Alton, Alameda, California. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Dickie, in the presence of a few friends. The bride was becomingly attired in a navy blue travelling suit. The electric storm in the western part of the Province Thursday night, was very severe in some sections. At Arlington, Lot Fourteen, the storm was accompanied by hail, some of the pieces being one and a quarter inches in diameter. Windows were broken by the hail and fences blown down by the gale. Nearly every house in the vicinity of Grand River Bridge had some panes of glass broken. At Richmond the hail storm was terrific, every house in the village sustaining some damage. Mrs. Larkin, her son Emmet and Dr. McGrath were returning from a fishing trip when they were overtaken by the storm. Their horse, pelted by the merciless hail, became unmanageable and Mr. Larkin was obliged to cover the animal with the carriage rug. The party escaped unharmed, although the carriage was overturned. Miss Larkin and a friend also of the same party, were driving a little in advance of the others and took refuge in a nearby barn, the doors of which were open for them by a boy who kindly came to the rescue. The little fellow had his face severely cut by the hail. At Summerside there was not a drop of rain although it fell in torrents about a mile north of the town. The hail storm passed over Kensington and was quite heavy, a number of windows being broken.

George and Mrs. Ramsay Summerside left yesterday for Melrose Highlands, Mass., where they will reside in future.

The funeral of the late William Taylor, Freetown, took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. The late Mr. Taylor was one of the prominent landmarks of Prince County, a successful farmer, public spirited and ready at all times to take an active and intelligent part in anything pertaining to the welfare of the community. In his later years he devoted a good deal of attention to fruit culture and had one of the largest and best kept orchards in the Province. He was eighty-six years of age and was the eldest of a family of nine, of whom only two, Caleb and Thomas are now living. His widow and a large family of sons and daughters survive.
