

The BEST way to stop CONSTIPATION

Nothing like Fruit-a-tives

"I was in a very bad way with constipation. My stomach was off-color and I kept having headache after headache. Quite frequently I had severe pains in my joints and muscles. The general effect was very depressing. Indeed, I felt so wretched that I was about to give up work. Today my health is excellent and I certainly feel that Fruit-a-tives played a large part in bringing this about. They toned up my entire system."

Murphy-Sullivan Nuptials

The brilliant rays of an afternoon sun, as so many angels descended from Heaven, welcomed for the first time a respectable delegation of ladies and gentlemen from "Canada's fair Garden of the Gulf" to Our Lady of Angel's Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., on Sunday, August 7th, to witness the holy nuptials of Miss Mary Erna Murphy daughter of Mr. John Michael Murphy, Kinkora, who was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Edward Sullivan, late of South Wales, England.

It was a fair and glad scene on which the eye would love to feast and the heart forgetful of its cares lulled itself to sleep in a heavenly ecstasy as the melodious notes of the organ announced the arrival of one of Kinkora's fairest daughters in the paraphernalia of a gay happy bride.

The joyous occasion brought together an honourable representation of relatives and friends from both His Majesty's and Uncle Sam's dominions who travelled by auto to the Empire City to participate in the happy event. viz. Mr. John M. Murphy and Miss Elsie Murphy father and sister of the bride from Kinkora, P. E. I. Messrs. W. B. McNeill and Henry Jamieson, Summerside, P. E. I., Joseph Vernella, Brighton, Mass., and John Keefe, a former member of the Kinkora Sports Glee Club, from the City of Brotherly Love, Philadelphia.

As the bridal party entered the Church at 5 p. m. the magnificent organ pealed forth the popular march from Lohengrin so prominent in the social circles of New York. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Leo Williams assistant rector of Our Lady of Angel's parish.

The bride was given away by her father and looked beautiful in her wedding array. She was dressed in a magnificent robe of broadened ivory satin with cascade draperies, a long lace tulle veil and cap and carried a bouquet of white rose buds and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Thomas E. Deighan was the only bridal attendant and looked lovely in a gown of beige chiffon with a large black picture hat to match. She also carried a charming bouquet of tea roses.

Mr. Thomas E. Deighan officiated as best man, while Messrs Edward and Cecil J. Murphy functioned splendidly as ushers. After the ceremony as the bridal processions wended their way down the aisle to the vestibule of the church, congratulations and felicitations were copiously poured upon the happy couple by the large and respectable congregation that filled the sacred edifice. Showers of rice came in great profusion, while the fragrance of confetti permeated the atmosphere.

The bridal party then proceeded to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Deighan, the bride's aunt where numerous friends had assembled to celebrate the happy event. A splendid banquet was prepared for the occasion in Mrs. Deighan's inimitable style and was ably assisted by Mrs. Cecil J. Murphy, Mrs. Philip Hughes, Mrs. Chester Mullally and Mrs. Hugh McCarron. Decorated with flags and presented a striking scene of hymeneal gaiety, and when the guests were ushered to the festive hall laden with tempting viands they felt that marriages are made in Heaven and that angelic hands were ministering to them. On behalf of the guests Rev. Brother Ambrose Jerome who originally hailed from the home town of the bride delivered an appropriate greeting to the bride and bridegroom which was unanimously applauded. Prominent among the guests was the Rev. Brother Camillus Lellis, assistant rector of the Catholic Protectory, and a worthy of his friendship for Bishop O'Sullivan. The Catholic congregation in this Province were fortunate to have such a high priest, and they should strive to help him in all his undertakings by obedience to his wishes. Christ, he concluded, should be the centre of every Catholic home and if every Catholic would live up to the faith, he or she would be helping to bring the Kingdom of God to many who have not yet accepted it.—S.

Mrs. Bliss Lockhart and little daughter Eleanor, Moncton, have returned after spending several weeks in Central Bedeque, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Crossman.

Mrs. Hanford Reeves and children Ivan and Wanda, are spending a short holiday in Norboro, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Glover.

Miss Ella Moase, Miss Viola Haggerty and Miss Kathleen Proffitt, nurses-in-training at Falconwood Hospital, Charlottetown, were welcome visitors to New Annan, Wednesday.

Miss Helen MacDonald, of Ellerslie has been spending an enjoyable holiday in North Bedeque.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent Wednesday, when the passengers from the S. S. Gaspeia, which was in port at Summerside then, were taken by motor by Mr. Wendell Bowness of Summerside, to the well known "Breakwater Beach." The visitors expressed son of the Sacred Heart parish, Alberton, P. E. I. The sumptuous repast terminating with ice cream wafers, rich sparkling beverages that touched the spot of satisfaction—the guests being decidedly renewed in flesh and spirit. The remainder of the evening was enlivened with music, mirth and song.

Mr. Edward F. Murphy gave several selections of modern instrumental music. Miss Doris Evans delighted the guests with a pretty bouquet of Irish melodies. Then followed several beautiful choruses of mixed voices and finally the salutation "Kinkora Forever." The bells of the City tolled the midnight hour. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan started on their wedding trip for New England shores, the bride wearing a smart costume of flat crepe maroon with hat and shoes to match.

The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome wedding presents which included silverware, china, linens, etc. The guests departed for their respective homes delighted with the happy hours spent and with cheers of admiration for the newly wedded favorites. May happiness, health and prosperity follow Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan through the years to come.

IN MEMORIAM

EDNA A. HARRIS

The death occurred at her home 236 Grafton Street, this city, yesterday morning of Edna Annie Harris, daughter of Mrs. James and the late James Harris, after a prolonged illness.

The deceased who was for a number of years a member of the sales staff of Moore & McLeod, Ltd., was a young lady of pleasing disposition and extremely popular with her store associates, numerous customers and friends.

When her condition was considered serious her physician advised an operation. She entered the Prince Edward Island Hospital where the operation was performed and where she remained for several weeks receiving the best of care and attention and was finally removed to her home where despite the tender nursing of a loving mother and devoted sister, the latter who had the advantage of being a trained nurse, her condition gradually grew worse until the end came peacefully yesterday morning.

The deceased was a prominent member of the Rebekahs and a devout and consistent member of the Baptist Church.

She leaves to mourn, besides a sorrowing mother, the following brothers and sisters:

Clarence W., and A. Ernest, Summerside; Harry J., New Glasgow, N. S., and Mrs. D. C. Moore, East Royalty, Miss Maud, graduate nurse, who remained at her sister's side for the past three months and Miss Marion, of Hyndman & Co., City.

The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon, service at the house starting at 2 p. m.
