Crystals Defeat the Moncton Neptunes 7-4

The Crystal hockey team gave a brilliant exhibition of good clean hockey last night in Summerside when in the presence of some four hundred spectators they defeated the visiting Moncton team by the score of 7 to 4.
The game got away at 8.10, the Crystals in the opening period showing superior ability round out the period by a tally of 2 to 0 in their favor.
In the second period the home team continued to demonstrate that they had the advantage of the victory and the tally read 4-0 when the time for the players to get their second wind arrived.
In the third period the Monctonians aroused themselves in a desperate effort to reverse the situation and incidentally to trim the Crystals. Their efforts were rewarded with four goals and for a time it looked like things were going to happen.
The Crystals however, had no intention of allowing the result of their previous efforts to be smothered out in this way and they closed up the account by adding three more to the tally and thus the game ended 7 to 4.
The visitors were accorded a good reception.
Penalties were few.
Houghton, Bouta and McNeill with Woods in goal proved exceptionally good men and a lot of good things were said of them while every man on the visiting team played at his best.
Mr. Arthur Allen as referee handled the game in good shape giving credit to the Crystals for their play and the penalties when deserved.
The Crystal line up was as follows:
Goal—Woods
Defense—Morris and Clark
Forwards—Bouta, McNeill, Houlton.
Subs—Ferguson, Siliphant, Comp ton and Tanton.

An Amazing Story Comes From London Correspondent

Says American Newspaper Men Were Called in Conference at Insigation of British Government and Warned of Danger of War Between Britain and U. S. Story Officially Denied.

(Special to The Guardian.)
MONTREAL, Feb. 9.—The Montreal Star tonight carries the following cable under date London:—The British Foreign Office on Monday made a gesture of tremendous significance when it summoned to its office in Whitehall every correspondent representing the American newspapers news service and uttered through their lips one of the most important utterances of Anglo-American relations today, warning that we are treading the path leading to war.
The conference had been carefully arranged and was conducted under complications that left no doubt as to its official character. Every preparation, even down to such details as providing of paper and pencils had been made and the Spokesman for Great Britain—it was announced before session must remain anonymous. But it was evident by his address that he had the knowledge sanction and approval of the Government.
Newspapermen accustomed to dealing with softer phases of diplomacy were amazed at the frankness of speech from which it was inferred American relations to England are strained to a far greater degree than would appear on the surface. Although the speaker smoothed away some of the harshness of the text by declaring that there was no question under discussion which could not be settled diplomatically.
The substance of the statement was a direct appeal to both countries, throughout the press to exercise patience and use every possible care to guard against statements of actions which may serve to arouse feeling in Canada or America. But it was characterized by a forceful vigorous warning in terms not usually found in diplomatic conditions. The speaker insisted upon describing the situation as one of broad aspects by which the Anglo-American people were drifting apart through lack of comprehension for each other.

Farmer's Cause Advocated By Lecturer to Students

Must be in Position to Tell Middlemen the Cost of Production and the Sale Prices. Farmers' Prices are Set for Them, Not by Them.

(Special to The Guardian.)
TORONTO, Feb. 9.—The farmer needs a bookkeeper at once. When he has that, said Dr. W. T. Jackson, lecturing on farm economics to the special students from the farms at the University of Toronto this morning, he needs to disclose his selling price fairly and intelligently to the middleman. Unhappily the farmer knows what his costs are, indefinite figures, said Prof. Jackson, he is at the mercy of that overloaded distributing system we have at present. He ought to be so organized that he can say to the middleman organization: it has cost me this much to produce this pound of butter; I will sell it to you for this much. The farmer at present does not see the prices," said Prof. Jackson. "The idea that the farmer has been setting the price for his produce all these years and has been getting rich as the result is all wrong."

Premier Lloyd George Issues a Warning

In Forceful Speech Premier Warns Britains That Danger is Not Yet Over. Declares Ireland Cannot be Granted Free Republic and a Navy.

LONDON, Feb. 9.—Premier Lloyd George today issued a warning that the period of danger has not yet passed. The world is still reeling under a most terrible restlessness and demoralizing period, he added, in addressing the Welsh Liberals in Central Hall. The Premier declared he had no time to defend himself from the attacks by Opposition newspapers.
"I am engaged in a terrible task," he declared. "It is far more important than defending myself. Who says the danger is past? I wish to God everything was, because it worries me and fills me with dread." If somebody with authority and vision, whose word I could accept could tell me, yes, the danger is over, I would be so glad, I would sign my resignation tomorrow. Alluding to Ireland, he said the conditions have given Ireland a greater measure of home rule than either Gladstone or Asquith had proposed, but added, they won't take it.
"They must have an Irish Republic, Irish navy, Irish army. They won't get it and if they don't get it we are told they will kill our policemen and soldiers, not in open fighting but hiding in holes, walking as respectable tenant farmers or swaggering along the road until they come to a hiding place where they find rifles, perhaps the very policemen they would murder as though they were innocent men." "Are we to allow that sort of thing to be done without protecting the people we are sending there? ("Crises of no")—There is no issue between us and our political opponents on home rule. We have gone one better than Gladstone's Home Rule Bill. There is an issue about setting up an independent country at our very gates where submarines used to lurk and sink our ships and endanger our commerce and very life of the nation. There is an issue as to whether policemen and soldiers who are there upholding the honor of our flag, are to be shot down by men who lurk in houses. I know of no other issue.
