IN MEMORIAM

MISS DAISY DEAN BULMER

The death occurred on Christmas Day at her home in Sunny Brae of Miss Daisy Dean Bulmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bulmer. Miss Bulmer was born on April 23, 1912, and succumbed to an illness of a few days duration.

Besides her parents, she is survived by one brother, Lester Bulmer, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia at St. Peter's, P. E. I., and six sisters, Mrs. E. O. Anderson, Mrs. Frank Ryan and Mrs. William MacKinnon, all of Boston; A. F. Soucy, of Moncton, and the Misses Nellie and Vera Bulmer, at home.

MRS. ALICE HODGSON ABBOTT

Hosts of friends in this Province will be grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. James S. Abbott in Duluth, Minnesota on Christmas Day, 1932 of pneumonia. Mrs. Abbott was formerly Miss Alice Hodgson of Malpeque, P. E. I., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hodgson, when quite a young woman she entered the Boston City Hospital, Boston, Mass., for training as a nurse. After a few years of private nursing Miss Hodgson became Matron of The Everett City Hospital, Everett, Mass., and later when a new City Hospital was built in Malden, Mass., Miss Hodgson became Supt. of that Institution. Quite a few years ago. She resigned her position there to return to her home to care for her father and mother who were in poor health. They passed away about seven years ago. Eight years ago Miss Hodgson married Mr. James S. Abbott of Duluth, Minn., and has since made her home there. Mrs. Abbott was a woman of sterling qualities, a beautiful character, always willing to help others. A devout Christian, a member of the Episcopal Church and as a young woman in Boston, was a great worker in her church there. A sister Mrs. Fulton J. McGuigan, passed away on December 6th, 1932, in Vancouver, B. C. There are left to mourn her passing, her husband James Abbott in Duluth, a sister Mrs. James J. Hales in Hayward, Calif., and one brother Harry L. Hodgson, now at the old home in Malpeque.

SOURIS

Mr. L. D. MacDonald of Harmony, spent Friday in Souris on business.

The Souris High School, Souris, closed on Friday for the Christmas Holidays. The school children were remembered by Santa Clause who appeared before closing and presented each pupil with a bag of candy. After giving three cheers for this jolly gentleman the children dispersed to their various homes to enjoy the holidays.

The Klondyke Lumber Mills are again in operation after being closed for a short time.

Mr. Emmett Donohoe, student at Dalhousie University, Halifax, N. S., is at present spending his holidays at his home at Souris West.

Mr. Stuart Weir of the C. N. R. Freight Office at Souris has returned after a very pleasant holiday visiting in Alberton the guest of his parents Rev. A. S. and Mrs. Weir.

Mr. Sylvester Morrison, Little Harbour, paid a flying visit to our town on Saturday.

The Misses, Martha and Evelyn Cunningham, and Helen Aitken, students at St. Mary's Convent at Souris, are spending the holidays at their respective homes at Montague.

The P. E. I. Grass Seed Growers Association have now all their machinery in readiness for operation and we understand that the work of cleaning seed will commence this week and probably will keep two men employed until Spring with this work.

Mr. Upton Seamen, Station Agent at Elmira, spent Sunday in Souris visiting his Aunt, Miss Minnie Seamen.

Mr. Roderick S. Munn, has resumed his duties at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Souris, after enjoying a few days of holiday at his parents home at Marshfield.

Christmas passed very quietly in Souris this year and there were very few signs of any Christmas "Spirits."

Week end visitors to Souris included Miss Eleanor Sterns of Charlottetown, who was the guest at the home of her grand-father, Mr. John G. Sterns.

Mr. Peter Holland, Station Agent at Souris is again back to work after a few weeks holidays.

The St. James United Church was appropriately decorated for Christmas Sunday with spruce and other decorations. Beautiful Christmas Carols and anthems were rendered by the choir at both services of the day. The evening service took the form of picture and song presentation of the life of Christ. Beautiful pictures illustrating his life from birth to death were eloquently described by the pastor Rev. J. G. Hockin as they were thrown on the screen.

The following students of Prince of Wales College at Charlottetown are spending the holidays at their homes, the Misses Virginia MacDonald, Doris MacDonald, Margaret LaVie, and William Acorn

Mr. Arthur McAllum, has returned to Charlottetown after spending a few days in Souris at the home of his parents.

NARROW ESCAPE—Major T. B. Rogers is confined to his home in Southport suffering from a cut on the back of his head, numerous bruises and a general shaking up sustained Tuesday afternoon when thrown from an express wagon Major Rogers was removing a number of foxes from one ranch to another and had a number loaded on an express wagon driving along the road, when the horse became affrighted and started to run. Major Rogers held firmly to the reins, in an attempt to save his valuable load from being thrown out and injured, or probably killed, but he himself was thrown to the ground, and picked up some time later in an unconscious condition. He was carried into his home and a doctor rushed from the city. It was found there were no bones broken but he was suffering from cuts and bruises.

VICTORIA RINK — The Victoria Rink has been opened to the public for the winter season. Skating and hockey will now be the order of the day for the next three months at least. There never was a time when so many skating rinks are to be found, or are under construction, as at the present. Hockey teams are in existence from end to end of P. E. I. The people freely patronize the different games and loudly applaud their favorite team. At Victoria, the Unions have again organized and are prepared to take on all comers. This team in the past had attained to no mean record, having twice annexed the intermediate championship of the Island, and once the Maritime championship. If they notch up to expectations, then the public may look forward to some exciting matches in the coming months.

WEDDING BELLS—A quiet but pretty wedding took place at Malpeque by the Rev. Fred Williamson on Wednesday evening, Dec. 14th, when Miss Marion Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stewart of French River, was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Bernard of the same place. The winsome young bride looked charming in a gown of empire blue crepe. Her coat was brown with hat and accessories to match. Her bridesmaid, Miss Elsie MacKay wore a gown of Bordeau wine crepe, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. George Stewart, brother of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of the bride where a reception was given in their honour to about forty invited guests. The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold pendant, to the bridesmaid a pendant, and to the groomsman a set of gold cuff links. After the wedding supper, the serenaders called and extended good wishes to the bride and groom, and after being treated with refreshments returned to their homes. Previous to her marriage the bride received many lovely and useful gifts. A host of friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Bernard a happy wedded life.

Mrs. Raney Gallant has entered the City Hospital to undergo a minor operation.

Service Of Ordination

On Tuesday evening at 7.30 p.m. a large congregation assembled in the Christian Church, Summerside, consisting of members of that church and many friends from Trinity United, the Presbyterian and Baptist Churches to witness the ordination of Rev. Carlisle Watterworth, who has lately been called to minister to the Christian Church at Summerside.

Rev. Mr. Watterworth of Montague, the candidate's father, conducted the service. Owing to sikness, Rev, W. H. Harding, who intended to assist in the service, was unable to do so. Rev. Mr. Campbell, pastor of Trinity United, and Rev. Mr. Jeans, pastor of the Presbyterian Churches, most graciously assisted in the service by reading, offering of prayers and giving short but timely and effective talks.

Mrs. M. F. Schurman and Miss Amanda Cannon sang solos very fitting to the occasion at conjunctions in the service that made the rendering of them very effective.

Rev. Mr. Watterworth delivered a very mipressive ordination sermon which though particularly addressed to the candidate was a source of blessing to all.

Three vital questions pertaining to and based on the fundamentals of the Holy Bible were then directed to the candidate. These being fittingly answered, Elders of the church, Mr. James Callbeck and Mr. A. P. Wells, came forward and with the "laying on of hands" by Rev. Mr. Watterworth and these two Elders, God's Blessing was impressively invoked upon the candidate.

Immediately after, Mrs. Schurman sang very sweetly "I Give Thee My Life."

The impressive ceremony closed with the Benediction pronounced Rev. L. B. Campbell, S.

LIVESTOCK

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, Dec. 28—There were 155 cattle, 161 calves, 793 hogs and sheep and lambs for sale on the two Montreal livestock markets today.

The cattle market was just steady. One load of good quality steers, averaging around 1,160 pounds, was sold for $4.50. Another load of just plain to medium quality steers brought $3.75, with six or seven good light heifers and an odd fed calf at $4. Common butcher cows brought $1.50 to $1.75. The balance of the cattle was not sold at time of writing.

Calves were unchanged. Plain to medium quality calves in mixed lots were sold from $5.25 to $5.50 with fairly good kinds up to $6.25. Grass calves were mostly $2.50.

Medium good to good ewes and wethers were weighed at $5 with culls picked out at $3.50. Sheep ranged from $1 to $2.

Hogs were moving slowly and there was a weaker undertone to the hog market. The few sales made were mostly $4 with one load at $4.10 and part of a load at $4.15 for good quality hogs, fed and watered.

When sold on grade, selects brought $1 per hog premium. With a cut of $2 and $3 per hog on heavies and extra heavies respectively.
