DODGERS AND CARDS TO MEET IN PLAYOFF

Both Teams Lose On Final Day To Force First Tie In History

(By Jack Hand)

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 29—(AP)— A new page was added to the record books of baseball today as a complete 154-game major league season wound up in an exact tie for the first time when St. Louis Cardinals and Brooklyn Dodgers finished in a dead heat for the National League pennant.

By bowing to Chicago Cubs 8-3 while the Brooks were being shut out by Boston 4-0, the Cardinals backed into the first three-game-play-off ever staged under the league rules.

Although the 1908 season had ended in a furore with the league president ordering a replay of the disputed Chicago-New York game in which Johnny Evers insisted Fred Merkle never touched second base, this was a different situation. In the current instance each club completed its entire playing chart and the three-game set opening here Tuesday afternoon represents unscheduled action.

For Manager Eddie Dyer and his Cardinals it was another day of wasted opportunities, just as they have been "blowing" chances for the last two weeks, each time the Dodgers have lost.

The largest crowd of the season, 34.124 paying fans, which had boosted the cash customers for the year to 1,036,871, saw the Cards muff their opportunity.

It took a left-handed pitcher with an infected toe on his left foot to knock the Birds out of an outright championship. Johnny Schmidtz had been left behind in Chicago when the Cubs came down for the final series but had been discharged from hospital Saturday and hurried down to put his personal whammy on Dyer's weary crew.

Schmitz hurled two-hit ball for the last five innings after allowing six blows in the first four and stranding seven Cards on base up to the fifth. And he made sure of his 11th victory and fourth over St. Louis by a base hit off Stan Musial's glove that, combined with an error, broke the back of the home club in a five-run sixth inning.

"Bums" Lose

BROOKLYN, Sept. 29— (AP)— The Gowanus ran with tears today and from Coney Island to Canarsie the sobs of the Flatbush faithful rent the air as they feared their Brooklyn Bums had lost their last chance at the 1946 National League pennant by bowing 4-0 to Boston Braves.

But when word came from St. Louis that the hated Cardinals too had lost today—8-3 to Chicago—the faithful raised sodden eyes from their beer-mugs and looked forward with renewed zest to an unprecedented three-game post-season play-off.

Mort Cooper, who loses no love for the Cardinals, and Billy Herman, who was supposed to be too old to play for Brooklyn, got together and took all their beefs out on the Bums when they led Boston to a shutout. Had Brooklyn won, the Bums would be champions tonight. Instead—well wallopped by the Bravers' eight-hit assault on four Brooklyn pitchers—the Dodgers climbed aboard a train for St. Loo where they'll open the post-season best-of-three games scramble Tuesday. After that, both clubs head back here where they're slated to fight it out Thursday and if necessary Friday.

After that, the winner only faces the not-so-pleasant prospect of meeting Boston Red Sox, who made such a shambles of the American League clambake, in the World Series starting, next Sunday.

This ball park was jammed today as the Flatbush faithful practically over-ran the place to see their heroes waltz home with the bacon. A crowd of 30.756 crammed every corner as they boosted Brooklyn's home attendance for the season to 1.764,718—a National League high. They came to celebrate. They sat through what was almost a wake.

Big Mort Cooper, who had a salary row with the Cards before he was traded to Boston and probably doesn't care if St. Louis ever wins another pennant, found nothing but cousins in the Dodger lineup, although he hadn't beaten them all year.

He gave up no more than one hit in any one inning. He fanned four. And it wasn't until the eighth that a Dodger got as far as third base.

K. of C. Quoits

The play for the T. Arthur Campbell Trophy in the Knights of Columbus quoit tournament got underway yesterday at the recreation centre and while only a small representation of players showed up the competition was keen and showed that before a winner is declared for this season some hotly contested games will take place.

Last year's champ and also the previous year's champ were prevented from being present and no doubt will be in the thick of it next week-end when play will be continued.

The results of yesterday's games follow:—

Local Juniors Split With N. B. Champs

(By The Canadian Press)

ST. JOSEPH, N. B., Sept. 29—Saint John Cathedral C. Y. O. swamped Charlottetown All-Stars 14-4 today to even a Maritime Junior baseball semi-final series at 1-1 today after Charlottetown edged a 4-3 win in yesterday's opener here.

Date and place of the deciding game have yet to be arranged. The winners will play Liverpool, N.S., for the Maritime title.

Today, Saint John overcame a first inning three-run deficit. Tom Breen held the Islanders to six hits. Phil Coyle, who started for the All-Stars, was lifted in the fifth after yielding eight hits and five walks. Corish finished for Charlottetown.

Score by innings:

Saint John	000 722 021—14	12	4
Charlottetown	300 000 001—4	6	7

In the opener yesterday, hurler Jackie Cairns of Charlottetown singled sharply to centre in the eighth to bring home Ken MacKenzie for the winning run.

The Islanders touched Billy Moore for 14 hits while Cairns allowed only six and had 13 strikeouts.

Score by innings:

Charlottetown	300 000 010—4	14	7
Saint John	200 001 000—3	6	4

Charlottetown's juniors, Island champions are very much in the hunt for the Maritime junior crown as a result of their split with the New Brunswick champions at St. Joseph on Saturday and Sunday and win or lose in the deciding game, site of which has not been decided are to be congratulated on the showing they have made.

* * *

Banded together hurriedly with the season three parts over the youngsters have improved considerably under Coach Charlie Ryan's guidance and despite the lacing they absorbed in the second game yesterday are still to be considered very much in the hunt for the two-province crown and a resulting place in the finals against Liverpool, Nova Scotia champions.

* * *

The team returned home last night and manager Buck White was loud in his praise of the showing made by the youngsters. Saturday's game was a thriller all the way Buck stated with young Jackie Cairns pitching a whale of a game in holding the New Brunswickers to six hits and then winning his own game with a timely bingle in the eighth.

* * *

Explaining yesterday's game Ryan said that the kids got away on the right foot having a 3-0 lead in the first three innings but "actually went to pieces from there on." They just lost their form was the way the management put it but despite the setback they are still confident of taking them into camp in the deciding fixture.

* * *

In fact the third game was started yesterday but only went three innings before being called with the St. John boys holding a 1-0 lead from the first inning on.

* * *

It is likely that the third game will be played here probably next Sunday. Charlottetown offered to play it in St. John this morning but arrangements could not be made so they came back after making an offer of a guarantee to St. John to play here next Sunday and a definite answer is expected by either today or Tuesday.

* * *

The red hot National Baseball League pennant race is still undecided after Cards and Brooklyn both missed chances of capturing the bunting yesterday so now it will develop into a test of strength between the pair of them in what can be termed a "little world series."

* * *

Although far removed from the scene of the battle there is a great amount of interest in these games being exhibited by local baseball followers. Last night one was continually kept on the jump with phone calls regarding the outcome and now with the issue squarely between the pair of them interest is bound to reach a new high.

* * *

Concerning the intermediate playdowns St. Joseph's, New Brunswick champions seem to be of the opinion that they are slated to play off with the Nova Scotia champions before meeting the Island representatives. Bill Reid, director of physical fitness was in touch with officials of the team yesterday while with the junior team and the matter which is more or less in a mixed up state at present is expected to be clarified within the next few days.

Frisch Hands Resignation To Pirates

CINCINNATI, Sept. 29 — Frank Frisch, the Fordham Flash, submitted his resignation as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates Saturday, wished his successor "the best of luck" and became an applicant for another job in baseball.

The resignation of Frisch, who became Pirate field boss in 1940 after a career that included service as a great second baseman with the New York Giants and pilot of the 1934 St. Louis Cardinals, was announced in Pittsburgh by Ray Kennedy, general manager of the club, who said Virgil (Spud) Davis would direct the team the last three games of the season.

In Pittsburgh it was understood that McKinney would name the new manager in a press conference in the Smoky City Monday morning.

TORONTO, Sept. 26 — (CP)— Special rates of 1½ cents a mile granted members of the armed forces travelling on buses in wartime are to end Sept. 30, the Dominion Motor Coach Association and the Ontario Association of Motor Coach Operators announced today. The railways recently made a similar announcement.

Larter Takes Over Lead In Tournament

R. Larter took the lead in the best three out of five matches in the finals for the Sherwin-Williams Trophy played at the Brighton Horseshoe Club over the weekend. Larter won two of the three matches played.

The play will conclude this evening at 7.30.

Following the conclusion of the trophy play an open tournament will be held with all club members invited to participate. A trophy for the winner is being donated by Jack McCourt.

Royals Beat Louisville In Opener

(By The Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 29—Montreal Royals of the International League defeated Louisville Colonels of the American Association 7-5 Saturday night in the first game of the 1946 Little World Series, aided by two circuit blasts by first baseman Les Burge.

Trailing 7-2 in the ninth, the Colonels made a gallant effort to overhaul the hard-hitting Royals, but fell two runs short.

Both teams went scoreless the first two innings, but Louisville turned the pressure on in the third and squeezed home two runs.

The Royals bounded back in the fourth to tie the score at 2-2. Tom Tatum doubled to centre and trotted home when Burge clouted a 345-foot home run over the right field fence.

The Royals added another run in the sixth to take a 3-2 lead when Burge hit his second homer.

There was no more scoring until the eighth when the Royals smothered the Colonels under an avalanche of hits that yielded four runs and put them ahead 7-2.

Must Play Middleton

(By The Canadian Press)

TRURO, N. S., Sept. 29—Efforts to declare a Nova Scotia senior baseball champion ran into another snag today when it was announced that the protest filed on the last game of the Middleton Cardinals-Halifax Shipyards playoff had been upheld.

As a result of this latest decision, disclosed by President A. J. Mason of the Nova Scotia Amateur Baseball Association, the playoff picture was even more deeply entangled than it had beeen on several other occasions during the last month.

It came while Shipyards were in the midst of a best-of-seven final series with Truro Bearcats and had already played two games. The Association declared those two games were to be exhibition contests and that Shipyards were to meet Middleton in a replay of the final tilt of the semi-final series.

Middleton's protest had arisen after playing to a tie with Halifax in the deciding game of their series at Middleton. The league ordered the replay to be staged in Truro on a neutral field, but Cardinals objected that the replay should have been on the same field as the tie.

Just what will be the outcome of this edict was not known. Vice-president Harry Butler of the N.S.A.B.A. said he didn't think the Shipyards management would send the team to Middleton for Tuesday's tilt. At the same time President Mason ruled that if Truro and Halifax continue their series he would declare Middleton provincial champions.

Montreal Canadiens Beat Bisons

MONTREAL, Sept. 29 — (CP)— The National Hockey League Montreal Canadiens won the battle of the champions last night, handing the American League champions, Buffalo Bisons an 11-3 defeat before an estimated crowd of 10,000 people at the Montreal Forum.

A thrilling first period saw the Canucks score two goals giving them a lead they retained through the rest of the game. Tod Campeau scored a sizzling opener from 20 feet out on a pass from Lamoureux, and Toe Blake notched the second on a pass from Richard and Lach.

Cooper nicked a neat goal in the early stages of the second period for Buffalo on a pass from Brown but Canadiens came back strongly to score four more to give them a 6-2 lead Lach, Benoit, Mosdell and the Rocket Richard beat goaler Dion for one apiece.

Buffalo put on the pressure in the early stages of the last period and a spectacular goal by Johnny Mahaffey on a breakway beat goaler Durnan.

Two Canadians came back strongly, however, scoring two more by Reay and Benoit. Mahaffey notched his second goal of the evening at the 17 minute mark but the world champs exhibited the brand of hockey which made them champions last year to score five more before the game ended.

Edolls, Reay and Filion banged in three goals in less than a minute and a half and Tod Campeau beat Buffalo's Dion for his second and third of the evening in the dying minutes of the game.

Shipyards And Truro Battle To Draw

HALIFAX, Sept. 29 — (CP) — Halifax Shipyards and Truro Bearcats battled almost four hours to a 13-inning draw here Saturday in the second game of their best-of-seven series for the Nova Scotia senior baseball championship.

The elongated tussle left the series 1-0 for the Bearcats who took the opener at home 3-2.

Almost 6,200 fans were on hand to watch the two squads throw in a total of 29 players in the closely-fought contest that saw fans storm the field in the ninth inning following a collision between catchers Marcel St. Pierre of Halifax and Peaches Ruven of Truro when the Shipyard backstop was attempting to retrieve a loose ball.

Several punches were thrown before police cleared the field but it was not until umpire Jack Austin of New Glasgow threatened to give the game to Truro that fans moved off the field.

Four Shipyard hurlers, Mike Genthon, Mick Burns, Stan Scallion and Payl Oleynik, faced the Bearcats and gave up 15 hits between them.

Clyde Roy started for Truro and scattered nine hits for three runs in eight innings before Skit Ferguson took over in the ninth. He was lifted in the 10th after giving up a hit and a run and Johnny Myketyn finished the tilt.

He had trouble in the 12th and 13th but with the bases loaded in the final stanza, Shipyard captain Red Burchell was out stealing home to end the game as darkness set in.

Linescore:

Truro	100 000 002 100 0—4	15	2
Halifax	010 100 100 100 0—4	13	2

Roy, Ferguson (9), Myketyn (10) and Ruven; Genthon, Burns (4), Oleynik (9) and St. Pierre.

Campbell Again Heads Maritime Hockey Assoc.

HALIFAX, Sept. 29 — (CP) — Charlie Campbell of Sydney was re-elected president of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association at the annual meeting here Saturday night attended by 67 delegates from the three provinces.

Others elected are: Brice Love of New Glasgow, first vice-president; Walter Lawlor of Charlottetown, second vice-president; Jack MacDougall of Amherst, third vice-president; Gene Connelly of Sydney, secretary-registrar.

The much disputed point of last season, the injured player replacement clause was cleared up by allowing clubs to register 18 players, including a spare goalie. No replacement can be made for any injured player except a goalkeeper. In the case of a netminder, a doctor's certificate must be produced proving that he is unable to play for the remainder of the season.

Last year the M.A.H.A. rules allowed replacement of any injured players and a number of clubs took advantage of the clause to strengthen their squad during the playoffs.

Registration fees paid by clubs for players were changed at the meeting. All senior clubs now must pay $17 for each player, intermediates $10, juniors $5, juvenile, midget and bantam each $1.

In accordance with C.A.H.A. rules, no juvenile, midget or bantam player shall be transferred to the American Hockey Association, the British Ice Hockey Association or the Scottish Association.

The presidential report showed a balance of $5,157 46. The C.A.H.A. had increased its grant for minor hockey by $500. for the coming season bringing it to $2,000. Medals will be presented to the winning senior, intermediate and junior clubs while the juvenile winners will receive championship crests

Bob Feller Set New Strikeout Mark In Final Tilt Of Season

By The Canadian Press

Bob Feller of the Cleveland Indians laid claim to a major league record yesterday by fanning five Detroit Tigers to run his seasonal total to 348, five more than officially credited to Rube Waddell of Philadelphia Athletics in 1904.

Beating Hal Newhouser 4-1 on six-hit pitching, Feller fell one strikeout short of equalling an unofficial mark of 349 credited to Waddell through recent research.

The Tigers batted around twice before Feller got Newhouser on three pitches in the fifth inning for the strikeout that put him ahead of Waddell's 343 total, officially recognized by the American League. Before the inning was over he fanned Hank Greenberg and got Dick Wakefield on a called third strike that drew a vigorous objection from the Tiger outfielder.

The other two whiffings came in the eighth when Bob struck out Greenberg for the second time and then fooled Jimmy Bloodworth.

Feller, who had lost 15, bagged his 26th victory by stopping the Tigers for the first time in five tries this season.

Chicago White Sox dropped the last game of the season to St. Louis Browns 8-7 and ended in fifth place.

Mark Christman and Jeff Heath of Fort William, Ont., accounted for three hits each in the attack on Grove and Gordon Maltzenberger.

The pennant-winning Red Sox wound up their regular season yesterday by being shut out by Ray Scarborough and Washington Senators 7-0. The victory asssured the Senators of fourth place in the final American League standing.

A paid crowd of 21,815 Boston fans saw Scarborough scatter seven Sox hits effectively while his mates banged out 16 off three Boston hurlers.

Mickey Vernon of Washington was horse collared but wound up the campaign with a .352 average to defeat Ted Williams for the league batting title. Williams got one hit in two trips today, for a season average of .342.

New York Yankees swept both ends of a doubleheader from Philadelphia Athletics, 6-0 and 2-1. Spud Chandler pitched a five-hitter in the opener to annex his 20th victory of the year. Vic Raschi bested Bill McCahan in the nightcap, called after seven innings because of darkness.

The twin loss gives the cellar-dwelling Athletics 105 losses against 49 victories. The Yankees finished third.

Hogan Winner Dallas Open

DALLAS, Sept. 29 — (AP) — Little Ben Hogan came in with a three over par 73 on the final 18 holes but it was good enough to give him first money in the Dallas open golf tournament today, the Hershey, Pa., professional finishing with 284 for the 72 holes.

Paul Runyan of Pasadena, Calif., who posted a 71 and Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, who had a 73, wound up in a tie for second place with 286.

Not Interested In Dimaggio

BOSTON, Sept. 29—(AP)—Manager Ossie Bluege of the Washington Senators claimed Saturday his club could "get" Joe DiMaggio of the Yankees for Mickey Vernon but was not interested.

A suggestion that the Boston Red Sox wanted Vernon, who is currently leading Ted Williams for the American League batting championship, led Bluege to reply:

"No, but we could get something for him from New York."

"Who do you mean—Joe DiMaggio?" asked the reporter.

"That's right," answered Bluege. "You could make the deal right now."
