Descending"; "And the Glory of the Lord" (from the Messiah)—Handel—St. Paul's Senior Choir. "Sleep My Jesus, Sleep" (traditional Dutch air). Dickinson—The Senior and Junior Girls' Choirs. Solists—Master Lloyd and Miss Elizabeth Palmer.

"Whence is that Goodly Fragrance" (traditional French air)—Junior Girls' Choir. "If With All Your Hearts" (from the Elijah)—Mendelssohn: "Goin' Home"—Anton Dvorak—Mr. V. Leigh Dingwall. "The Heavens are Telling" (from the Creation)—Haydn—The Senior Choir. "O Holy Night" (Adams)—Miss June Foster. "Lapland Carol" (arr. Dickinson)—The Senior and Junior Girls' Choir.

"Come Unto Him" (from the Messiah)—Handel; "My Heart Ever Faithful"—Bach—Mrs. Constance Nash. "Hallelujah Chorus" (from the Messiah)—Handel—St. Paul's Senior Choir. Hymn 42: "Now The Day is Over".

FRANCE HAS ATOMIC PILE
PARIS, Dec. 15—(AP)—France's first atomic energy pile began working today. Premier Henri Queuille was advised by telegram. The pile went into action at Port de Chatillon, a Paris suburb, the announcement said.

The weather man, after meeting one series of rain, little frosts and thaws making a very deplorable muddy road, then decided he would give this vicinity its first taste of winter in a snow storm which brought out the sleighs on Saturday and leaving very icy sur- face for motorists and vehicles. Then comes some more heavy snow and rain on Sunday night, again a taste of the spring's slush.

Mrs. Omar Ferguson entertained a number of friends and neighbors at a card party with a card party on December 8th, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Ferguson. After several games of cards Mrs. Ferguson served a dainty lunch, the centre of attraction was a very prettily decorated birthday cake. The guests, after thanking their hostess for a very enjoyable evening and wishing the host many happy returns of the day, wended their way to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horton and Albert Stewart, Mount Albion formed a motor party to Vernon River on Friday. Mr. John MacPhail Mt. Albion was week-end visitor recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Scott Marshfield.

Among those loading turnips at Mt. Albion Station recently were Lawson Jenkins, Mt. Albion and Richard Jenkins, Pownal. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Burhoe Mermaid were visitors to Mount Albion recently the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jenkins.

Mrs. Kenneth Paynter, Hazelbrook, entertained at her home the Women's Missionary Society of Hazelbrook Baptist Church on December 14th. Mrs. Robert Jenkins Mrs. Jack MacPhail, Mrs. Henry S. Jenkins and Mr. Chester Jenkins were visitors to Hazelbrook on Tuesday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Paynter.

The semi-monthly meeting of the "Happy Busters" of Mount Albion Junior Red Cross met at the school recently with the President Miss Eva Jenkins in the chair. Meeting opened with chorus "Oh Canada" Roll call answered by articles for Grab bag. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Reports of Health Sick and Fire also Water committees were heard. New committees were appointed. Program committee put on a short program.

A grab bag and collection were had a little sun and a very interesting collection reported a canvass for United Emergency for Britain Funds. Roll call for next meeting was what I would like for Christmas. Meeting closed with God Save the King.

A very delightful occasion took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Hicks recently when their friends and neighbors of Mount Albion and vicinity met to welcome them to the district in the form of an address and presentation. After a merry social hour Mrs. Harold Carver called together all singers. Many old and new songs were sung. Jessie was pianist for evening. Then Mr. Harold Carver, "Harold" as we all know him, escorted Mr. and Mrs. Hicks and son Malcolm to the table of honor. An address of welcome was read by Mrs. Henry S. Jenkins while Mr. Lawson Jenkins presented them with a well filled purse. Mr. Hicks and Lawson were veterans of the last two and last war respectively. Mr. Ansley Hicks very graciously thanked one and all for their kindest welcome and also stated how much they enjoyed being in Mount Albion and kindly invited one and all to their home at any time. Mrs. Hicks and Malcolm also made short speeches. Harold as master of ceremonies kept the remainder of the time rolling in merriment and laughter.

A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. Those assisting were Mrs. Ben Horton, Mrs. John MacPhail, Mrs. Earl Ling, Mrs. Robert Jenkins, Mrs. Gordon Myers and Mrs. Henry S. Jenkins.

The regular monthly meeting of Mount Albion Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Robert Jenkins on Tuesday evening, Dec. 7th, with the president, Mrs. Earl Ling, in the chair. The meeting opened with repeating the Institute Creed in unison. Roll call was answered by seven members and 3 new members paid their fees.

Minutes of annual meeting were read approved, and signed. School committee reported school had been cleaned by members of district and new desks and chairs were placed in school.

Discussion of cleaning of hall followed and it was decided to wash ceiling and walls on Wednesday. A committee was appointed by Institute to assist those getting up the concert by purchasing the decorations for tree and other aid. It was moved to use $5.00 of Institute funds to be replaced later from concert funds. It was moved that all expenses or bills arising out of the auction sale and concert be paid. It was decided that a collection of 25c per member be taken to buy articles for donation of 2 aged shut ins of the district. The boxes to be packed by Mrs. B. Horton and Mrs. Jack Myers.

Meeting closed by singing National Anthem, after which a dainty lunch was served by hostess, assisted by Mrs. B. Horton, Mrs. H. Jenkins and Mrs. Gordon Myers.

The Institute welcomed their new members and Mrs. Ansley Hicks kindly invited the members to her home for January meeting. Roll call to be answered by a riddle. Due to lateness of hour only one contest was put on by the program committee. The contest was, Place names of Prince Edward Island.
