THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

IT PAYS to buy in this Province. RECORD SCORE—At the Arena Bowling Alley, Charlottetown, on Wednesday night last Sam Crockett broke all previous records for good bowling by making a score of 160.

THANK OFFERING SERVICE.—The usual annual thank offering service of the W. M. A. S. will be held in the Baptist Church, Bonshaw, on Sunday afternoon, the 15th, at two thirty. If the day proves stormy the service will be held the next Sunday evening, the 22nd, at seven. Mrs. Hurn will speak and sing.

ABSENCE OF AGENT.—When F. G. Jordan, Guardian Agent, is absent from Souris as is necessary occasionally, persons having advertising, subscriptions, or news are asked to send same direct to "The Guardian, Charlottetown," until Mr. Jordan can complete the arrangements he has under way to have his office open at all times. He has however, already provided for a generous supply of news daily from Souris, even when he is necessarily absent.

CHIMES OF NORMANDY.—The theatre going people of Charlottetown will be glad to hear that the charming opera—The Chimes of Normandy, or the Bells of Corneville, will be put on in the Opera House on Eastern Monday night, March 24th. The dramatic part will be under the direction of Frank Oliver and the musical part by Prof. Watkins with the assistance of all the best talent available. Under such directors as Mr. Oliver and Prof. Watkins the public may look forward to something good.

VANCOUVER NEWS.—The following written by a Vancouver correspondent will be of general interest.—Thomas Bambrick and wife of Comox are visiting friends in the city this week. Mr. Bambrick, formerly employed to Head Hillsboro, P. E. I.—Edward Jay, Mt. Stewart, arrived in the city Monday on a visit to his son Bruce of Eighth Avenue. At the dinner, given him at his son's residence, Mr. Jay said that he had a most enjoyable trip across the continent and that he intended seeing the many beautiful sights of Vancouver and vicinity before returning to his Island home.—Reggie Walsh, son of Dr. Walsh, Mt. Stewart, arrived in the city today from Grand Forks, B. C.—Joseph McDonald, formerly of French Village, P. E. I., but for thirty years a resident of Grand Forks is spending a few days here.—William M. and Mrs. Gunn are visiting at Oquillum this week the guests of Edward and Mrs. Thatcher.

Smokers Goods.—We have an excellent assortment of cased pipes, tobacco pouches, cigar and cigarette holders and case smoking sets, ash trays, tobacco jars, pocket lighters cigars of all kinds in Xmas packages (10's and 25's) and everything a smoker could wish for.—All of the above articles, were specially selected for the Christmas trade and make acceptable gifts. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside. 12-13Mt.

Civic Taxes.—Citizens will please take notice that taxes and amounts due for concrete must be paid at once as the books are about to be closed for the year. 12-13 Mt.
